Off With Your Rags!

Spring time has come—Nature is clothing herself in new and beautiful garments—follow her example!

Kohn & Mandlebaum,

AT THE
NEW YORK CLOTHING EMPORIUM
Next door north of the Post Office in Reddie's Brick Block.

HAVE just received from New York, via New Orleans, the heaviest stock of Ready Made Spring and Summer Clothing, Ever offered at one time, at any store, between St Louis and Chicago. The stock embraces every article of boys' and gentlemen's wear, from a low linen overall to a twenty-five dollar coat, and made in every style now worn in the eastern or southern cities. To particularize would be utterly impracticable. You can have no notion of the extent and variety of their stock until you call and examine for yourselves. But we do not hesitate to aver, that no man in Ottawa or vicinity, is now excusable for wearing mean clothing, when, for a mere trifle, he can gratify himself a complete new rig, from head to foot, and fit to be worn by any body.

Objections have been made to ready made clothing on the grounds that they are badly made. Kohn & Mandlebaum invite their clothes, and are perfectly willing to take back any article bought of them that has proved deficient in this respect, and refund the money paid for it. Then dont be afraid to buy on that account. may30 35-2m

Cholera Medicine,

Approved by the Medical Faculty of New Orleans.

DIRECTIONS for taking the medicine.—One of the pills to be taken every ten or fifteen minutes until diarrhea ceases. Generally, when the patient has taken five doses, which remain on the stomach, he will recover. If any dose is rejected, apply to the stomach a mustard plaster and take weak brandy toddies, and then take another dose.

For the pain and cramps.

Take from one to two teaspoonfulls of the mixture, as the case may require; apply mustard plaster to the stomach and bowels; keep up constant friction, and apply hot bricks to the feet, and all sorts of stimulating applications to keep up heat and circulation; also, weak toddies of brandy. No warm water and but little cold. If the diarrhea ceases the patient may have consumption of the bowels and a fever. For consumption take small doses of castor oil to move the bowels; for fever treat as usual in fevers.

At the first symptom the patient should go to bed.

The object of a Spelling Book is, to teach the proper method of spelling and pronouncing words. That system by which these can be learned most thoroughly and most correctly, is, of course the best. The Eclectic Spelling Book, by its admirable classification, is peculiarly adapted to the accomplishment of this purpose; and it is confidently believed to be impossible for a pupil of ordinary capacity to mistake the spelling and pronunciation of a single word, if he gives but ordinary attention to the lessons as they are classified in this book.

The Eclectic Readers are carefully progressive in their arrangement. Ample exercises in spelling precede the reading lessons, in the first and second of the series. Also, beautifully executed wood cuts embellish the books, calculated to impress on the mind of the youthful learner the subject of the lesson.

The Third, Fourth, and Fifth of the series are devoted to rules and exercises on the principles of reading and spelling which have been adopted by Russell, Kickham, Comstock, Webster, and other authors. They have been prepared with great care, and can be recommended confidently to meet the wants of teachers and the public in the present advanced state of education.

Teachers who introduce these works into their schools will be supplied with a copy of each for their own use, on application to the agents Chicago Book store, 122 Lake st. apr 20

Large Arrival of Spring and Summer Clothing at the Stoe of KOHN & MANDLEBAUM,

Or New York Clothing & Fur ishing Store, next door to the Post Office.

THE subscribers would respectfully inform the citizens of Ottawa, and surrounding country, that they are now receiving and opening a large and splendid assortment of spring and summer Ready Made Clothing which they will guarantee to purchasers to be as well made as can be done at any tailoring establishment in the country. Their present stock is much superior in cut, style, and quality to anything ever opened in the place of the kind. For fits and patterns, they are satisfied that their goods are unsurpassed by any establishment in the west. Besides this great improvement in the quality of their goods, they have reduced the prices of them, and are now selling much lower than clothing has ever been offered in this place either by them or any body else. They respectfully invite all to call and see their stock and examine it for themselves. Don't be afraid of giving too much trouble, for they take pride in showing their goods, and have adopted "No trouble to show goods" as their motto. Then call at the New York Clothing Emporium before purchasing elsewhere; bring with you your friends, and if you think you cannot do as well here as elsewhere, you will not be obliged to purchase. Their prices, and style, quality, and beauty of their goods are the only inducements they offer to purchasers. They cannot be undersold. April 6, 1849.

BRISTOL'S

Nerve and Bone Liniment.

THE unprecedented sale with which this article has met and the universal satisfaction which it has given has induced the present proprietors to extend its manufacture so that it can be within the reach of all who may wish to test its singular efficacy. Its reputation as a remedy for is higher in places where it has been introduced than that of any other remedy ever offered to the public. It is used for both Man and Beast. In order to convince those who may not be acquainted with this extraordinary medicine, the proprietors intend to publish a few of the many certificates which have been received, those who will use it according to directions will not be disappointed with its effects.

HAMILTON WILLIAMS & CO.
sole manufacturers of Bristol's Nerve and Bone Liniment in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa.

Geo. Batchelder, Sugar Creek, Walworth Co., Wis., says "It is some satisfaction to sell Bristol's Nerve and Bone Liniment, because it invariably gives perfect satisfaction."

Caledonia, March 12, 1848.

Mr W Bristol,

Sir: The bottle of Liniment which you sold me a few days ago was even better than you recommend it. I will relate the circumstances so that if you wish to make it public, you can. My horse had a swelling on his leg, just above the gambrel joint, when I first noticed it, it appeared like a small scratch, so that I thought nothing of it, and used him as usual, and I suppose he took cold it, as I drove him several times through the week. I was afraid I should loose him. This is the situation he was in when I called on you, and I you recommended your Liniment. I bought, not however because I thought it would possibly cure him, but as the expense was trifling, I thought at least it could do no harm, and perhaps it might, ease him a little. At the time I began to use it, his leg was swollen from the gambrel joint to the top of his back, so that I could not move him to turn him about, but the first application eased the pain, and by continuing its use it is now perfectly well. FREDERICK WINNER.

Mr. Bristol.—Sir, It is with much satisfaction that I have an opportunity, for the benefit of the afflicted, to make the following statement. In shutting a door with a glass lighted sash in it, I accidentally passed my hand through one of the lights and cut my wrist very badly making two deep cuts among the cords and tendons. It pained me so badly that I did not rest any during the night, in the morning I sent for a bottle of your Nerve and Bone Liniment and in fifteen minutes after the first application I felt no more pain and it healed up in less time than any wound I ever saw. SABRINA PERKINS.

Belvidere Jan. 26, 1849.

Hear what the citizens of the county where the medicine is manufactured say:

We the undersigned citizens of Boone Co., having witnessed the beneficial effects of Bristol's Nerve and Bone Liniment, cheerfully recommend it as the best external remedy we have ever known. We also take the pleasure in saying that any statement made in reference to this medicine by Mr. S. W. B. may be implicitly relied on.
