Order by General Halleck.

HQ'RS. MIL. DIV. OF THE JAMES,
RICHMOND, VA., May 18, 1865.

General Orders No.—

1. The President's proclamation in regard to former officers of the rebel government of Virginia does not apply to clerks of record courts, sheriffs, and local magistrates retained in office or appointed under military order.—Officers so retained or appointed derive their authority from the de facto military government, and not from their election or appointment under any former government. They are therefore directly responsible to the military power for their conduct, and the proper performance of their duties.

2. No civil officer will be appointed or retained in office by military authority who has not voluntarily taken the oath of allegiance, or who does not come within the provisions of the amnesty proclamation. As soon as the proper civil officers in any county, city or town are duly elected or appointed and qualified under the restored civil government, those appointed or retained by military authority will cease to exercise the functions of their office. By order of Maj. Gen. Halleck:

J. C. KELTON, A. A. G.

A Staunton Deputation.

The Richmond Republic of Saturday, has the following:

"At a public meeting of the citizens of Augusta, held at Staunton on the 7th instant, Messrs. A. H. H. Stuart, John B. Baldwin, Wm. Tate, M. G. Harman and Hugh W. Sheffey were appointed a deputation to come to Richmond and learn from the United States authorities whether they would permit a convention of the State of Virginia to be called. Since they were appointed on this mission, important changes have taken place in the situation. Gov. Peirpoint has been recognized as the Governor of Virginia, and a convention for the purposes then contemplated is no longer necessary. In the altered aspect of public affairs their business is now with Gov. Peirpoint himself, and they will await his arrival."

VALUABLE LAND NEAR ALEXANDRIA FOR SALE.

I have for sale, low and on convenient terms, a TRACT of about 320 ACRES of LAND in Fairfax county, about six miles from Alexandria, lying between the Little River Turnpike and the Orange Railroad, and bounded by the Manassas Railroad extension, and the lands of Edsall, Cowling, and others. There is a considerable quantity of wood on the land. This is believed to be the cheapest land in this vicinity, considering the advantages.
