MUST ADJUST BY APRIL 1

New Rule Effective Jan. 1, But Publishers Given time to Collect and Secure Renewals

The new law was made effective January 1, 1908 but owing to the shortness of notice, the postmaster general instructed postmasters not to question expired subscriptions betore April 1, 1908, unless there was evidence of publishers not proceeding in good faith to carry out the provisions of the law. The Review is making this effort in good faith and it must ask every subscriber whose subscription is or is about to be one year in arrear so attend to the matter of adjustment promptly. The necessity of doing this is shown by perusal of the following instructions to postmasters issued by the third assistant postmaster general in calling their attention to the amendments of the laws and regulations:

"With respect to the rules in amended section 436, governing expired subscriptions, you are informed that notwithstanding January 1, 1908, is the date the same becomes effective, it is the desire and purpose of the department to give to every publisher a reasonable opportunity to adjust his business to the new conditions. Publishers who show good faith and that they are making progress should, in fairness, have such opportunity. The purpose of the new regulations is to correct real abuses and not to put into the hands of postmasters instructions with which to annoy and vex publishers whose practices are normal.

"Therefore, you need not question expired subscriptions as defined by secton 436 prior to April, 1 1908, except in cases which in your opinion based upon evidence in your possession, constitute flagrant abuses in that regard and should, therefore, be speedily eliminated. The facts in such cases will be referred to the third assistant postmaster general for further instructions.

"You are not understand that amended sec. 436 is not to be uniformly applied. Uniformity in the application is the end sought but the department does not wish to be flooded with minor complaints while endeavoring to deal with the greater abuses. Publishers are expected to comply with amended section 436 within a reasonable time."

Defendants.

January Term 1908. ORIGINAL NOTICE

To Geo. Mixter, as executor of the estate of Avery Briggs, deceased; O. Windsor, Mary L. Hooker and Thos. Hooker, her husband; Julia P. Duboc and A. M. Duboc, her husband; Louise Briggs Lyman, Chas. P. Lyman, her husband; Anna M. Briggs Cawkins, I. G. Cawkins, her husband, Martha T. Briggs Brackett, Rhodna B. Knox and C. N. Knox, her husband; American Baptist Missionary Union, a corporation; The American Baptist Home Missionary Society, a corporation; being the sole and only heirs at law and devisees under the last will and testament of Avery Briggs, late of the County of Rock Island, County of Cook, in the State of Illinois, and the unknown claimants of lot forteen (14) in block eighty-six (86) in the City of Denison, Crawford County, Iowa, defendants:

You are hereby notified that there is now on file in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of Iowa, in and for Crawford county, a petition in equity, by the plaintiff F. O. Ivens, claiming that he is the absolute owner in fee simple of the following described real estate, situated in Crawford county, Iowa, to-wit: Lot fourteen (14) in block eighty-six (86), in the city of Denison, Crawford county, Iowa.

That on or about the 10th day of March, 1879, one, (Rev.) Avery Briggs, by mesne conveyances from George Green the original patentee from the United States Government, of the real estate of which said lot fourteen (14) in block eighty-six (83) aforesaid is part and parcel became and was the owner of said lot fourteen (14) in block eighty-six (86) in the city of Denison aforesaid, and that said (Rev.) Avery Briggs departed this life testate, in the city of Chicago, in the county of Cook, in the state of Illinois, on or about the 25th day of October, 1883, siezed of said lot fourteen (14), in block eighty-six (86) in the city of Denison aforesaid.

That afterwards the last will and testament and codicil thereto of the said (Rev.) Avery Brsggs, was admitted to probate in the probate court of Cook county, in the state of Illinois, on the 19th day of November, 1883, and the said George Mixter defendant above named, appointed executor under said will, and to him Letters Testamentary, with copy of the will annexed were issued by said court.

That the said George Mixter as such executor by proper deed of conveyance, sold and conveyed said real estate, to-wit: Lot fourteen (14) in block eighty-six (86) in the city of Denison aforesaid, on or about the 13th day of April, 1884, to Caroline Stoecks, and Fred Stoecks, her husband.

That said deed of conveyance was by the said Caroline Stoecks and Fred Stoecks, her husband, misplaced, lost, and was never filed for record. That they, the said Caroline Stoecks and Fred Stoecks in fact, paid full consideration for said lot fourteen (14) in block eighty-six (86) in the city of Denison aforesaid.

That afterwards the said Caroline Stoecks and Fred Stoecks, her husband, on or about the 25th day of September, 1895, sold and conveyed by warranty deed, said lot fourteen [14] in block eighty-six [86] in the city of Denison aforesaid to the plaintiff herein, and thatthis plaintiff and his grantee have been in public,open, notorious adverse possession, under claim of right of said lot fourteen (14)., in block eighty-six (86), from the 12th day of April, 1884, up to the present time.

