LOCAL NEWS.

NEW RIVER LINE.—It was our pleasure a few days since to notice this new and long looked for enterprise, which promises to be of such benefit to Alexandria, and the farmers along the river. We mention the matter again to-day, to say that we have assurance from the General Superintendent of the Potomac Ferry Company, that this line will be a permanent one, upon condition that the people owning wharfs along the river will use their endeavors to secure a fair patronage from the farmers in their respective neighborhoods. And it is hoped that our merchants will give "aid and comfort" to the new line which, in case the trade will justify it, will be made a Daily Line and run REGULARLY. To-morrow morning, at half-past six the "Wawaset," commanded by Capt. Samuel Godfrey, so well and favorably known, will leave Messrs. Hooe & Wedderburn's wharf, foot of Prince street. The steamer is a most excellent one and cannot fail to give satisfaction.

RECOVERY OF A HORSE.—Sometime since, Mr. Samuel Pullman lost a horse, which he yesterday found in the possession of Mr. R. L. Davis, of Prince William county, and which he at once claimed. The matter was taken before Justice Moore this morning, when upon investigation the identity and ownership of the horse were established beyond peradventure, and its delivery to Mr. Pullman ordered by the Justice. Mr. Davis acknowledged that he had purchased the horse recently, at a very low figure.

THE FOLLOWING, which we find in the Charlottesville Chronicle, is applicable here:—"As a citizen was passing by the wooden building below the Railroad Depot, some nights since, where the freedmen constantly assemble for religious exercises, one of their orators was praying at the top of his voice in the most demonstrative manner—when a colored brother called out to him suddenly from a corner of the room, "Brother Jackson, the Lord ain't dif!"

FITTED UP.—We notice that the room being temporarily occupied by the W. A. & G. R. R., on King street, near Henry, has been very nearly fitted up by J. H. Bryant, their agent, for the comfort and accommodation of the travelling public. The cars on this road will arrive and depart from the corner of King and Henry streets, at the usual hour, for the present.

ROBBERY.—The residence of Rev. J. T. Leftwich, on Washington street, was entered on Monday night last and robbed of several articles. It is said that a fire was kindled in one of the upper rooms, with a design of burning the house. A servant girl, suspected of the robbery, was arrested, but discharged for want of evidence.

RAN OFF.—Last night the horses attached to the Marshall House Omnibus, standing on the King street wharf, became frightened and ran off, but were stopped after running a short distance. Some of the rafters of the shed, on the wharf, were broken, but the coach was uninjured.

THE LOCATION of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad has been commenced by a party of engineers. General Trimble is assisting the engineers, who have commenced operations on the line of the Annapolis railroad, and are working on towards the Patuxent river.

TERRIBLE.—There were confined in jail at Fairfax C. H., last week, a man charged with the murder of his father, and a mother charged with the murder of her child. Truly a "man's foes are those of his own household," at least in Fairfax.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—Some negro men attempted to rob the premises of Mrs. Palmer, residing across the river, in Maryland, on last Saturday night, but the occupants of the house hearing the noise, detected the robbers and fired at them.

THE SPECIAL TERM of the Circuit Court of Prince George's county, Md., Judge Berry, presiding, commenced on Monday last. The trial of the four negroes, charged with the murder of Mr. Lyles, was to have commenced yesterday.

OVERBOARD.—Last night, a man named Schuger, driver of the Mansion House Omnibus, while on the wharf, at the time of the arrival of the steamer Express, walked overboard by mistake, but was rescued.

THE CYNTHIA, from Piscataway, brought up this morning a heavy freight of Grain and Tobacco. We are pleased to learn that this trade is rapidly increasing.

POLICE REPORT.—Catherine Martin, for selling liquor contrary to law, was arraigned before Justice Moore, this morning, and fined $5 and costs.

THE CANAL.—The rains have produced a beneficial effect upon the canal, increasing the water to fully six feet on the Georgetown level

THE MEETING TO-NIGHT.—The Citizen's meeting takes place to night at 7½ o'clock.

TO THE MERCHANTS OF ALEXANDRIA.

Merchants of Alexandria, who wish to secure the custom of the business men of this portion of Virginia, would do well to advertise in the CULPEPER OBSERVER, one of the handsomest papers in the State. It has a large and increasing circulation in the counties of Culpeper, Orange, Madison, Rappahannock, Fauquier, Spottsylvania, Louisa, Greene and Albemarle.

It is believed to be as good an advertising medium as any other paper in Virginia.

TO BASIL BRAWNER AND MALINDA, his wife, Redman F. Brawner, Stephen E. Meade, John H. Sullivan, and the heirs of William Brawner, deceased, whose names are unknown, take notice, that on FRIDAY, the 5th day of October, 1866, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, of that day, at the Law Office of A. & C. E. Stuart, in the town of Alexandria, Va., I shall proceed to take the depositions of Albert Stuart, Charles E. Stuart, and others, to be read as evidence in my behalf, in a certain suit in chancery, now pending in the County Court of Prince William county, Va., in which I am plaintiff and you are defendants; and if from any cause the taking of the said depositions be not commenced on that day, or if commenced be not concluded on that day, the taking of the same will be adjourned and continued from day to day, or from time to time, at the same place, and between the same hours, until the same shall be completed. BELLE HAVEN INSTITUTE.

The next session of this institution commences on Monday, September 17th. The new term will begin with increased advantages.

The Principal pledges herself to the patrons and friends of the school, to use every effort to maintain its former reputation and select character.

The Institute is located in a retired and healthy part of the city, central and easy of access. The building is spacious and commodious, and the study hall is furnished with new and improved furniture. The city is remarkably healthy. During the past year there has been entire exemption from sickness among the pupils.

There is a complete organization of Teachers and Professors, and improved text books are used. For circulars, containing terms and other particulars, address MISS E. B. GARBER,
