SEMI-WEEKLY MINER.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1882.

From the Daily of Tuesday.

Are you going to the Ball to-night?

The Firemen's Ball is the great event of this evening.

The National Institute of Mining Engineers will hold their next session in Denver early in August.

Special freezing of ice cream, and baking of cake of all sorts today for the Fourth at Shodair & Son's.

Cucumbers, fire-works, flags, tomatoes, Stars and Stripes, evergreens greens and cauliflower today.

Sunday at Divide Creek, two men who were experimenting with a can of black powder were severely burned by its premature explosion.

All lovers of good eating will bear in mind that there will be a Grand Chicken Dinner at the Parlor Eating House to-day.

This being the Fourth of July, and a holiday universally observed, there will be no issue of the MINER to-morrow morning.

Cockrell's bridge, spanning the Madison at Dunn's Landing, was destroyed last week by a drove of cattle. A 40-foot section fell out.

Duncan Gillis was appointed Saturday on the Butte police force in place of Charles Thoms, resigned. Gillis will have the upper Main street beat.

Salt Lake Tribune: W. A. Clark, president of the Moulton, is determined that Montana and Butte shall be faithfully represented in the Denver Exposition and has taken hold of the matter vigorously.

For want of a sufficient number of compositors and absence of part of the regular force last night, the amount of matter in the columns of the MINER this morning is much less than usual.

At the sheriff's sale, last week, the Algonquin mine and mill at Philipsburg were bid in at $40,000 for James H. Sherrard, of Philadelphia, one of the trustees under whose mortgage the property was sold.

Madisonian: W. H. Watt, chiropodist, was in the city the fore part of the week, operating upon the corns and bunions of hobbling hombres. We believe he gave general satisfaction to his patients.

Madisonian: Chauncey Barbour, representing our excellent contemporary, the Butte MINER, is interviewing the people of Madison county in behalf of his paper. He is making a very successful canvass.

The Knabe piano is acknowledged to be the leading piano of the world, and Mr. Redcuill, agent for it in Montana, shows the highest testimonials to its excellence, from the New York Herald, and eminent musicians.

The Palace Theatre Company will open Owsley Hall, now the Palace Theatre, this evening with the well known Tudors and Gaylors and other popular professionals. Also fine music, refreshments and handsomely furnished boxes.

Fresh tomatoes, cucumbers, spring chicken and strawberries at the French restaurant for dinner to-day, served by polite waiters and prepared by a genuine French cook. There is no excuse for everybody's not having a good dinner.

Three pianos of Chickering & Sons, arrived at Mrs. Lincoln Talent's music rooms Monday morning. Two were Grand Squares and one a Parlor Grand. Two were immediately sold to parties in the city. The Parlor Grand is for sale at her music rooms; West Broadway.

The Exposition committee met last night, reported seventeen hundred dollars as subscribed and adjourned to meet and make final arrangements to-morrow night. So far the saloon keepers have given nothing and the merchants less than was expected. There will be no difficulty, however, in raising the desired amount.

This is the day of all others when there should be games of base ball, now almost recognized as the American national sport. Although it is a fact, to be regretted, that no regular club has as yet been organized in Butte, there will be a game this afternoon, at the race track, between two nines of this city, at which much amusement and good sport may be expected.

This, my fellow citizens, is the ever glorious day on which the American eagle rises Phœnix-like from his bath with the regularity of a steady boarder, and having once more surveyed oceans with no single stick of familiar timber in sight, and continents given over to monopoly and Republican misrule, goes back with a melodious squawk to sleep another year.

Sunday afternoon a baker's dozen of urchins was congregated around a whisky barrel in front of a Main street saloon. The barrel was not quite as empty as was supposed, and when another little darling, who ought to have gone to Sunday school and didn't, hove in sight and also hove a Chinese bomb into the barrel, the explosion which ensued scattered the boys and what was left of the whisky in the calm stillness of the Sabbath air. Nobody seriously hurt, except the owner of the whiskey.

The Ball To-Night.

The last of the public balls which have made the season so pleasant will take place this evening at Renshaw Hall. The Fire Brigade will be in uniform, excellent music will be provided and a general jollification in order.

A Gigantic Fire

Will blaze in front of the Theâtre Comique this evening. $150 worth of fireworks will be set off for the diletation of our patrons.

