—A baby boy was a welcome arrival last Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Frazar north of town.

—Miss Amy Boggs, principal of the Waterloo west side high school is spending a short vacation at her home in this city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead who reside three miles north of this city are the proud parents of twin boys born last Sunday night.

—Seth Brown and daughter, Mrs. M. K. Brown, went to Grinnell last Monday to attend the funeral of the former's sister-in-law.

—Wm. Dunsmore and son, Miles, of Richland township, were transacting business in the city Friday and were pleasant callers at this office.

—Most of the Cornell students who have been spending their spring vacation here returned to resume their studies at Mt. Vernon yesterday.

—Mrs. J. R. Post and daughter, Bessie, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting friends and relatives in this city, guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Francis Roe.

—Mrs. W. T. Moore and Miss Anna Brookins returned yesterday to their home in Cedar Falls after a visit of several weeks at the home of A. O. Moore of this city.

—Henry Koelker, Richard Just, R. D. Hooker, S. S. Ives, Charles Schaubeck, C. Shumaker, Frank Elkey and A. Domeyer were among the welcome callers at this office the past week.

—One would think from Noble Arnold's announcement that his is purely a confectionary store. While he carries a large stock of candies yet his grocery stock will be found complete.

—John W. Funk, formerly of this place, but now of Manchester, passed through here, Wednesday, on his way to Arlington. He is well pleased with his present situation.—Edgewood Journal.

—Abner Dunham went to Iowa City yesterday morning to be present at the graduation of his daughter, Elva, who has completed the course of study preparatory to the vocation of trained nurse.

—Mrs. Laura Graham expects to leave for Des Moines next Thursday for a visit with her son Allen Graham who is a student at Drake University and who has been somewhat ill for the past week.

—What was Charlie Peterson doing just before he made the flying leap shown in Peterson Bros'. advertisement? The illustration was not made by the Democrat's special artist or it would be more explicit.

—A number of the friends of Rev. A. King perpetrated a surprise on him Wednesday night of last week. A purse of twenty dollars was given him as a token of their esteem. He departed Thursday for Anamosa, where he will reside in the future.

—Rev. N. G. Brown and wife, nee Lucy Cruise, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Cruise jr., were shaking hands with Manchester friends last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will return in a few days to Ottumwa, where Mr. Brown is pastor of a church.

—Marriage lisences were issued during the past week to B. F. Waughop and Maggie L. Thatcher, Avery Cary Noble and Ada Corning Atwater, A. J. Vinton, Coggon and Ellen Richardson, Hopkinton, and Sidney Hunt and Bessie J. Rippon, both of Earlville.

—"The Western Stars," the last number of the Y. M. C. A. lecture course will appear in the City hall Thursday evening of this week. The company is composed of five special artists and is said to be very fine. Secretary Champion makes it as a special request that all holders of dollar tickets will have them reserved for the final entertainment.

—A large barn belonging to August Lense who resides near Greeley was totally destroyed by fire, Friday night of last week. The origin of the fire is unknown and was not discovered in time to save any of the contents of the barn. Thirty-three head of cattle perished together with a large quantity of hay, grain, buggies and farm machinery. The loss is an unfortunate one and much to be deplored. The property was insured for $750.

—A. J. Collinge received a letter, a few days ago from his son Will who has been in the Klondyke the past three seasons. He has now gone to the northern part of Alaska, two hundred miles north of Cape Norme and taken up some mining claims which he thinks are good ones. The letter was written in December and took a one hundred and three days journey to reach Manchester. He says that he is in good health and will be home next fall.

—An aggregation of enthusiastic base ball players organized themselves last Monday evening into the Manchester second nine, the following officers being elected for the coming season: Charles Newcomb, captain; Bert Hockaday, manager, and Allie Thorpe, treasurer. We have enough young fellows in Manchester, who know how to play our national game, to build up a first-class second nine and the boys should be given a chance this summer to show their ability at "killing fouls" and "eating up bee liners."

—Robin Denton has returned from his trip to Arkansas.

Mrs. Hubert Carr visited her parents in Waterloo last week.

—Mrs. I. A. Stringham visited in Dubuque part of last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Legassick were Manchester visitors last Thursday.

—State Secretary Magee, of the Y. M. C. A., was in Manchester last Thursday.

—Miss Sadie Rooney, of Independence, visited in this city part of last week.

—"Kit" Edmunds was the guest of his sisters in Chicago several days of the past week.

—The "Queen of Quality" is the new style of ladies shoes just received by Dove & Chambers.

—Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson, Mrs. J. B. Hoag and Miss Ethel Seeds were Cedar Rapids visitors last Saturday.

