LATE NEWS FROM BUTTE

Venneday, the Embezzler, Will Be Returned to the Penitentiary.

The Application for a Writ of Habeas Corpus Withdrawn—Work on the Emma Nevada Mine—Other Notes and Gossip.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—In the Venneday case the application for writ of habeas corpus has been withdrawn and Sheriff Lloyd went to Helena to-day to get his prisoner and take him to the penitentiary.

Men were sent out to-day from here to work the Emma Nevada mine in Soap Gulch, five miles from Melrose. The samples assay 80 ounces in silver and one ounce in gold. This is the mine stocked by Nichols, Helehan & Co. last week. A load of tools and other implements has been sent down.

A letter was received to-day from John Floerchinger, manager of the Silver Mountain, reporting that he started sinking the new shaft on Friday, and has erected a temporary hoist to keep the snow off until he is ready to build a more permanent one. He expects soon to have news that will delight the recent purchasers of the stock. More tools and implements have been forwarded to him. The company has four full claims, two water rights and two mill sites. It has also bonded 160 acres of land which covers the right of a good stream of water and shuts out rival companies.

There are now 60 tons of high-grade ore on the dump, and when 100 tons are taken out the ore will be shipped to Great Falls. Stock is selling rapidly now at 10 cents, and President A. Fred Wey says it will be placed on the St. Louis board at 25 cents in three months.

The Young People's Alliance was entertained this evening by Lieutenant Governor Rickards and wife.

A team belonging to Winters & Donahoe became frightened at the motor this morning and ran away, demolishing the wagon.

Professor E. A. Steer, of the Butte high school, has been appointed manager for Montana of the National Educational association.

The Washington Guards will give a banquet to-morrow evening at the McDermott hotel.

Liberati will appear to-morrow and Thursday nights at Renshaw hall. Liberati is accompanied by a band of 60 pieces. He is famous as one of the finest of cornet players. There are four vocal artists in the troupe, and a rare treat is assured to lovers of music.

There was a ball at Mr. Ward's saloon in Woodville last night, and after the gentlemen got tired dancing they turned the ball-room into a prize ring and a rough and tumble free-for-all fight ensued.

Gus Kohler will shortly have one of the finest saloons in the United States. Painters are now at work under the direction of Prof. Klein ornamenting Mr. Kohler's saloon walls with magnificent panoramic views. These views are being painted in the highest and finest style. They cover many square yards of canvass and encircle the entire room, while immense mirrors at the rear end of the room and behind the bar reflect the views and greatly enhance the beauty of the scene. It is alleged that it will cost Mr. Kohler over $15,000 to have the painting done alone, and besides many other very costly improvements are being made.

The funeral of Johnny Harrington, the little boy killed on the railway last Sunday, was largely attended to-day.

Billy Whatley is somewhat of a fast young man and occasionally allows his temper to get the start of him. He went into the Palace saloon last night and got into a little argument with some of the habitues of that place. Billy got the worst of what few arguments were used in the dispute and to get even he yanked out a gun which he carried in his inside pocket. He was promptly arrested.

W. P. Brown paid $10 and costs to-day into police court for carrying concealed weapons.

Chas. Thomas attacked a girl in the Rose Bud saloon last night and proceeded to pound her in the most approved fashion. The girl gave the alarm by firing off a revolver and when Chief Smith and officers Leyden and Warner arrived and undertook to take Mr. Thomas he offered vigorous resistance and fought like a tiger.

Charles Tino, who was arrested for disturbing the peace on the 16th instant, gave a cash bond of $25 and his case was set for trial to-day at 4 o'clock. He did not appear and his bond was forfeited. There is still another case pending against him wherein he is under another bond of $25.

The case of Bushyeager the young man charged with stealing a diamond stud from one Farrell, will be heard in the district court by arrangement with the judge of the police court.

