LOCAL NEWS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, July 14, 1879.—For the Middle Atlantic States south and west winds, slightly cooler, clear or partly cloudy weather, stationary, followed by rising barometer.

PERSONAL.—Richard L. Carne, esq., Superintendent of Public Schools of this city, is making a summer trip to Long Branch and other points of interest on the Atlantic coast.

Mr. John Lunt, of this city, was among the honorary pallbearers at the funeral of Mr. Cary McClelland, in Baltimore, yesterday.

Charles S. Prince, esq., of Memphis, is in this city, on a visit to his relatives and friends. He reports that large numbers of persons are leaving Memphis, but that still the physicians think there will not be an epidemic.

Dr. E. L. Morgan, of this city, has received an appointment as acting assistant surgeon in the army, and will be stationed in Washington Territory.

CORPORATION COURT—Judge Charles E. Stuart presiding.—Priscilla Richards having renounced the duty of executrix of the will of Wm. B. Richards, dec'd.; John R. Zimmerman was appointed administrator with the will thereof.

Bank of Old Dominion vs. McVeigh; bill of exceptions filed and signed.

Hodgkin et als. vs. Hodgkin et als.; in chancery; decree of reference to a commission.

Sundry allowances were made to Court officers, jurors &c.

The Court adjourned until to morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.—A very exciting runaway occurred on the wharf this morning. A horse attached to a cart belonging to Mr. John Thompson, ran away from the corner of Prince and Union streets, turned the corner of the Strand, and, barely escaping a collision with Mr. G. H. Hinkens' wagon, attempted to jump over a horse and ice wagon belonging to Mr. F. A. Reed, which was standing in front of his ice house. The runaway fell on top of Mr. Reed's horse and bore him to the ground, inflicting a few cuts on him and breaking the shafts and axle of the wagon. The runaway was then secured by Mr. James Brannon.

YESTERDAY—The weather yesterday being warm and many people being out of town, the attendance at the churches was small. Rev. J. H. Waugh preached in the M. E. Church South, both morning and night. With this exception, and at Christ Church, where there was no service, the regular pastors officiated. In the evening numbers of persons took advantage of the ferry boats and down river steamers to go where the heat was not so intense and drinkables more plentiful. The Sunday law was strictly enforced, there being no complaints whatever this morning.

POLICE ITEMS.—The following cases have been reported since Saturday:

John Burke, colored, for stealing $22 in money, from an old colored woman, was sentenced to receive twenty five lashes, which were laid on at once.

John Macruder, colored, for disorderly conduct and a violation of the law in regard to porters, &c., was fined five dollars. For assault and battery on Charles Chapman, also colored, he was fined twenty dollars, and both fines being paid, he was discharged.

EXCURSIONISTS.—Mr. Loudoun Campbell, engineer, and a number of the members of the Columbia Fire Company, left here on the yacht Ocean Belle to day for a cruise down the river. They took supplies for several days.

A letter from the party on the Edmund Lee reports them at Colton's wharf, all well and enjoying themselves. They played a game of base ball, at Leonardtown on Friday, the score resulting: Lee Socials 7, Leonardtown 4. They will probably be home about the end of the week.

REGATTA.—A delegation of the Potomac Boat Club, of Washington, left yesterday evening for Fredericksburg, to take part in the regatta there to morrow evening. The affair will, it is expected, prove a great success. The A. & F. Railway Company will sell round trip tickets, to morrow, good for the day, at $2 each. The train leaves here at 7½ a. m., and Fredericksburg about the same hour in the evening.

THE SCHOOL FUNDS.—The teachers and janitors of the public schools, who have not received their salaries for the month of June, will be gratified to learn that the Auditor of Public Accounts expects to turn over $125,000 to the school fund in a few days. This will allow of an apportionment of twenty five cents per capita of school population, or $1,111.75 to this city.

PARALYZED.—Captain H. Dwight Smith, of Arlington, for many years chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the county, and clerk in the U. S. Treasurer's office, in Washington, had a slight attack of paralysis, at his home, yesterday, effecting his entire right side, from the effects of which he has, however, somewhat recovered to-day.

BAPTISING.—Rev. G. T. Pinkney, pastor of Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church, colored, assisted by a minister from Woodlawn, baptized eight converts, in the river, at Battery Rodgers, yesterday evening. This is the first baptism by immersion of Methodists, in this city, for several years; but the converts expressed their preference for that mode and it was accorded them.

INFORMATION FOR BREWERS AND OTHERS. Mr. Robert Portner the popular and enterprising brewer of Alexandria, Virginia, is in ecstacies since the morning of the tenth of July—a young miss, the first of her series, having happily made her appearance on that morning. We congratulate!—Wash. Sen.

MAD DOG.—A dog belonging on board a schooner, and which had gone mad, ran into the counting room of Mr. F. A. Reed, on Saturday, passing between Mr. Reed, and Mr. El. Eldridge, in making his entry. The door was closed and Mr. Reed despatched the animal, with a rifle, after firing five shots into him.

