Holmes County Farmer

THURSDAY.....AUGUST 2, 1860

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Agricultural.

The Holmes county Agricultural Society will meet at Millersburg on Saturday August 11th, at 1 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

Thanks.

To Joseph Kimerer, Capt. Pounds and others for new subscribers. Forty-seven have been added to our list during the past week. The work goes bravely on.

Religious.

We are requested to say that there will be no services in the Lutheran, Rev. Mr. Knisely's Church, on Sunday next. In two weeks from that time Rev Mr. Knisely will deliver his valedictory.

Gold! Gold!!

George L. Cook has just received a very large and beautiful supply of Watches, Jewelry, &c., which he says he will sell at less prices than goods of like quality have ever been sold in this region of country. Give him a call.

To Correspondents.

We desire correspondents to notice that we publish no communication unless the name of the writer is made known to us. We have just received a communication, too late for this week's paper, without the name of the writer, however, the writer is known to us and it may be looked for next week. When writing for publication write on but one side of the paper.

Apologetic.

Our Foreman desires to apologize for the poor appearance of the printing in this paper, owing to some disarrangement of the press.—Zanesville Aurora.

The Editor of the Aurora should "desire" to apologize for copying a number of articles from the Farmer without the usual credit.

Dwellings.

We have repeatedly urged upon the people of this place the importance of erecting a number of dwelling houses. Many families would have located in this place within the past year if dwellings could have been procured. In one year's residence we were unable to secure a dwelling house save but for three months and that was not fit to live in, and in all probability we would now be without a dwelling place if it had not been for the kindness of Judge Saunders, who built one for our special accommodation.

For the Farmer.

MESSRS EDITORS.—I have been urged by my numerous friends to allow my name to be used in connection with the nomination for County Commissioner on the Democratic Ticket. I have not, until the present time consented to be a candidate; the time to the Primary Election is now so short that it will be impossible for me to see any considerable number of the Democracy before the nominations. I would, therefore, ask all to remember that I am a candidate for nomination, whether successful or not, I will be found as ever battling for the good old Democratic party.

Yours Respectfully,

JESSE UHL.

Brutal and Cowardly Assault.

On Friday evening last, between nine and ten o'lock while we were standing in front of Mr. COHN's clothing store, in private conversation with Gen. ANKENY, a cowardly Black Republican ruffian named ANDY DUNCAN, backed by JOHN HENRY, slipped up quietly behind us and by aiming a blow and pushing at the same time succeeded in getting us off the pavement. He followed up the attack until he was caught by Gen. ANKENY. A crowd was soon assembled and the ruffian left.—On Saturday morning he was arrested and taken before Esq CRITCHFIELD, and fined fifteen dollars and costs. A few minutes after we were again assaulted by him when he was again arrested and bound over to the Court of Common Pleas. We sustained no material injury, but that is nothing to the credit of the ruffian for he gave us the hardest blow he could. We learn from others that he fancied an article in last weeks paper in speaking of a man who wished his wheat cannon balls and in the hands of Mexicans to shoot American soldiers alluded to his father, and it was for this he made the cowardly attack. If the article fit him he ought not to complain of it; if it did not he had no more reason to complain than any other citizen of the county. No one was named in the article; nothing was said that would point to any man, and if the DUNCAN family would have kept quiet about it who would have thought of its applying to them? We have been repeatedly threatened, behind our back, by this DUNCAN, HENRY and a few of their Black Republican associates but we never regarded their threats. There was a gang of this kind of rowdies that assailed Mr. REED, when he edited the paper; it was the same with G. F. NEWTON, and also with J. H. NEWTON.

We do not hold the Republican party responsible for their conduct. A majority, a very large majority, all the better men of the party condemn the ruffianism and cowardly assault of DUNCAN, in the strongest terms, and declare that the fine of fifteen dollars was not half enough. There are a few aiders and abettors of the rowdy gang who pretend to be proper nice men that we expect to have a lecture for one of these days. We wish them to remember that no threats will deter us from writing just what we please.

Sons of Malta.

One evening last week about one hundred members of the secret order, known as the Sons of Malta, arrived here from Akron for the purpose, as we understand, of instituting a lodge at this place. They had a gun squad along who made some tall thunder. They were met at the station by the bands of this place. A procession was formed at the depot and marched through the principal streets. Some seventy or eighty persons were along with the Sons who came for a spree, and with the assistance of some noisy people in this place succeeded in spoiling a large quantity of liquor and in making the night hideous with their riotous conduct. We learn that much of this bad conduct was unjustly charged to the Sons, who as a general thing conducted themselves in a highly proper manner.

We know but little of the Sons of Malta.—Much has been said concerning them, but it is generally conceded by those whose judgment is worthy of attention that the world knows no more of them than it does of Masonry or Odd Fellowship. The order was established in the Island of Malta. Neither history or tradition can fix the time of its institution. It is known to have existed since the year 1102, but as to how long it existed before that time we could not even venture a guess. Until within the last three years no lodges were known to exist elsewhere than on the Island where the first Lodge was erected. Lodges are now scattered over the United States, and it is said the members in this country number nearly a million.—Nearly all the Senators, Members of Congress, Judges, Governors and a great number of ministers are said to be members of the order,

The great object and aim of the order is charity. We see it stated that a great number in all the large cities, as well as in villages, have, since the institution of the order in this country, received clothing and food from the members without knowing from whence come the welcome gifts.—The By Laws, which we have read, strictly forbid any member to make known when or to whom any donations are made. We have it from what we consider reliable authority that some forty dollars have already been expended in this place for charitable purposes. If their object is good every well disposed person will wish them success. Let us be charitable and suppose their aims laudable until the contrary be shown.