Work of sinking the shaft on the Ophir mine on Colorado street is progressing rapidly. They are down to the 50-foot level now and are cross-cutting. The prospects are very bright. Ore is now being taken out which runs from 25 to 150 ounces of silver. It is said to be a very rich claim.

Thomas Powers took possession of a room at Rose Gordon's lodginghouse, corner Main and Wyoming streets, and refused to leave. He was taken before Judge Newkirk to-day and fined $5 and costs.

Mike Collins, for assaulting Albert Allen, was fined $5 and costs. He couldn't pay, so went up to join the noble army over which Sheriff Sullivan and ex-Sheriff Lloyd are contending.

Thos. Edwards was yesterday granted license to wed Miss Rebecca Ham. The girl was only 16 years of age and the clerk of the court would not issue the license until her father and mother appeared and consented to her marriage.

Mike Holland and Kate O'Neil were today granted a marriage license.

There was no business transacted in the district court to-day. An adjournment was had until 10 to-morrow morning.

Butte Real Estate Record.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—The following are the real estate transactions since the last report:

Ed. H. Irvine and wife to Sophie Wilman, all the surface ground of the Charlotte lode, $1,800.

William J. Husselton to J. R. B. Coon, one-fourth interest in the Charming Bell quartz lode, $1.

Lea W. Foster et al to Charles Wilson, lots 18 and 19 in block 13 of Leggatt & Foster's addition to Butte City, $300.

A. J. Davis et al to Elizabeth Shole, lot 1 in block 5 of Davis & Bernard's addition to Butte, $1,000.

Hattie M. Peter et al to J. R. B. Coon, lot 2 in block 12 of Leggatt & Foster's addition, $1.

Rod D. Leggatt et al to Margaret Gallagher, lots 8 and 9 in block 15 of Leggatt & Foster's addition, $400.

RIVAL FIRE ALARM SYSTEMS.

Butte Aldermen About Evenly Divided as to the Merits of the Two Companies.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—A lively tilt is expected at the council meeting to-morrow night between the representatives of the Gamewell and the Gaynor fire alarm systems. The long contest that has been waging between these companies for the possession of Butte was suspended to allow the members of the fire committee to inspect the Gamewell system at Helena and the Gaynor system at Salt Lake. Helena has been visited, but the system at Salt Lake has not been put in working order yet and the council has been awaiting that event, in order to give the Gaynor people a fair show. But the Gamewell company will now urge that the matter be settled at once. The council has delayed 45 days, it is getting late in the season and another delay will necessitate the postponement until spring of the whole matter. The city will therefore be without a fire alarm system throughout the winter.

O. P. Crocker, who is representing the Gamewell company, says that if he is awarded the contract to-morrow night, he will have the system working in very short order. He will telegraph at once for wires and they are all ready for shipment. He has already arranged with Mr. Somers of the telephone company for their poles, and room has been left for the placing of the fire alarm wires upon them. When the fire committee visited Helena they were recommended by the fire authorities of Helena to put up poles of their own, as it would be found better than to place the wires on telegraph, electric light or telephone poles. Some of the aldermen, in view of this recommendation, are disposed to postpone the whole matter until spring. They think it is too late to put up poles. Mr. Crocker says it is unnecessary to put up poles, as the telephone poles can be used just as well. Even the electric light wires are insulated, and hence their poles could be used if it were necessary.

H. H. Whitacre, representing the Gaynor system, has telegraphed Mayor Kenyon that he will reach Butte to-night with a complete Gaynor system. The system will be put up to-morrow for the inspection of the aldermen and all other citizens who may wish to see its workings. The council is said to be quite evenly divided in their choice between the two systems, and a lively battle is anticipated.

Fire Marshal O'Brien will have a very brief report to make at the meeting, since there has been only one fire in town since the last report. It is believed that Butte has got the better of her incendiaries and that the two men against whom indictments were found by the grand jury are the veritable fire bugs of Butte.

Routine monthly business to the usual amount will come up before the council.

MR. HAMILTON'S COURT.

