BIG WEEK AHEAD IN DISPLAY OF STATE EXHIBIT

Thousands of Visitors From All Parts of Country Expected to Throng New Mexico Building at San Diego.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Santa Fe, Aug. 29.—This week, the New Mexico building at San Diego will be visited by hundreds of delegates to the national convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Among the visitors are: President Edward H. Bonsall, of Philadelphia; Secretary George H. Randolt; Chairman C. A. Rockwell, Rev. Nathan W. Stanton, of Buffalo.

A reception will be given Mrs. Potter Palmer, of Chicago, who is booked for a visit. Rev. Camden M. Cohern, archaeologist of Allegheny college, was among the visitors. Dr. Horace Meyer Kallen, of the University of Wisconsin, the celebrated Hebrew scholar, was also a visitor. Among were also the following: J. H. Weaver, of Philadelphia, a well known coal king; Col. John Q. Nash, of Atlanta, Ga.; W. R. Denney and son, of Gallatin, Tenn; E. H. Randolph and wife, Shreveport, La.; Courtenay Barber, an insurance man of Chicago; Sheriff John D. Patty, of Clifton, Ariz.; Dr. and Mrs. A. V. Hennesey, of Council Bluffs, Ia.; Hugh E. Prather and family, of Dallas, Tex.; Mayor Evan G. Roberts and wife, of Moundsville, W. Va.

New Mexico Visitors.

New Mexicans who registered were: Mrs. W. C. Hazeldine, Mrs. J. W. Pettijohn, Albuquerque; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ireland, Santa Fe; A. G. Pollock, Santa Fe; Manuelito Denet, Shiprock; Sallie A. Eckard, Hurley; Mr and Mrs. E. M. Ely, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bryant, Albuquerque; H. J. Hynes, Las Vegas; Miss Dorothy Estherbrook, Telles; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Moore, Albuquerque; J. S. Clomstal and wife, Las Vegas; Douglas Young, East Las Vegas; Miss Katherine Wamel, Mrs. Lizzie Wamel, W. J. Wamel, Deming; Eleanor Whiting, Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ireland were very much interested in the Cathedral of the Desert and the wonderful way in which the resources of the state are being exploited. He was in Santa Fe last October when the exhibit was being collected but the realization of the plans at that time exceeded his wildest expectations. Mr. Ireland, who has several drug stores in Long Beach, says that a great many people at Long Beach have mentioned the Cathedral of the Desert to him. Reproduced at Santa Fe, says Mr. Ireland, it will be the greatest tourist attraction that this country would possess and its benefit is not only that of the capital but of the entire state.

State Has Profited.

A. G. Pollock, of the United States Indian service, reports that in his travels he found a renewed interest in New Mexico and its resources because of the showing made by the state at the exposition. Mr. Pollock passed scores of automobile parties traveling through New Mexico who are looking for locations. Fortunately the state looked never better both as to range and farms.

Manuel Denet was an interesting and interested visitor. He is a full-blood Navajo from Shiprock. He recognized in the motion picture films many a friend and compadre and, of course, was delighted. He asked that the films of the Indian dances be loaned to Shiprock for display after the exposition closes.

Charles F. Abbott, of Middlebury college, Vermont, loaded himself down with New Mexico literature which he intends to file and catalogue for the college library, as there are many New Englanders asking for information about New Mexico, because of the publicity campaign inaugurated from the New Mexico building. He traveled through eastern New Mexico from Clovis to Roswell, through Otero and Lincoln counties and the Mesilla valley as well as the Mimbres valley to post himself.

TO REINTER BODIES WITH SOLEMN CEREMONY

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Santa Fe, Aug. 29.—Next Sunday forenoon, the hundreds of burials taken from under the floor of the old Pecos mission, will be reinterred with solemn ceremony. Arrangements are to be made for solemn requiem mass. The entire altar recess and steps have been restored by Jesse Nusbaum, of the museum, for Dr. A. V. Kidder, in charge of the excavations. Very likely the regents of the museum, among whom is included Governor McDonald, will attend the ceremony. Many automobile parties from Santa Fe will make the trip. Dinner will be served at the Valley ranch.

The following registered at the museum: Mr. and Mrs. James L. Thompson, Liberty, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot L. Moore and daughter, Amada, Mich.; M. W. Maddox, State College; N. E. Field, N. A. SANTA FE ANNOUNCES ANOTHER RATE CUT

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Santa Fe, Aug. 29.—The A. T. & S. F., through its general freight agent, Anewalt, announces another cut in freight rates that will save western shippers and consumers thousands of dollars annually. The reductions are obtained by both direct cutting of carload rates and by applying low-priced commodity rating to many articles that have heretofore moved under arbitrary class rates.

These reductions are to supplement those made under the so-called schedule to meet Panama canal competition. Application to authorize the cuts has been made to the Interstate Commerce commission. All reductions will apply to Pacific coast terminals, with the usual relief to intermediate points.

Among the important proposed reductions in the carload rates are: Earthenware, $1.15 to ninety-five cents; furniture, iron beds, mattresses and springs, $1.10 and $1.15 to ninety cents; castings, ninety cents to seventy-five cents; paper towels, Chicago and west, ninety to eighty cents; soap, Chicago and west, eighty to sixty cents; wire cloth and netting, $1.25 to seventy-five cents; cotton bags, $1.25 to ninety cents; candies, $1.00 to seventy-five cents; ammonia sulphate, Chicago and west, sixty to fifty cents. Most important will be the reduction on canned goods from $1.10 to seventy-five cents. Brass, bronze, copper, canned goods, cocoanut, coffee, floor wax, furniture, glass, iron castings and fittings, floor tile, paper, cordiage, oil cloth and many others carried now at class rates will be given less-than-carload rates.

Taber to Handle Exhibit.

Santa Fe, Aug. 29.—The board of county commissioners today appointed William M. Taber, of Glorieta, to take charge of the Santa Fe county exhibit at the Albuquerque fair, and Alphonso Duckweiler, John V. Conway and Friend Palmer a committee to get together the exhibit.