COMMITTEES.—The City Council Committee on General Laws organized on Saturday night and elected Councilman John W. Peake as chairman.

The Committee on Public Property will meet to night.

NEW BONDS.—There were, on Saturday, at the Citizens' National Bank a number of the new Virginia funded bonds. They are very handsomely gotten up.

[COMMUNICATED.

I am not "an old superannuated creature," but a man in the prime and vigor of life, and a "native and to the manner born," and deeply regret to see such unnecessary criticisms as the Gazette of last Saturday contained from "an old superannuated creature." Perhaps he is, on account of age, in his dotage. Such things happen, you know. But "old superannuated is good;" it is fully as good as "back arrearages!" Now, I say "to the two respectable young gentlemen," do not gather up the reins at all, but do your whole duty, and all good citizens will applaud you. "Let the galled jade wince, my withers are unwrung." Sir Hugh de Bras, I think it is, tells us that—

With good opinion of the law."

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Correspondence of the Alexa. Gazette.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14, 1879.

A gentleman well acquainted with the affairs of the Virginia Midland Railroad informs me that in 1853 the Corporation of Alexandria took $50,000 of the preferred 6 per ct. stock of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, which it now holds. The whole amount of the stock was $350,000, of which the State took $210,000, since bought from the State by the B. & O. R. R., and individuals took $90,000 of it, part of which is now held in Alexandria in addition to that held by the Corporation. This stock is not secured by any mortgages, and it is understood that it is now proposed to issue one share of common stock for every five shares of preferred. Of course the value of the common stock is now nothing, but the Corporation should endeavor to do the best it can with the amount it holds.

The report in one of the morning papers to the effect that Lieut. Evelen had been appointed to an important position in the engineer department of the army is incorrect. The gentleman referred to is Col. Boyd Edelen, of Prince George's county, Maryland, who was one of the graduating class at West Point who resigned in 1861, and took positions in the Confederate army. The Colonel is an applicant for a clerkship in the war department, but the chief clerk of that department informed me this morning that his application, though strongly endorsed by republicans, among them Gen. Burnside, had not yet been acted upon, and that if he had received an appointment it was more than the records of the department would show.

Mr. John Hunter, nephew of the late Col. W. H. Dulany, of Alexandria, and lately connected with the Star office, is one of the experts employed in investigating the affairs of the Freedman's Bank.

There are numerous applicants for the vacancy on the bench of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia occasioned by the death of the late Judge Humphreys, the most prominent of whom is J. W. Thompson, an ex member of Congress from Pennsylvania. As the court has adjourned until next December, it is probable that no appointment will be made yet awhile at least.

It is understood here that the reasons which induced Judge Hughes to postpone the session of the U. S. District Court that was to have been held in Alexandria last week until next September, were that the jurors summoned to set at that term were summoned under the old law; that owing to the delay in printing the new law and the consequent uncertainty regarding the form of the requisition for the expenses of the term no such requisition had been made, that none of the cases set for the term were pressing; that the parties to many of these cases wanted the delay, and that no one interested in any of them was anxious for a trial. The expenses incident upon the meeting of the court were paid by the marshal, who borrowed the money for the purpose.

Mr. Murtaugh, the former proprietor of the Washington Republican, intends starting a new evening paper here at an early day.

An Alexandria gentleman, who has been on a visit to the Northwest, passed through here to day on his way home. He says two of the handsomest and most intelligent young men he saw while absent were Messrs Geo Fowle and Chas Johnston, of Alexandria, whom he met last night at the depot at Altoona, where they are employed in the works of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Col. Robert Ingersoll's late sermon upon the death of his brother met with such success that he has temporarily, at least, quit discoursing upon anti Plutonian doctrines and gone into the funeral oration business. The death of another one of his friends has given him occasion for again making pillows of burdens and for putting people on the qui vive for the rustling of angel's wings. It is a wonder he has not started some of his departed friends across the dark flood in one of Boyton's suits.

The new Sunday regulations in Alexandria are the subject of much comment in Washington. The fame of the various summer drinks served and compounded in the ancient city is almost universal, and many persons from this city who have been in the habit of crossing the river on Sunday to testify to the legitimacy of this fame will now remain at home and obtain their drinks via the back doors of the restaurants here. One of the Alexandria restaurant keepers, Mr. John Hosth, has, in consequence of the regulations, already closed his place and moved to this city. Whether his removal and the cessation in the visits of the Washingtonians alluded to will redound to Alexandria's gain it is for time to determine. All the sober sided people, at least, say they will.

Senatorial Convention.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the State Conservative Committee, we do hereby designate Wednesday, the 4th day of September, 1879, as the time and the city of Alexandria as the place for holding a convention to nominate the conservative candidate to represent this, the 14th senatorial district, in the Senate of Virginia.

The representation in the convention will be one delegate for each one hundred conservative voters and each fraction over fifty, cast in the several counties at the last presidential election. The district is composed of Alexandria city and county, Fairfax and Prince William.