That the unknown claimants to said property, and the defendants other than George Mixter, have, or claim to have, some lien upon or interest in said lot fourteen [14[in block eighty-six [86] aforesaid, adverse to the title and estate of this plaintiff.

That the conveyance from George Mixter as executor of the estate of [Rev.] Avery Briggs aforesaid to Caroline and Fred Stoecks, the grantors of the plaintiff herein, conveyed to the grantees therein named the full and absolute title thereto, and that by reason of its being lost or destroyed, the plaintiff is unable to state and show to this court whether or not all technical and legal requirements were complied with in its execution and delivery; that the said Caroline and Fred Stoecks paid to the said George Mixter, as executor, and to the estate of the said Rev. Avery Briggs the full consideration and price therefor, but that by reason of said conveyance having been lost or destroyed before its being of record, and no record thereof appearing in the courts of this county, the unknown claimants thereto, and the defendants above named, other than George Mixter, executor, have, or claim to have some lien upon or interest in lot fourteen [14,] in block eighty-six [86,] in the city of Denison, aforesaid, adverse to the title and estate of the plaintiff, but that said parties, their heirs and assigns all unknown claimants long since have, by virtue of the premises, acquiesced in title of this plaintiff in and to said lot fourteen [14,] in block eighty-six [86,] aforesaid, that all interest, if any, of each and all of the defendants, and of all unknown claimants thereto has long since ceased, lapsed and terminated, and that by reason of the facts recited in said petition, there is now a cloud upon the title of said plaintiff, in and to the said real estate.

That the name or residence of all such unknown claimants are unknown to this plaintiff, and that this plaintiff has sought diligently to learn the same, and that unless you and each of you, all the above and foregoing defendants appear and defend on or before noon of the second day of the next Term of said District Court, to be held at Denison, Iowa, commencing on the 27th day of January, 1908, default will be entered against you, and judgment and decree rendered thereon as prayed in said petition.

CONNER & LALLY,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Upon reading the petition in the above entitled action, and inspecting the foregoing notice, the said notice is hereby approved, and ordered published for six successive weeks in The Denison Review, a newspaper published and circulated in Denison and in Crawford County, Iowa.

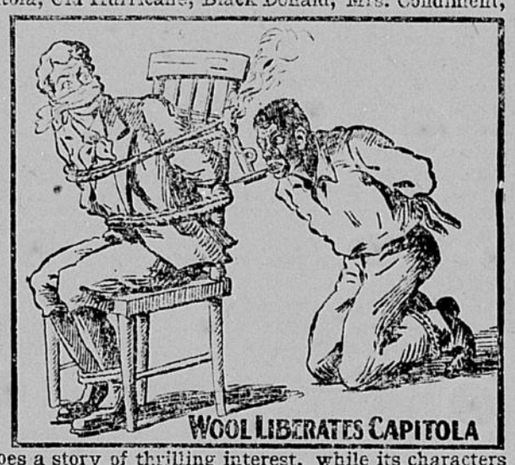
THEATRE TALK NO. 3.

It is doubtful if in all the range and realism of fiction a more popular story was ever written than "The Hidden Hand." MRS. E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH was one of the most popular novelists of her time, and it was this famous story that infused new blood into the New York Ledger, one of a number of family story papers that were in great vogue in the early 70's. It is doubtful if there has ever been a literary heroine, a child of an author's fertile brain, who could vie with the captivating madcap CAPITOLA in exciting the admiration of readers, or winning and keeping their hearts. She is bright, spirited, sagacious, so dauntless and yet so innocent and childlike that she takes all readers captive and holds them by her fascinating way clear to the last page of the narrative.

THE WAY TO GET CHEERFUL

EUGENE MOORE, who has dramatized this wonderful book, has built a comedy drama of sterling worth, retaining the familiar characters of Capitola, Old Hurricane, Black Donald, Mrs. Condiment, and the two excruciatingly funny darkey characters, Wool and Pitapat. The play will be presented here in the near future.



Seldom if ever, has a play of this calibre achieved the remarkable success that has been accorded this play. As a dramatic offering it is said to be a gem of the first water, possessing as it does a story of thrilling interest, while its characters are picturesque and human throughout. It is a play for the healthy minded, intelligently inclined audiences and appeals strongly to lovers of stories with a heart interest.

THE COMPANY PRESENTING THIS SPLENDID PLAY is a carefully selected one, being especially engaged for a sixteen months trans-continental tour, at the termination of which an Australian trip is contemplated, negotiations for which are now in active progress and it is more than likely that this same production and cast will be sent on tour of the principal Antipodean cities, where "THE HIDDEN HAND" HAS NOT YET BEEN PRODUCED.

A STIRRING PLAY

If you care for a good play, so admirably played that it will give you an evening of thorough enjoyment, you'll not be disapointed. "YOUR MONEY'S WORTH OR YOUR MONEY BACK." USUAL PRICES WILL PREVAIL.
