LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., June 5, 1876—10:30 a. m.—In the Middle States, northeast to northwest winds, cooler, partly cloudy, followed by clear weather, rising barometer, and possibly light rain on the coast, attending the development of a low barometer to the eastward.

A YOUNG RUNAWAY.—The Washington Republican gives the following account of a little girl who formerly lived in this city, and is well known here:

"Ida Henderson, a pretty and interesting girl, twelve years of age, has been living for some time at Mrs. Moore's, 422 M street northwest, where she was placed by her adopted father. On account of bad treatment or for some other cause she became dissatisfied with her home, and left it Thursday last with the determination not to return. That night she slept in Georgetown. As she was wandering about the streets next day she was picked up by officers in South Washington. A kind lady became interested in her and took the young runaway to her home. Mrs. Moore began to hunt for Ida Saturday, and her whereabouts was ascertained by Chief Clarvoe and Detective McElfresh Saturday. The girl was very reluctant to leave her new home, but she was finally made to go. The girl had no bad motive in leaving her house, as was evident from the gratitude she expressed to her benefactor who gave her a new home. It was fortunate for her that she found, before it was too late, some one who took a motherly interest in her."

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.—Fair congregations attended all of the Churches yesterday, in the morning, but the congregations at night were considerably reduced by the rain. Services were held in all of the Churches. The statement in Saturday's Gazette that there would be no service in the Baptist Church, and the M. E. Church, South, was founded on information furnished by prominent officials of these Churches, who regularly furnish the corrections for the Church directory, but Rev. Mr. Penick, of the Baptist Church having returned to the city, and the rubbish having been cleared away from the entrance to the basement of the M. E. Church, South, services were held in these Churches as usual.

THE WEATHER.—The hot weather of Saturday was relieved at night by a copious shower, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The rain continued for sometime, and fell in such a steady way that all of it was absorbed by the ground. Yesterday evening there were, again, heavy showers, which continued until a late hour. The rains have been of great benefit to the growing crops, coming just in the time when they were most needed. The farmers who came into town this morning all report the growing grains and vegetables as very much refreshed and improved by the rain. The temperature to-day has been much cooler and more pleasant than for several days past.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been tried since Saturday afternoon:

Basil Warring, for abusing the officers in the discharge of their duty, was fined, and in default of payment sent to jail, but was afterwards released.

J. E. Lawson, white, and Isaac Odell, colored, for disorderly conduct and fighting on the street, were fined and discharged.

Daniel Lee, colored, for disorderly conduct towards his father, Anthony Lee, was discharged with a reprimand.

Three lodgers were at the station house Saturday night and two last night.

BATTERY AT FISHTOWN.—The fish business at Fishtown being entirely over, except the reception of a few sturgeon, those whose business still keeps them there are now amusing themselves by playing pranks on each other. This morning some one erected a battery on top of the compost heap and mounted thereon a small brass cannon, three muskets and several stove pipes arranged like those on Munson's Hill during the war, to represent cannon. A standard was also raised bearing a skull and cross bones; and another pole near by was surmounted by a sturgeon's head. The fort was the subject of much amusement to all the passers by.

NEW SCHEDULE.—The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company have put on an additional train, to leave Richmond at 8 o'clock in the morning, connecting with the steamer Keyport at Quantico, and with the B. & O. R. R. at Shepherds, opposite this city at 2:55 p. m. and making close connections for the North. The boat will not stop, however, here or at Washington, but will return immediately to Quantico to make her regular evening trip, as heretofore, in connection with the train which leaves Richmond at 3:30 p. m.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—During the storm last Saturday evening, about three o'clock, M. L. Hunter, who resided near Morrisonville, in Loudoun county, and who was on his way home from Hamilton, where he had been with a load of grain, was struck by lightning and killed, and team of five horses all instantly killed. Mr. Hunter was an industrious, worthy man, and leaves a wife and a large family of children. At the time that he was struck Mr. Hunter had just reached his barn yard gate.

HARD TIME.—Two Alexandria officers accompanied a Fairfax Constable to Fairfax C. H. with a prisoner, on Saturday, and are represented to have had a rough time. They had the prisoner, who was a negro, handcuffed between them all night, and were guarded by the Fairfax man, who is said to have been in a rather mixed condition. In addition to their other troubles they had to walk home yesterday.

THE ST. ASAPH STREET RAILROAD.—The work of tearing up rails on the siding of the A. & W. R. R., on St. Asaph street, continued slowly to-day, about one half of the siding having been removed so far. The committee appointed by the City Council received a telegram this morning from the authorities of the road, saying that they were unable to meet the committee to-day, but would certainly do so tomorrow.

SWINDLER.—A man who registered as H. C. Colton, of Baltimore, put up at the Mansion House, in this city, on Thursday evening last and got his supper, lodging and breakfast. He had with him when he came a large package, securely tied up, which he left in his room. Failing to return on Friday or Saturday, the hotel proprietors examined the package, which proved to be a paper box filled with sawdust. Colton has not yet been heard from and his board bill remains unpaid.

