TWO CHINAMEN HALED TO COURT; ONE FIRST 'VAG' OF HIS RACE

The first Chinese "vag" on the police records faced Police Judge Craig yesterday morning. He is Sing Joe. Patrolman M. P. Shutt found him asleep on a bench in Robinson park. Sing Joe's assessment was ten days.

Another native of the Flowery Kingdom said good morning to his honor. He was docketed as John Doe. This nonchestial-like name was employed because he was not in condition to give his proper cognomen when taken to police headquarters by Patrolman Shutt. He gave his name as Sam Jones to the court. Sam Jones had been imbiding freely, according to Shutt. He got fifteen days.

CITY SUES FOR COLLECTION OF OCCUPATION TAX

Three Actions, Asking Judgment for $235 in Aggregate, Are Filed in District Court; More May Follow.

Suits for the collection of occupation taxes were filed yesterday afternoon in the district court. City Treasurer A. W. Goodrich is plaintiff and K. W. Fee, T. J. Passmore & Son, and A. Fleischer, defendants. The complaints were signed by Deputy City Attorney Thomas N. Wilkerson and District Attorney Manuel C. Vigil.

Each of the complaints recites that the defendant was notified by the assessor but failed to take out the tax. In each case prays the amount of the tax plus the costs be called after the citation in the complaint, of a section of the occupation tax statute authorized the doubling of the amount due from delinquents.

The complaint alleges on information and belief that Mr. Fee's sales are in excess of $20,000 a year. The tax in this case would be $50. The amount of judgment asked against him is $150, being double the amount of the tax and costs. T. J. Passmore & Son's sales are said to exceed $10,000 annually, making his tax $20. Judgment for $60 is prayed. Insurance agents are taxed $10, so judgment amounting to $25 is asked against Mr. Fleischer.

City Clerk Thomas Hughes, who was appointed special deputy assessor for sending notices to occupation tax delinquents, said yesterday afternoon that more suits were likely to follow.

Alleging that her husband, Joaquin Tachias, left her June 14, 1913, without telling her where he was going or why and that he has not written her since then, Mrs. Adelaida Leyba de Tachias brought suit in the district court for divorce. She says Tachias had been drinking before he left.

They were married November 10, 1904, at Cuesta, Sandoval county, and have one child, Lenora, 10 years old. She says the child is now in the custody of her paternal grandmother. Hancock & Carroll are her attorneys.

YOUNG MEN DRESSED AS WOMEN ARRESTED BY BARELAS CONSTABLE

Two youths, charged with masquerading as women, were arrested last night at Barelas by Constable Anastacio Romero. Their "escort," Harry Brown, also was nabbed, charged with disturbance. The pseudo-women are Raymond Wright and Charles Willey. The three live in Albuquerque.

According to Constable Romero, they were in front of a saloon, which he thinks they intended entering, when he accosted them. He detected the true identity of the two garbed in feminine apparel by their long, swinging strides, Romero said.

One wore a picture hat—and it was a dream—a black suit and high-heeled shoes. The other's costume was more to the boudoir style than street. He wore a flowing kimono and boudoir cap. One had on his own clothes under the disguise. They were taken to the Old Town jail just as they were dressed.

They probably will be arraigned before Justice D. E. Salas at Old Town tomorrow.

DEPUTIES WILL BE ON LOOKOUT TODAY TO PROTECT DOVES

Hearing that many hunters planned to shoot doves today, thinking the season opens today, Deputy Game Warden Tony Ortiz has employed five deputies who will frequent hunting grounds today. They have instructions to arrest any violators of the game laws. The dove season will open tomorrow.

TONY AT IT AGAIN: IT'S 10-CENT TAXI TO UNIVERSITY THIS TIME

TONY at it Again . . .No 14 . . . .

Tony Michelbach, the original 25-cent taxi man, simply insists on continuing to evidence the fact that he's Albuquerque's motor bus philanthropist. Now he's to the front with a 10-cent taxi line up the hill to the university. The line runs from Sixth street up Central to the university and is already in operation. The university attendance will be largely increased this year and Tony will increase the number of cars as the patronage demands it. This is but one of the many Michelbach stunts that cause Albuquerque people to look to Tony when they need a taxi. Phone 176.