It is a question, a great question, whether charitable institutions should be conducted secretly.—It is claimed that whatever is good should be known to the world that all mankind might profit by it. On the other hand it is asserted that without any organization of the charitable in communities the old and feble, the poor and sick would be neglected by the most kindly disposed. It is claimed that without a concert of action on the part of the charitable that men become careless and the meritorious be neglected. We believe it is the duty of the G. R. J. A. of the order to seek out the suffering and have their wants alleviated. The G. T. J A., we are told, is appointed to look after those who are too modest or bashful to make their wants known. We will notice the order further when we get time and room to do so.

An Ordinance.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the Incorporated Village of Millersburg, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, by agent or otherwise, to keep open for the transaction of business, any room, rooms, grocery saloon or other place of resort, within the incorporated limits of the said village of Millersburg on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday; and each and every person or persons so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine in any sum not exceeding twenty nor less than five dollars, at the discretion of the authority having jurisdiction of the offence.

SEC 2. That if any person or persons shall be found exciting any disturbance in any room or rooms, grocery or saloon, or other place of public resort within the limits of the said incorporated village, on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, the person or persons so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine in any sum not exceeding twenty nor less than five dollars, at the discretion of the authority having jurisdiction of the offence.

SEC 3 That this Ordinance take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

D S UHL, Mayor.

W M LOUTHER, Recorder.

Passed in council July 27, 1850.

MARRIED.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday evening, July 31st, at the residence of Mr. BENONI DAWSON, the bride's father, by Rev. J. A. E. SIMPSON, Mr W. H. FRANKS, of Fredericksburg, Wayne county, O., and Miss MARGARET DAWSON, of Holmes county, O.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—On Tuesday morning, July 25, 1860, at his residence, in Millersburg, Ohio, of anæmia, (protracted for three months) Dr JACOB VOORHES, in the 57th year of his age, leaving a family and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn.

The deceased was a native of Fayette county, Pa., but became a resident of Jefferson county, O., as early as the year 1805. On arriving to manhood he selected, as the calling of his choice, the profession of medicine. After persuing the study of medicine the usual time, under the instruction of Dr. Judkins, he went to the city of Lexington, Kentucky, where he attended a medical college and qualified himself to stand as an ornament in his profession. After a few years practising in Jefferson county he removed to Millersburg, O., where he engaged in the practice of medicine and enjoyed the fullest confidence of the community in his skill as a physician and integrity as a man.

In 1839 he was elected by the Legislature associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Holmes county, which position he occupied with very distinguished ability for seven years. In 1847 he was again honored by the people of his county in being elected to the State Legislature, and in 1848 was re-elected to the same position. While a member of the legislature he commanded the respect of his constituency for the distinguished manner in which he discharged his duty as a public servant and his highly moral bearing as a man. After returning to his constituents he abandoned the further practice of his profession, having accumulated enough of this world's goods to gratify and satisfy the ambition of a prudent man.

The deceased, although he lived almost his three score years, during which time he received flattering marks of the high esteem and confidence of his neighbors and acquaintances, was not unmindful of the fact, that life is but a drama, and shortly the curtain of life would drop, placing friends, neighbors and all earthly grandeur upon one side of eternity whilst he should stand upon the other. More than a quarter of a century since he made a profession of religion, from which time to his death he was a zealous, consistent and worthy member of the church. What a happy fact it is to know, that a man need not throw away his religion to serve his country when solicited by his countrymen to sit as Judge or Legislator upon the rights of citizens. At all times and under all circumstances the deceased did exemplify his religion by his daily walk and conversation, and those who know him best will not hesitate to affirm that his nature was all kindness, goodness and firmness and a desire to see all his neighbors happy in life and possessed of a good hope for the future. *

INPECTINE,

The Persian Fever Charm.

For the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great travel in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his pocket an article, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although the relic was as to a sceptic, he applied and was cured immediately relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman after buried it in a profound secrecy and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Searching rewards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the seed could be found, and of which it was composed. The seed of Peruvian bark is the article specified, and is held in the utmost of the natives to be the medicine for the powers of the Priest.

Since he returned to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character who have given it to their acquaintance, and they have each having given a specimen to Persons for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers—it is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for using, on receipt of a dollar.

HEENAN & SAYERS.

EVERY one who has paid any attention to the great fight between HEENAN & SAYERS did not fail to notice the great number of times SAYERS was knocked down on his "pegs," but it is not generally known that many of his subsequent falls resulted from wearing a

DEFICIENT PAIR OF BOOTS.

A pair with imperfect heels, which give him an unstable foundation, and subjected him to great inconvenience and exertion to maintain his footing. HEENAN, on the contrary had no difficulty in sustaining his equilibrium. It is a notable fact that his "broad cloth" was but slightly soiled at his feet. After the fight it was discovered that he wore a superior pair of Boots. They were tried by different men, and it was found that it was next to impossible to knock a man over who had them on. Tens was carried in for Heenan at every round, put them on and in another minute he was as fresh as a daisy from his "pegs." Hundreds was offered $50, $100 $250 $500 to tell where he had got them, but he haughtily refused the same. The Boots were made by
