HE WOOED ME AT THE FOUNTAIN.

He wooed me at the fountain,
When the moon shone bright above,
And with the murmuring of the stream,
He pledged his vows of love.
I bade him to my father hie,
The pleasing tale to tell,
Then seek again the fountain shoon,
Down in the sylvan dell.

He wooed me in the bower,
When the songsters filled the grove,
And with the dove's soft tones he sighed
His ardent tale of love
I bade him seek my mother's side,
Her blessing first to win,
Then claim me for his chosen bride,
The trellised bower within.

He wooed me at the festal,
Where music reigned supreme,
And 'mid the revel wild and light
He breathed his chosen theme;
Yet all unblessed I could not yield
To man the heart's rich mine;
Or falsely dash the holy light
From filial duty's shrine.

At length 'twas at the altar,
'Neath the organ's pealing sound,
He sought again my trembling hand,
While friends were smiling round;
No more I bade him others seek,
Or waved him from my side;
With blushes mantling o'er my cheek,
I knelt his happy bride.

"I Would Not Live Alway."—Job vii., 16.

BY REV. DR. MULENBERG.

As this poem has been revised, and differs considerably from the usually received versions of it, we give it entire in the form which the author deems most complete:

I would not live always—live alway below!
Oh, no, I'll not linger when bidden to go;
The days of our pilgrimage granted us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer:
Would I shrink from the path which the prophets of God
Apostles, and martyrs, so joyfully trod?
Like a spirit unblest, o'er the earth would I roam,
While brethren and friends are all hastening home?

I would not live alway; I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
Where seeking for rest we but hover around,
Like the patriarch's bird, and no resting is found;
Where Hope when she points her gay bow in the air
Leaves its brilliance to fade in the night of despair,
And Joy's fleeting angel ne'er sends a glad ray,
Save the gleam of the plumage that bears him away.

I would not live alway—thus fettered—by sin,
Temptation without and corruption within.
In a moment of strength, if I sever the chain,
Scarce the victory's mine ere I'm captive again;
E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears:
The festival trump calls for jubilant songs,
But my spirit hr own miserere prolongs.

I would not live alway—no, welcome the tomb,
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
Where He designed to sleep, I'll too, bow my head,
All peaceful to slumber on that hallowed bed.
Then the glorious day break, to follow the night,
The orient gleam of the angels of light,
With their clarion call for the sleepers to rise
And chant forth their matins, away to the skies.

Who, who, would live alway? away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noon-tide of glory eternally reigns;
Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren, transported to greet,
While the songs of salvation exultingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

That heavenly music! hark! sweet in the air
The notes of the harpers how clear ringing there!
And see, soft unfolding those portals of gold,
The King all arrayed in His beauty behold!
Oh, give me, Oh, give me, the wings of a dove,
To adorn Him—be near Him—wrapt with His love;
I but wait for the summons, I list for the word—
Alleluia—Amen—evermore with the Lord.

Novelty in the Art World.

PHOTOGRAPH UPON PORCELAIN.

Secured by letters patent in the United States, England, France and Belgium.

THE AMERICAN PHOTOGRAPHIC PORCELAIN CO.

No 781 Broadway New York,

having secured their novel and ingenious invention by American and European patents, are fully prepared to accept all orders for presenting all the attractive and advantageous features of ordinary photographs, the soft tints and finish of a water color or drawing, and a brilliancy and durability of quality, rendering them as imperishable as the natural properties of the articles upon which they are transferred.

Miniature Likenesses of Persons on China,

As the patented process of the Company enables the reproduction of Photographs, not only in a plain surface and uniform manner, such as are found on any degree of irregularity, exquisite pictures can be produced with full effect and vigor, and of a beauty of delineation, upon Porcelain vases of any description and dimension usually sought for ornamental or household utility, such as thereby securing for the fair portion of our population a novel and exquisite style of ornamentation of articles in domestic use.

In order to furnish facilities for the gratification of the popular taste, and to meet the wants of those patrons of the Fine Arts who desire to have Portraits on Porcelain, the Company have introduced them to a new extent of superior merit in quality, manufactured to their own order which they sell at cost prices.

As the American Company are owners of the patent right and consequently the only persons authorized to use the process, they have determined, in order

To Afford People in Every Section of the Union

an opportunity to possess

Portraits on China,

to make the following proposition to

Residents in the Country, who are unable to visit personally the Artists and Galleries in New York.

Persons sending a photograph, ambrotype, or daguerreotype to the office of the Company in New York accompanied by

Five Dollars,

will receive in return by express, free of other charge,

A richly ornamented Breakfast Cup and Saucer with the portrait transferred thereon.

By transmitting a daguerreotype and

Ten Dollars,

they will secure you in like manner,

A handsom French Vase or Toilet Articles, with the portrait transferred by the patented process. By sending a pair of daguerreotypes and

Fifteen Dollars,

they will receive in return

A Pair of rich Severs Vases, with the portraits executed equal to miniature paintings; and, in like manner, portraits can be reproduced on porcelain vases or

Vases of every quality of finish, ranging in price from

Twenty to One Hundred Dollars the pair.

MANHOOD,
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope,

A LECTURE ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT AND RADICAL CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility; Nervousness and Involuntary Emissions inducing Impotency and Mental and Physical Debility.

By ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually cured without internal Medicine and the dangerous applications of Surgical operations, bougies, instruments and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the only new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands

MRS. WINSLOW,

AN EXPERIENCED Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of Mothers, her Soothing Syrup.

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers it will give rest to yourselves & RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine, never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "OF WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with never failing success in THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions which if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, ABSOLUTE SURE—to follow the use of this medicine. It is perfectly safe. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by druggists throughout the world.

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS

IN THE ART,

WILLIAM McKEE,

Would take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Millersburg, that he has taken the rooms over Dr Young's office, where he has an excellent SKY-LIGHT, and with his experience in the Art, having had the advantage of being instructed in one of the largest and best Photograph Galleries in the East, he feels justified in saying that he will make

PHOTOGRAPHS, AMBROTYPES

And all the popular pictures of the day attaining the highest perfection in the Art.

He defies competition, and claims that he will make better pictures, on an average than have ever been made west of the Mississippi. My results are certain.

He would also call attention to the artistic and genteel position in which his subject will be seated. It is unnecessary to remind the enlightened citizens of this vicinity of the inestimable value of a fine and lifelike picture of a departed friend, suffice it to say that earliest way is to begin in the present, for the past is not yours, and the future you cannot command.

COME ONE! COME ALL!!

To see and get better pictures than have ever been made West. If they do not fill, costs each, neatly executed in gilt morocco case. ☞Bring your children. He claims not to be excelled in making child likeness and fine pictures of children. Bring them to the rooms.

Mr. M is not one who has the name of a traveling Artist. There is no humbug about this circular.

Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.
