Mr. J. Warren Barnett is a candidate for Assessor. Read his announcement

A nice light Buggy to trade for a good Mule or Horse, at J. F. Yager's.

Mr John Bratherton and wife, of Owensboro, arrived in town Sunday evening, and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. S. K. Cox

Dr. W. P. Bennett held regular services at the Methodist church Sunday and Sunday night, with the result of two additions to the church

HYMENIAL.—On to-morrow, Hon. W. R. Haynes, of Litchfield, will lead to the altar, one of Breckenridge county's fair daughters, in the person of Miss Nellie P. Chick.

COUNTRY MERCHANTS.—When you go to Louisville to lay in your stock of spring goods, stop at the Alexander House, as you will find this one of the best hotels in the city.

W. E. Chess, of the oil firm of Chess Carly & Co., Louisville, Ky., paid our town a flying visit last Saturday.

Mr. J. D. Shortell, formerly connected with the Internal Revenue Collectors office here has been in town during the past week.

If you can afford, buy the world renowned Wilson Sewing Machine from John K. Williams; if not, call on him for a second-hand machine of any kind you want, which you can get at your own price.

On the 3rd of April the nuptials of Mr F. L. Alloway, of Union county, to Miss Ellen Taylor, of Hartford, were celebrated in the Methodist Episcopal church, by Rev H. C. Settle, of Owensboro. The attendants were Mr Will J. Hatfield, of Caseyville, and Miss Nollie Taylor, of Hartford; Mr Lycurgus Barrett of Hartford and Miss Mary Rice, of Owensboro. The wedding was witnessed by a large attendance of the beauty and fashion of the town and country, and though the occassion was one of joy at the consummation of hopes for a life of future happiness and usefulness, all were touched by the solemnity of the impressive ceremony and seemed to realize the responsibilities assumed by the young couple both to God and to one another.

To say the bride was beautiful on this, her nuptial day, would be but to pay her a shadowy compliment. The poet has his imaginary conception of an angelic reality, and it is perfection. The bridegroom on such occasions is a poet in every sense of the term, and his dream of beauty is prone to assume the form of exquisite loveliness, and our faith in the real inspiration of the present occassion causes us to share fully his admiration for one so truly lovely, generous and good. Time cannot but bless a union of purity and as they pass together down the corridors of time, may the hand of sorrow rest lightly upon them, and joy, and peace and happiness surround them during a long and useful life, and the beautiful hope of Christian consolation light their path through old age to that celestial paradise where sorrow is unknown and joy and happiness lasts for ever and forever.

Criminal Court Notes.

Same vs C. P. Brown, for carrying concealed weapons, fined $25 and ten days' imprisonment. The fine was paid and on account of sickness in family the imprisonment was postponed for a while

Same vs W. T. Tilford jr., for carrying concealed weapons, fined $35 and ten days' imprisonment. The judgment was superceded by appeal to Court of Appeals

Same vs Wes. Berry, colored, for hog stealing, acquitted

Same vs Geo Smith, for exhibiting show without license, fined $100. Bigot answering judgment was awarded against his bondsman for $100.

Same vs Wm Chapman, col., for striking with intent to kill, confessed judgment for $10.

Several other matters of minor importance were tried out.

WITHDRAWAL.

To the Voters of Ohio County.

Fellow Citizens:—I have, after due deliberation, under all circumstances, concluded to withdraw from the race for the office of Assessor of Ohio county. I return my thanks to those friends and citizens that gave me encouragement and assurance of support and beg to assure them that I duly appreciate their confidence. There are several good men aspiring to this position, from which number the people can, and no doubt will make a good selection

Respectfully, J. P. LAYTON.

Ohio County Fair Company.

This company held its annual meeting last Saturday, and elected the following officers:

President, Z. Wayne Griffin; Vice-President, Capt S. K. Cox; Secretary, Clarence Hardwick; Treasurer, E. T. Williams

Directors—Jas A. Thomas, W. C. Morton, W. H. Moore, J. W. Barnett Wm Foster

Mr. W. T. King having sold his share of stock to Captain S. K. Cox, the members approved the transfer. The report of the Treasurer showed that the purchase of the grounds of the old company and the improvements placed there since, had cost $1,893 81. The assessment on stockholders at $20 per share was $760. The profits of the fair last fall added to this has reduced the company's indebtedness to $650. This is a good showing. The officers elected are determined to have a better fair this fall than ever before.