Lack of Business Prompts Him to Take a Rest for Two Weeks.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—There was no excitement attendant upon the opening of Mr Hamilton's "Kangaroo Koort" this afternoon. There were only about two dozen persons present when his "Ludship" ascended the bench in the probate court room and Jailor Griffiths shouted out the usual opening formula. Ex-Sheriff Lloyd or Under Sheriff Fomes were not present, but their presence was not required. There was no need for any officers, as every one present was in the best of humor. Mr. Hamilton himself smiled very graciously as he sank into the seat and called upon "Mr. Sheriff to open court." There was a lull in the proceedings after Mr. Griffiths yelled the "hear ye." The Judge nervously twisted his handsome moustache and cast a pitying glance upon the good natured jailer and ex-clerk of the district court Geo. W. Sprowl who stood awaiting developements. For some moments nothing was done by the "court" but exchange glances of inquiry with the gaping crowd. Suddenly the "judge" spied Mr. Pascoe the defeated republican candidate for the office of public administrator. Mr. Pascoe was requested to step up to the throne " justice which he did with alacrity and a whispered consultation between these two loyal republican office seekers comprised all the business transacted by Mr. Hamilton's judicial mill. At the conclusion of the consultation Mr. Hamilton's brow became clouded. Suddenly arousing himself he announced to the small army of reporters and Jailor Griffiths who now comprised the entire audience, that "Court would now take a recess until two weeks from to-day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon," and the learned judge, after delivering this exhaustive decision, promptly left the bench and the second scene in Mr. Hamilton's latest and greatest comedy, "The Republican Rag Baby Show," was brought to a close.

MINERAL LAND CONVENTION.

To Meet at Helena on the 29th to Consider Important Business.

Special to the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—The following call was issued to-night:

To the Members of the Mineral Land Convention and all others whom it may concern:

The question of the mineral lands of Montana and the relations of the Northern Pacific Railroad company thereto having again been brought prominently to the attention of the people by the action of the railroad company in advertising certain mineral applications for patent and by rulings of the land department which appear to be adverse to the mineral claimants, together with the near probability of patents being issued to the railroad regardless of the rights of mine owners, seems to render it necessary that the mineral land convention again be called together for the purpose of devising new ways and means for meeting the serious crisis which now threatens.

Therefore the members of said convention are earnestly requested to meet in the city of Helena on Friday, the 29th day of November, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of considering these matters. The great importance of the subject and the extent and nature of the interests involved demand that there shall be a full representation from every city, town, district and county affected. There is no rule as to the number of delegates that may be sent. Let all the members of the former conventions attend, together with as many others as can spare the time and as may be agreed upon.

Butte Caledonian Ball.

The ball of the Butte Caledonian society, to be held at Renshaw hall on St. Andrew's eve, November 29, promises to be one of the finest entertainments of the kind ever given in this city. Among the features will be the Vienna ladies' orchestra, and bag-pipe music by Prof. Coutts of Balmoral castle, Scotland. A splendid time is promised to all and none should miss it. It will be a novelty to citizens of Butte and surrounding country.

UNDER HEAVY BONDS.

James Hall, of Butte, Pleads NotGuilty—His Wife's Condition.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—James H. Hall was again taken this afternoon from the county jail to Judge Herbert's court in Walkerville for his preliminary examination. Attorney O'Donnell, for the prisoner, waived the preliminary examination, plead not guilty and asked commitment. It was also asked that the bail required be reduced. County Attorney Baldwin opposed this, saying that Mrs. Hall is still in a very critical condition, and that the bonds should be ample. He said the present charge against the prisoner is assault with a deadly weapon, but ultimately a more serious charge will be brought of assault with intent to commit murder. In view of this fact the bonds should be increased rather than decreased. Judge Herbert said that the physicians had not yet assured him that the woman is out of danger, and he was disposed to hold the prisoner without bail until the extent of the injuries received is determined. Finally, however, the bonds for the prisoner were fixed at $1,000. The prisoner asked to see his wife but the judge said that Mrs. Hall had several times requested that her husband be not allowed to enter the house. A serious result is feared, as Mrs. Hall is very nervous as well as very weak.