HUGH LATHAM,
Ch. Alex. City and County Con. Com.
THOMAS MOORE,
Ch. Fairfax Conservative Committee.
W. W. THORNTON,
Ch. Prince Wm. Con. Committee.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

The London Standard is confident that Germany will ultimately remonetize silver.

Prince Alexander I., of Bulgaria, arrived at Sophia to day and was received with great enthusiasm.

War against the Achenese has been resumed by the Dutch, who have captured four of the savages' strongholds.

The Servian government has advanced a claim for 3,000 francs against the Porte on account of raids of Albanians into Servian territory.

The contemplated increase of the Prussian army is in consequence of the increased military strength of France and Russia.

Cardinal Manning preached the funeral sermon of the late Prince Imperial at Chislehurst yesterday (Sunday) in the presence of the Imperial family and a numerous congregation.

The London correspondent of the Liverpool Courier mentions a rumor that M. de Lesseps intends asking Gen. Grant to accept the presidency of the Panama Canal Company.

The annual grand review of the army was held at Paris yesterday by President Grevy. All of the notabilities were present. There was an immense crowd of spectators and the review was a great success.

The political complexion of the Austrian Parliament is so confused by the elections that its character cannot be at once determined, but it is not thought necessary for the ministry to immediately resign.

The Orange celebration in Ireland on the 12th inst. passed off without disturbances except a few isolated cases of shooting and stoning. One death is reported. The authorities had taken extra precautions because of the excitement in consequence of the debate in parliament on the Government's Irish University bill.

The remains of Napolean IV. were buried at Chiselhurst on Saturday with extraordinary honors. The Prince of Wales, the Dukes of Connaught and Edinburgh, and the Crown Prince of Sweden acted as pall bearers. The attention which Englishmen have paid to the Empress and the great feeling shown at the funeral are said to have created uneasiness in certain French circles.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The steamer Mystic has discontinued her trips down the river, and will go to Baltimore to run peaches from the Eastern Shore.

Judge Sangster, of the County Court, has ordered the summoning of a special grand jury for the July term of his court, which meets on the 28th inst.

The fifteen cent excursions will land at Glymont hereafter and remain for two hours, thus giving a great deal of pleasure for a very small cost.

The Committee on Streets made an inspection of the streets to-day, being carried around in the wagon of the Hydraulion Fire Company.

The "Northern Neck" of Virginia.

To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

That long, narrow finger of land which extends from Fredericksburg southeasterly to the Chesapeake, separating the waters of the Rappahonnock and Potomac rivers, and which is generally known as the "Northern Neck of Virginia," is undoubtedly the most forsaken country on the Atlantic border.

Lying as it does, within eighty miles of the nation's capitol, one would suppose it would be among the most highly cultivated and improved sections of the Union, but this is not the case. Its cultivation is not only very poor, but comparatively limited, there being large tracts of wood land and old impoverished fields, which have been abandoned by the rich agriculturists of ante bellum" days, and over which "Dame Nature" is fast assuming the dominion. It offers but few accommodations for the traveling public, and during three months of the year were it not for the tri weekly mails would be as devoid of communication with the world at large, as the ice-bound fields of the North. There are no telegraph lines connecting it with the great centres of commerce, and whereby we might gain intelligence from all quarters of the globe. No railroads traverse this barren waste. The farmer has no facilities for getting his produce to market, and therefore raises but enough for home consumption. Improved agricultural implements and labor saving machinery are things unknown, many of the farmers trampling their wheat out as in "olden times."

In short, the inhabitants of the "Northern Neck" are a band of aliens, having little or no intercourse with their fellow men. Congress would do well to turn its attention hither and see what improvements could be made in a land lying directly under their noses. They might establish a daily mail if nothing more.

F. A. AUGUSTINE, JR.

☞ ONE WORD COVERS THE ADVICE which should be given to nervous, slender, and debilitated persons—Invigorate! Sedatives, opiates, appetizers, are comparatively useless. The system must be built up with a genuine tonic in order to the recovery of vigor and tranquility by the nerves. A course, systematically pursued, of the leading invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be resorted to by those who suffer from weak nerves and general debility. The stomach, always more or less dyspeptic in cases of nervousness and loss of vitality, is toned and regulated by this medicine until the organ acts with a precision akin to that of a steady-going piece of mechanism. Complete digestion and assimilation are, through the influence of the Bitters, followed by a gain of vigor and flesh, and the disappearance of biliousness and irregularity of the bowels, where such exist, as they usually do. Appetite and sleep are then regained.

A CARD.

The Collectors of Taxes having paid into the city treasury the amount due for unpaid tax bills for the year 1878, it is hoped that persons who have not paid their tax bills for that year will come forward and settle. All have been called upon more than once; no further notice can be given, and a failure to pay will make it necessary for the collectors to make the bills by distraint. In consideration of the fact that the bills for 1878 have been paid by the collectors, persons owing should settle between this date and July 19th, after which time no further indulgence can be granted.
