LOCAL NEWS.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.—In consequence of the inclement weather of yesterday the attendance at the several churches was generally small. Being the first Sunday in the month it was Communion Sunday in most of the churches. Rev. Mr. Hubbard preached in St. Paul's Church, the other pulpits being occupied by the pastors in charge. The following is a report of the work done during the year by the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Alms House services were conducted by a committee, who report an excellent time of prayer and praise.

The Jail Mission had a full corps at work, and held their usual services.

The 11 o'clock meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church was largely attended. The services were of an unusual solemn, impressive and tender character, and the usual warm interest for the salvation of the youth of the city was very manifested during the exercises. The meeting will be held in the Union Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

GEN. RIOTS. On Saturday last a negro man went into the store of one of the trustees of the poor, during the absence of the proprietor, and left word for the trustee, on civil rights bill passed, and that he wanted a cord of wood sent to his house right away; that it must be sent to the Corporation, and that he would pay the Corporation when he got the money.

Several notes were grossly insulted by negroes in different parts of the city in broad daylight, last week. In one case the insult was repeated three times, and in another it was repeated twice. The offenders have escaped with impunity. The officers have not yet been discovered, or when they should be thanks for and they too, and it would certainly be a wholesome experience in this immediate vicinity.

PETTY THEFTS.—Farmers from the country immediately surrounding the city are loud in their complaints of the petty thefts, committed by colored people, of which they are the victims. They have long since ceased attempting to keep anything to eat outside of the houses in which they live, for since the cold weather set in, nearly all their fowls have disappeared.

A well known colored man, while walking by Mr. George Washington's house, on Fairfax street, yesterday afternoon, stepped in the hallway and carried off an overcoat belonging to Mr. Schutz, Mr Washington's landlord.

Two hen nests were carried off from houses in Hallow's row on Saturday night.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since Saturday afternoon.

Nine colored loafers arrested for obstructing the side walks, at the St. Asaph street depot, were fined and discharged.

Alfred Carroll, hailing from New York, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

Annie Bell, for assaulting Kate Davis, both colored, was fined and discharged.

Dan Washington, for cutting Philip Roman, both colored, was held for his appearance at court to answer the charge.

Nine lodgers Saturday night, and two last night, were accommodated at the station house.

CAUGHT BY THE FREEZE.—Among those who availed themselves of the opportunity afforded by the late thaw to visit this city were some gentlemen from the lower portion of King George county, who came here on a vessel, expecting to return the same way, but the existing freeze ran being it uncertain when navigation will be open again, they left on the Richmond train this morning for Brooke's station, intending to walk from that point to their homes—a distance of seventy miles.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Upon the arrival of the nine o'clock local train from Washington here yesterday morning the locomotive which smashed off upon the siding near the intersection of King and St. Asaph streets, ran into a number from standing on the siding with such force as to break the platform and sheet of the tender and to drive a portion of the train over the barriers and across the footway into King street.

ACCIDENTS.—The Manassas Gazette has heard of several accidents to persons from the icy roads, among the number Dr. Powell, of Occoquan, and a member of the Board of Supervisors, whose horse fell with him some days since injuring his left leg very severely. Mr. Arthur Sinclair fell on the ice a few days ago bruising his face very severely and breaking the small bone near his left eye.

A. & W. R. R.—The cases of the District of Columbia against the Alexandria and Washington Railroad Company, which were brought to enforce a lien on the railroad acquired by the old corporation of Washington for stock advanced to aid in the construction of the original road, came up in Special Term Saturday on demurrer. The demurrer was sustained and the bill dismissed.

SHROVE TUESDAY.—To-morrow, the day before Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, is called Shrove Tuesday. It was formerly customary in England on that day for the people to confess their sins, one by one, to their parish priests, after which they dined on pancakes or fritters, and the occasion became one of merriment. The day is sometimes called pancake day.

COMMENDABLE LIBERALITY.—Mr. George Round, of Prince William, having failed to bring about a reduction in the pay of members of the General Assembly, of which he is one, proposes to devote the excess of his pay over and above $4 per day to some object of general interest to his constituents, at least one-half towards fostering and developing public schools.

THE NAVY YARD.—The Lexington Gazette says: "Alexandria hopes to get the Navy Yard now about to be removed from Washington. We know of no better location and feel that Gen. Hunter—indeed, the whole delegation from Virginia—will use all honorable means to secure to Alexandria a matter so much to her interest."

SLEIGHING.—A few persons tempted by the white appearance of the ground this morning, came out with their sleighs, but the cobble stones were not covered sufficiently to make the jolting endurable, and so after a short and sickly tintinnabulation, nought but the usual sounds were heard on the streets.

SHOT DEAD.—The St. Mary's Beacon learns that in an altercation between a colored man name unknown, and a white man named Thos. Milburn, at the Pine Store, in St. Inigoes district, St. Mary's county, on Saturday last, the colored man was instantly killed by a pistol fired by Milburn.

TAXES.—At a meeting of the council of Warrenton, held January 22d, it was ordered that the collector add five per cent to all tax bills remaining in his hands unpaid, February first.

SHEEP KILLED.—The Manassas Gazette says:—"Thirteen sheep of the flock of Mr. William H. Campbell were killed by dogs on Saturday night last, and several badly crippled."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The masque and fancy dress ball of the Harmonie Association will be given at their hall to-night. All sorts of characters will be represented and all kinds of costumes worn. The masked balls previously given by the Harmonie Association have invariably been successes.

William Lewis, convicted at the last term of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, of an attempt to commit a murder, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, passed through here this morning, for Richmond, in charge of Sheriff Broadwater.

The Potomac is again frozen over from shore to shore, and the ice being covered with snow the river presents a more arctic appearance than it has heretofore done this winter. The ice blockade is also said to be more rigid than it has yet been.

A colored woman named Rose Hurley, who has been insane for sometime past, was taken sick suddenly this morning and died in a few minutes at the house of her husband on Vinegar Hill.

Some excitement was created and a crowd attracted near the Bridge Pump last Saturday night, by a difficulty between two colored men, in which one of them pulled out a knife and slashed the other several times.

The chain gang, after a long rest, were out to-day empowered in cleaning the snow from the market square.

During the month of January twenty-eight marriage licenses were issued from the clerk's office of Loudoun county.

Messrs. Brooke & Scott, of Warrenton, Va., will in future practice in the court of Loudoun county.

THE WEATHER.—A snow storm commenced Saturday night and continued until last night, but as the flakes were small the ground was but thinly coated. A cold wind from the northwest prevailed during the whole time. The sun came out this morning and shone warmly and brightly, and under its influence the snow for a time melted rapidly. In the shade, however, the temperature has been cold all day.