—The attention of those contemplating building is called to the Manchester Lumber Co's. new advertisement.

—Brown A. D., the Main street furniture man makes his bow this week to those in need of anything in his line.

—Miss Isabella McIntosh is at home to spend the spring vacation from Des Moines, where she is attending school.

—S. A. Steadman, L. L. Hoyt, Will Hogan, Will Denton, T. W. Robinson and Henry Burns were among those who attended the Holbert horse sale at Greeley last Thursday.

—A series of three club dances have been arranged to be held in the Central Opera House. The first one will be held on Friday evening of this week. The mandolin orchestra will furnish the music.

—We are reminded by Harrison & Smith's new advertisement that now is the time for the farmer to get his implements ready for use when spring opens. Their shop is on the west side of Franklin street near the bridge.

—The Woman's Club of Manchester, has donated two boxes of books to the schools of this county. One will be added to the Coffins Grove school library and the placing of the other is left to the discretion of Superintendent Schwietert.

—The Delaware County Teachers Association will meet at the court house in this city next Saturday. All teachers are urged to attend. A good program has been arranged and it will no doubt be an interesting and profitable meeting.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Eldredge have been the guests of friends here for several days. Mr. Eldredge has disposed of his interest in the mercantile business at Florence, Colorado, and they will hereafter make their home in Crawfordsville, Ind., for which place they departed yesterday morning.

—Clark & Lawrence have secured the services of Joe Gloden, of Dyersville, who will remove to this city and enter their employ about April 1st. Mr. Gloden is an experienced man in the dry goods business, having been employed for several years by Raker & Hoelker, of Dyersville, and previous to that time in Earlville.

—B. F. Waughop and Mrs. Maggie Thatcher were married Wednesday of last week in this city at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Milton Stimpson. Both of the contracting parties are well known here by virtue of long residence and their friends wish them happiness in their union. Rev. H. O. Pratt performed the ceremony.

—Charles A. Roe, for many years a resident of Manchester, died at his home in Salix, Iowa, Thursday of last week. Five children survive him, his wife having died shortly after their removal from this place. He was a brother of Mrs. James Morse and Francis Roe, of this city, and W. A. Roe, of Des Moines, until recently a resident of this city.

—Geo. H. Keyes sold his lot and building just east of the Globe Hotel last week to A. Bruce, the consideration being $700. Mr. Bruce will use his newly acquired property in connection with his carpenter shop which adjoins it on the west. His business has increased so that his present quarters do not afford him ample room. Mr. Keyes will continue his blacksmith business in another location.

—C. A. Pierce, who recently removed to this place from near Delaware, and R. R. Robinson have formed a partnership for the purpose of handling agricultural implements. They have rented the Wolcott building near the bridge and will be ready for business when the spring season opens. Mr. Robinson and Mr. Pierce are too well known here and throughout the county to need introduction and their friends and patrons can be assured fair dealing and honest treatment.

—The Dubuque Globe-Journal pays the following compliment to Frank B. Hoffman, of that city, who has many friends here and whose wife was formerly Miss Gertrude Congar, of this city: "It is doubtful if a more competent man for city auditor than Frank B. Hoffman could be found in this city. He is a young man full of energy and enterprise, and has made an enviable record as an official. All his reports have been models of accuracy and neatness, a fact freely admitted by men of all parties. He has repeatedly been complimented by the mayor and council on the excellence of his reports and on the admirable manner in which he has conducted his office and discharged his duties. He is a thorough gentleman and no more accommodating man has ever held the office."

—Miss Georgia Graham was at Earlville last Saturday.

—Kalamity's is a very brushy advertisement this week.

—N. Relkin of the Fair Store is transacting business in Chicago.

—Fred Durey transacted business in Cedar Rapids last Saturday.

—Mrs. Will Work visited in Independence the first of the week.

—Sheriff Fishel transacted business at Colesburg on Friday of last week.

—John Snyder, of Greeley, was a caller at our office last Monday morning.

—The street sprinkler has started which ought to be a sure indication of spring.

—Dell Skinner is slowly improving from his attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

—Mrs. Florence Barrett and daughter, Miss Dollie, of Chicago, are visiting friends in this city, being guests at the home of Abner Dunham. Miss Barrett intends making a stay of some weeks in Manchester, but Mrs. Barrett will return home this week.

—The rehearsals for the base-ball minstrel are actively in progress and the home talent company will be ready in about two weeks with their entertainment. Special music has been procured and everyone should turn out and see what promises to be the best thing of the season. The entertainment will probably be held in the City Hall and the dates will be announced latter.

