Editorial Articles upon every subject of present interest or importance. For the principles by which THE WORLD will be governed in its discussion and treatment of all public questions, it will suffice to say that the WORLD, while conservative in politics, desires the conservation only of what is good and wise in our public institutions and our political system.

It will inculcate a steadfast reliance upon the original principles of our political system as the only sound basis of all needed improvements therein; an unflinching devotion to the Constitution and Union, a scrupulous fidelity to the spirit as well as the letter of our laws, and a sleepless vigilance in maintaining all the great safeguards of Civil and Religious Liberty.

It will do justice always, to the best of its ability, to all men and to all classes of men; it will recognize no enemies but the enemies of good morals, public order and the law; it will endeavor, in a word, to make its columns a terror to evil-doers and a praise to them that do well.

NEW YORK THE SUN.

1877..... NEW YORK..... 1877 THE DIFFERENT EDITIONS OF THE SUN during the year will be the same as during the year that has just passed.

The SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and retrenchment, and of the substitution of steamship, wisdom and integrity for hollow pretence, imbecility and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people, as opposed to government by fraud in the ballot box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military violence. It will endeavor to supply its readers—a body now not far from a million of souls—with the most careful, complete and trustworthy accounts of current events, and will employ for this purpose a numerous and carefully selected staff of reporters and correspondents. Its reports from Washington, especially, will be full, accurate and fearless; and it will doubtless continue to deserve and enjoy the hatred of those who thrive by plundering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, while it will endeavor to merit the confidence of the public by defending the rights of the people against the encroachments of unjustified power.

The price of the DAILY SUN will be 55 cents a month or $6.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition $7.70 a year. The SUNDAY SUN, eight pages, $1.20 a year, post paid. The WEEKLY SUN, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furnished during 1877 at the rate of $1.00 a year, post paid.

The benefit of this large reduction from the previous rate for the WEEKLY SUN can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more subscribers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, postage paid, the expenses of paper and printing are barely repaid; and considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the people will consider the WEEKLY SUN the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best.