It is believed that Mrs. Hall will recover, although she is not yet pronounced out of danger.

HAD A LOT OF TROUBLE.

Mr. McLaughlin of Nebraska Has a Tough Time in Butte.

Special Correspondent of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—John M. McLaughlin, of Nebraska, came to Butte 10 days ago. He is an old farmer. Yesterday morning he hired a horse and buggy to drive out to Burlington to see his son. He returned late yesterday afternoon somewhat the worse for wear and liquor. In Galena street he fell out of the buggy, and laid in the middle of the road some time until officers found him. His face was badly bruised and scratched up and, the officers thought he had been beset by highwaymen, but they found $131 and a magnificent gold watch and chain in his pockets. McLaughlin became sober after awhile and said he had not been assaulted but remembered falling out of the buggy and that was all he did remember. He gave the police a cash bond of $25 for his appearance to answer a charge of drunkenness, but forfeited the bond by not appearing. Meanwhile, he, with officers that he had enlisted in his service, were searching for the horse and buggy. He said that he had a package containing $600 in $10 bills in the buggy with him. The horse and buggy was found last evening hitched in front of the California brewery in East Broadway, but the package of bills could not be found. Another search was instituted, while the old man was nearly distracted. The package was at last found, undisturbed, near where he had been thrown from the buggy.

LAST NIGHT'S HAPPENINGS.

A Row at the Olympic—The Boston & Montana's Latest Purchase.

Special to the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—Charles Cunningham was arrested to-night for shooting at a man at the Olympic. A row was started by a man standing in front of the piano player as he watched the girls dancing. The piano player, whose name is William Spence, objected and started to whip the bystander, when a general fight ensued. Cunningham, the bartender, got out his gun, pointed it at Spence and fired. Just as he fired, a bystander threw up Cunningham's arm and the bullet struck the ceiling. Cunningham gave bonds.

Charles Thomas plead not guilty to-night to the charge of raising a row in the Rosebud saloon at 5 o'clock this morning. J. D. Sherran was fined $49 to-night for drawing a gun and threatening to use it. He was locked up until the fine is paid.

An important real estate transaction took place to-night between J. M. Bowes and Leonard Lewisohn, one of the directors of the Boston & Montana company. Mr. Lewisohn purchased for $20,000 the lot at the corner of Granite and Utah streets, where recently stood Bowes' hotel, destroyed by fire six weeks ago. Bowes had intended rebuilding the hotel in the spring, but accepted this advantageous offer. The sale was a cash one. M. Lewisohn will erect a fine four-story brick business block. It is said that part of it will be occupied as offices by the Boston & Montana company. The lot was bought by Bowes five years ago for a small sum.

Kessler Will Fight Coyle.

Special to the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—Articles were signed to-day for a fight to a finish between Geo. Kessler, the Butte heavy-weight fighter, and Jack Coyle, alias the "Glasgow Kid," for a purse of $500. The fight is to come off in the Butte opera house on or about Saturday, December 14, the date not having yet been decisively settled. Billy Mosely is understood to be backing Kessler and Mr. Murphy is behind Coyle. The fight will be a hard one, as Kessler is well known and Coyle is believed to be a good man. It is claimed he knocked out the Marine, and has fought half a score of other good fighters. If the fight is not finished at the end of 50 rounds it is left to the referee to decide it or order the fight continued until finished.

A Peculiar Complaint.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

BUTTE, Nov. 19.—The following peculiar form of complaint was among the police documents to-day:

"Sir William, the Pugilist," alias "Billy, the Boxer," alias "The Boss of the Road," was arranged before Judge Newkirk today, charged as follow:

For being in a state of gross intoxication in a public place upon a public street, in said city of Butte; the said "Sir William, the Pug," etc., being then and there—

Safe.
