LIVE STOCK PRICES ADVANCE IN CHICAGO

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Chicago received only half its normal consignment of live stock today. The live stock market prices advanced but retail dealers declared that their rates are not affected. A conspiracy on the part of some of the western stock raisers to retaliate on the public for recent meat boycotts is seen by some stock dealers in today's small receipts.

Owing to this scarcity cattle have advanced 15 to 25 cents a hundred weight on the hoof, hogs 5 to 10 cents and sheep 10 to 15 cents. About 10,000 cattle were received, 23,000 pigs and 12,000 sheep. The present price of the best steers is $8 a hundred weight or 8 cents a pound on the hoof.