In the announcement column of today's issue will be found the name of N. B. Hocker as a candidate for Coroner. Mr Hocker is a worthy gentleman, and if elected would make a good officer.

To Whom it May Concern.

A few of the candidates announced in our columns for the different offices sent or handed in their announcement with a promise that they would pay on a certain or fixed time when they came to town. Some paid part and agreed to hand in balance, knowing our terms were cash. Those who have failed to comply with their promises know it and to such we say that if the money is not paid before our next issue, their announcements will be taken out and a list of all such candidates in large letters, under the head of the black list will appear in our next issue, as we feel it a duty to warn the public against such men, for a candidate who will prevaricate to get the benefit of a newspaper to aid him in his election is not worthy of the support of the voters of this county for any office

Rosine Flour Mills.

During the past week we have been masticating biscuit, light rolls, lights bread, cake, &c, &c made of flour manufactured at the Rosine Steam Mill, and have no scruples in saying that the flour is inferior to none ever used by us. It was made from wheat grown in Ohio county too. This mill is a success in every particular, and the company who constructed it, are deserving of a full share of patronage. Try their flour once and you will corroborate our testimony.

Assignee's Sale in Bankruptcy.

M., at the Court House door in Hartford, Ky., sell at Public Auction, a tract of land situated in Ohio county, containing 89½ acres, being same land deeded to Bankrupt by Patte's heirs. Also, a lot of notes and accounts belonging to Bankrupt. Terms of Sale. Mr Curd lived in Hartford many years ago and it is a great source of gratification to him in the decline of life, to visit the town and meet those whom he knew and associated with in former years. Countless sufferers find the balm of relief and the fountain of their health and strength, in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most potent of all the alteratives to purify the system and cleanse the blood. It possesses invigorating qualities so that it stimulates the jaded vitalities and purges out the corruptions which mingle with the blood promoting decangement and decay. We are assured by many intelligent physicians that this medicine cures beyond all others of its kind and we can fortify this statement by our own experience.—Pun-xsatawney (Pa.) Argus.

In our columns will be found the names of all the candidates for the various county offices. There are others spoken of, but of course they do not mean to run, and are merely feeling of their strength. If they were candidates in earnest, they would avail themselves of the cheapest and best means of giving publicity to the matter, by announcing the fact through the columns of the HERALD.

We had the pleasure of examining a plow, the invention of Mr Dan F. Tracy, of this place, which for beauty, adaptability and lightness of draught, seems to be perfection, and justly places Mr Tracy in the front rank as a progressive man. A Pardonable Pride

Prompts most people to delay, by any laudable means that science affords, the evidences of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health would not match the bright eye, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the luxuriance the rich color and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Balsam stands pre-eminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but untiringly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color giving a soft, rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectually removes Dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely curing itching and humors of the scalp, and keeping the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfect harmless, exquisitely perfumed, and nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is not a dye, and is unequaled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle from your druggist. Z. Wayne Griffin, and test its merits.

We confidently recommend Coussens Compound Honey of Tar as a cure for Consumption, and all coughs of long standing. During the seasons of ice and snow it is well to remember that this invaluable preparation will afford speedy relief to all persons suffering with colds. We multiply words in praise of this great remedy, but sufficient to insure it a welcome in every household is the fact that it is a never failing cure for Consumption, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, etc. Use Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar. Price 50 cents a bottle. For sale by J. W. Ford, Hartford, Ky.

We not only recommend Coussens Compound Honey of Tar for Sore Throat, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., but we confidently assert that it can cure Consumption. The increasing demand for it, and the many testimonials of appreciation daily received by the manufacturers, attest that Compound Honey of Tar bears the palm as a cure for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Price 50 cents a bottle. For sale by J. W. Ford Hartford, Ky.