SENT ON.—The colored man, Lewis Majors, a notice of whose arrest for an attempted outrage on a child of J. T. Burnett was made in Saturday's Gazette, was examined before Justice Brown, on Saturday evening, and sent to jail at Fairfax C. H., to await the action of the grand jury. The alleged attempt occurred in the Penny Hill grave yard several days since.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5, 1876.—In the Senate, to day, a bill releasing to Sarah Woodson the title of some 100 acres of land in Braxton county, West Va., was passed.

The second conference committee on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on the diplomatic bill reported that they had been unable to agree. The committee was discharged, and a new committee appointed.

At the close of the morning hour the Civil and Legislative Appropriation bill was taken up. It was asserted in relation to the use of the Seaton House for the Pension Office that it was ill-suited and not fire proof, and that the Commissioner of Pensions recommended the renting of the new Shepherd Building, at the corner of 12th street, (except the street floor), which it was said could be gotten for $30,000 per year.

Mr. Hamilton was surprised that no one ever knew that the Seaton House was unsafe until Mr. Shepherd began his new building.

The discussion was continued at length.

The House of Representatives was engaged during the morning hour in the call of States for bills and resolutions, but nothing was introduced from Virginia.

Under the call the resolution offered on Saturday, but objected to, that it is inexpedient to legislate upon the tariff, was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means by a vote of 114 to 99.

During the call Mr. Blaine rose to a personal explanation, in which he sought to explain all the circumstances recently testified to by various witnesses. He spoke in plaintive terms of the manner in which he had been treated.

Mr. Knott, of Kentucky, did not think that the gentleman could elevate himself into a martyr.

Mr. Blaine attempted a coup de'etat by reading the fifteen letters spoken by him from Mulligan, and making a statement to secure the nomination at Cincinnati. He was answered successfully by Messrs. Hunton and Knott and was worsted. During the debate there was great applause and hisses, and so much confusion that the police had to be called to clear the floor.

THE KERR CHARGES.

The committee on the Kerr case, this morning, heard Green, the Lieutenant appointed on Kerr's recommendation. He said he paid $600 to Harney, but did not believe that Mr. Kerr received any portion of it. He denied the interview between Kerr and himself, of which Harney had testified.

Mr. Kerr, whose physical system showed signs of exhaustion, appeared before the committee. He declared in the most positive terms that he had received any money in the case, and declared that he had recommended Green, because he had become acquainted with him and thought he would make a good officer.

Mr. Moore, of the New York custom house, also testified as to a conversation between himself and Harney, in which Harney acknowledged that the object of the charge against Mr. Kerr was for political effect. His testimony was very precise and strong and clearly proved Mr. Kerr's entire innocence.

A. M. & R. R. R.

RICHMOND, VA., June 5.—After argument in the U. S. Circuit Court to-day in the A. M. & O. R. R. case for the appointment of a receiver, the court decided that it would appoint a receiver and take a recess until six o'clock, at which time candidates will be named. The chances are that Gen. Mahone, president of the road, and a party to be named by the bondholders will be appointed joint receivers.

Wreck.

BOSTON, June 5.—The steamer Oriental, Capt. Doane, of the Savannah and Boston Line, was wrecked in the harbor last evening. The vessel left Savannah on Tuesday last, and experienced heavy winds as far as Cape Hatteras. On Saturday night last when off Gayhead off the Vineyard, a thick fog bore down and the steamer remained at anchor there over night. Yesterday morning the fog lifted and the steamer started for Boston, having clear weather. On passing Cape Cod towards evening the fog again settled over them and subsequently became so dense that navigation was almost impossible. The steamer had its pilot, and he decided to run up to the city, although it was impossible to see anything ahead. About 7½ p. m. the steamer struck on Harding's ledge, about three miles out from Boston, light, and immediately filled. A fishing schooner rescued the passengers, twenty in number, who with their baggage reached Boston about one o'clock this morning. Towing boats were dispatched to the wreck to save as much as possible of the cargo, and bring off the crew who had been left behind. The Oriental was a large vessel and had a full cargo of general merchandise. Whether the vessel and cargo will be a total loss could not be ascertained before daylight.

Centennial.

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.—There is very little change in the attendance at the Exposition this morning, the number of visitors being about 30,000. Owing to the cool, pleasant weather more people are seen out of doors, rambling from one building to another, and along the promenades. The celebrated Castellani collection was opened to the public this morning in the Italian department of the art gallery. It embraces statuary bronzes, gold and silver filigree work, and all kinds of valuable articles of jewelry. The Gilmore concert, this morning, in Lansdowne pavilion, was unusually well attended, and was in every respect the most successful of the series.

Foreign News.

LONDON, June 5.—A special dispatch from Calcutta to the Times says Mr. Grosevener's Mission arrived at Rangoon on Friday last. Messrs. Grosvenor and Baber remained at Mandalay. The evidence shows clearly that Mr. Margary was murdered by Chinese Imperial troops. It is expected that Lisseetanee, the Chinese General, will be exonerated from complicity in the affair. The Chinese authorities await Mr. Grosevener's report before carrying out the executions of those implicated in the murder.