—The city elections in the different wards held last Monday passed off quietly, a very light vote being cast. H. C. Smith, A. D. Brown and Will Hogan were elected aldermen for a term of two years each. In the first ward, sixty seven votes were cast, of which Smith received 61, Durey 1 and 2 rejected. In the second ward Brown received 35 and Houser 1. In the third Hogan received 56, Connell 5, Hitchcock two and seven were rejected.

NORTH MANCHESTER NOTES

Last Thursday another little boy came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Webber. Mrs. Webber is improving in health. For a few days she was very low.

Harry Webber had a very serious spell last Wednesday; for a while he was thought to be dying. Dr. Bradley was sent for immediately, so that Mr. Webber is now at work again.

The cold weather retards the work now in progress in this part of the city. The stone masons and carpenters are anxiously waiting for the frost to get out of the ground.

Jay Smith cut Mr. Trowbridge's wood pile last Friday with his circular saw. It is run by his steam engine.

Rev. Wolfe preached at the St Paul's church Sunday. His subject was "Prayer," founded on the language of Paul to Timothy found in his 1st. Epistle to Timothy, 2, 8. His sermon was practical and scriptural. There was a very good attendance at the church in the evening the services being conducted by the Y. M. C. A. members. Secretary Champion opened the exercises and was followed by W. Friend and Ed. Snell. The remarks were very good and left a favorable impression on the audience.

Rev. Pratt will preach next Sunday at the usual hour immediately after Sunday School.

Gus Raymond has cut one hundred and sixteen cords of wood for the Quaker Mill Company during the past winter, besides quite a number of fence posts and wood cut from tree tops not corded. This is a large amount of wood for one man to cut when the distance is taken into consideration, that he had to travel to work.

Mr. Lusk is moving into Miss Kent's house recently vacated by Ernest June.

Mrs. Gus Raymond visited with Mr. John Hillier's family, last Friday, who reside south east of town.

Willing Workers.

The Willing workers of the M. E. church, assisted by others, will present a musical and descriptive program at Dr. H. A. Dittmers home on Friday evening next. Aprons and other articles will be placed on sale. Program will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Atwater-Noble.

A very quiet home wedding was consummated last Friday evening whereby Mr. Avery C. Noble and Mrs. Ada C. Atwater, both of this city, were made husband and wife. The Atwater home was brilliantly lighted and the rooms were decked in a profusion of cut flowers, tulips and carnations being largely used in the decorations Promptly at the stroke of eight, Mrs. Atwater and Mr. Noble took their places in the front parlor and Rev. H. W. Tuttle read the marriage service which made these estimable people man and wife.

The bride was very beautiful in her gown of gray Venetian cloth, embroidered with French gray and white and trimmed in pink panne and exquisite old lace. She carried a large boquet of lilies of the valley and purple violets, a gift from the groom. Mr. Noble was attired in the conventional black. Following the ceremony and congratulations and best wishes, a dainty supper was served, to which all did bountiful justice.

The presents left with Mr. and Mrs. Noble on this occasion were many and unusually handsome, Mr. Noble presenting his bride with a diamond ring of perfect brilliancy.

Only relatives were bidden to witness this charming ceremony and these assembled to the number of thirty. Out of town guests were Mr. and J. F. Jackson, of Dubuque, and Mr. and Mrs F. K. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawrence, of Masonville.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

A difference of opinion occasionally occurs in the best regulated families, and at no season of the year is the malady more apt to make its appearance than during the housecleaning, spring buying period. You know how it is yourself. You may want the best quality; your wife may think it costs too much or vice-versa. Now all the troubles pass away when you find high qualities and low prices combined as you do at the store of

CLARK & LAWRENCE

You will find every department of our store full to overflowing with the finest the market affords for the spring of 1900.

Hosiery

For the past 3 years our sales in hosiery have increased phenomenally. We now buy hundreds of dozens of one kind at a time, the lowest prices and insuring the best for the money. Our for boys is a wonder to wear, and the same mill make other brands equally as good for ladies', children's and and men's wear. They are known the world over as the "BLACK CAT BRAND," the best hose ever produced for wearing qualities.

Lace Curtains

If you buy lace curtains before seeing our stock this spring you will make a mistake. We could never before show such an assortment of exquisite patterns and styles at low prices as this spring. Not a few half dozens or dozen patterns that you are asked to select from in other stocks, but over a hundred new styles and patterns from the cheapest to as good as you want.

CARPETS!

New carpets coming every day or two and that they are right in pattern, colors and price is attested by the number we are cutting of every day. Remember that these carpets which we are now receiving were bought last fall before prices got away up, and hence we can and do sell at less than the present market prices.

Jackets and Suits

Headquarters are we for those articles. Large stock, correct in Style, Fabric and price. See for yourself.