From the Daily of Tuesday

Professor Clayton came up Sunday night from Salt Lake City. He will go to Denver about the 20th inst. as commissioner for Utah, and has already concluded most of the arrangements for the Utah exhibit. He will visit Silver Star before returning to Salt Lake City, where he proposes to locate a permanent business office.

Hon. J. J. Boyer, of Pony, accompanied by his sister arrived in Butte last evening. Mr. Boyer, who has not been in Butte since '63, when it was a small placer mining camp, expresses great surprise at the magnificent proportions of the city and the multiplied evidences of its unbounded prosperity. Mr. Boyer meets many warm friends in Butte.

POLICE NEWS.

Yesterday and Saturday the police court was busily occupied. Edwin Edwards, the wrestler, and John Tucker had some difficulty Friday night which resulted in their arrest on the charge of assault. Saturday they appeared before Judge Wilcox, and were each fined five dollars and costs. Edwards said Tucker had been following him around for some time, telling him of some man who could throw him, and that Tucker finally called him, (Edwards) a liar, whereupon Edwards knocked Tucker down.

Lizzie Baldwin pleaded guilty in the police court Saturday to having used bad language to the inmates of Mabel Arnold's house, and was fined therefor.

Lizzie Baker alias Porcupine Joe, who was tried Friday afternoon for using bad language to Big Lil alias Lilly Fitzsimmons, was discharged. This was a woman case, all parties and witnesses being of the feminine persuasion.

Yesterday there were five or six cases before Judge Wilcox, for drunkenness, disorderly conduct and the use of abusive language. The Tivola affair of which mention was made last week, has not yet been settled up, but was further developed yesterday by the arrest of Kid Miller at the instigation of Jenks, on the charge of vagrancy. The case was at first taken to Squire O'Meara, but he being wanted as a witness, it was after much wrangling transferred to the Probate Court where it will be heard before Judge Irvine

Butte Molies.

The Molly Maguires have not yet become extinct in the coal regions of Pennsylvania, and their influence it would seem extends even to the mountains of Montana. A man in this city who has lately been engaged in a controversy with his partner about the possession of a saloon, the difference leading to hard language as well as violence, has received a threatening letter, marked with a coffin and adorned with skull and cross bones, signed "Molly Maguire."

Female Delights.

W. W. Jenkins, of Fairfield, Iowa, and D. R. Beck, of this city, have been challenged by Messrs. Holt and Rollins, of this city, to a champion ship game of croquet to be played to-morrow evening at seven o'clock, on the regular grounds south of the Capitice Building. Stakes not made public. The challenge is accepted, and a large audience of the feminine persuasion is expected to be on hand with "palpitating hearts and fluttering "Oh's" and "Ah's."

Council.

Five members of the Council were present last night with the Marshal and City Attorney at the Police Court room The Mayor was necessarily absent, and the meeting was adjourned sine die. The next regular meeting will be one week from to-night. The sidewalk and awning ordinance are to be considered.

Many country people in for the Fourth.

TO-DAY,

"The Day We Celebrate."

The enterprise and energy of Messrs Fitzhen, Thornton, Shepherd and others on the committees have succeeded in perfecting arrangements for a celebration to-day, which will not be inferior to any west of the Rocky Mountains. The programme and order of march are published in another column.

All the children who intend taking a place in the car of State to-day are requested to be at the school house at half past eight this morning, when they will be shown their positions.

This evening at 9 o'clock, Richards & Griz will send up from the top of their building a meteoric balloon. It will discharge at various elevations a continuous stream of fire works and will afford an imposing spectacle.

The Miners Union and other organizations will take part and are requested to meet at the school house square, not later than 9 o'clock this morning.

AMATEUR SPORT.

The 100 yard dash; entries: Thompson, Renshaw, Saylor and Adams.

The hurdle race, free-for-all, gold medal, 120 yards and ten hurdles 3½ feet high.

Throwing the Hammer and Putting the Shot, silver cup, and purse. The hurdle race for a handsome gold medal will be a spectacle never before seen in Montana. Various athletes of local reputation will throw the shot and put the hammer.

THE RACES.

Six hundred yard race between Terlullia, Little Dick and Degerhart's entry.

Half a mile dash between the same, Gentleman's purse, for all trotters, for $100. For this the entries are Lee Mantle's Dutch Girl, J. P. Herron's Rattler, J. W. Stoner's Irene, William Owsley's Bruiser, Lowry's Colt; all driven by owners.

The pony race will follow, for $100, free for all, for which already have been entered, Niedenhofen's Sabolski Rogan and Kester having named their several ponies.
