The Association adjourned after singing the Doxology.

Mr. S. had been suffering with consumption for a long time, but his death was very unexpected. The flags of the steamers on the river have been flying at half mast to day in respect to his memory.

CUTTING AFFAIR.—Two colored boys had a quarrel in the Market House this morning over the possession of a piece of liver. After some words, one of them named Washington Simms seized a knife from a neighboring butcher's stall and cut the other boy, W. H. Matthews, on the right arm, near the elbow, inflicting a severe but not serious wound. The injured boy's arm was dressed by Dr. Entwistle and his assailant was arrested and locked up in the Station House.

The finest peaches we have seen so far this year are grown on the land of Mr. Hungerford, in Maryland, just opposite this city, and he has them for sale in the market nearly every day.

Hezekiah Dyer, who was found in the road near Leonardtown last week with his head badly cut, and was supposed to be in a dying condition, has recovered. It is now reported that his injuries were received in a fight with some unknown person.

A large party of gentlemen went down the river last night on the tug boat Belle Haven and a small sloop. They will spend several days on salt water in the lower river and bay. Among the party were Messrs. Park Agnew, M. Sinclair, W. F. Creighton, and others.

In yesterday's Gazette it was stated that the lottery office of Mr. John Donnelly, on Prince street, had been raided by the police. The Mayor states that such was not the fact, but that Mr. Donnelly and several witnesses were summoned before him. The case will be tried to morrow.

Mystery Solved.

BOSTON, July 16.—The mytery that has long shrouded the death of Jennie P. Clarke whose body was found in a truck at Lynn is now said to be solved. Late last night and early this morning those implicated were arrested and lodged at the lock up in the City Hall and in the tombs. The parties arrested were Mme. Goodrich, a female physician at 21 Lagrange street, who is the alleged abortionist in the case of Dr. Kimball, who lived in the same house with the woman and who is charged with being one of the principal accessories, Mr. Allen M. Adams who resides at the Highlands, at whose house Jennie last worked, and two women, mother and daughter, living in Somerville, at at whose house, in the southern part of that town, Jennie Clarke is said to have died.

The two ladies however whose names are just now suppressed for obvious reasons, but who in this narrative will be referred to as Smith, are held principally as witnesses in the case. They have always borne good reputations in Somerville, and are supposed to have been guiltless of any criminal intent. They, it appears, were the nurses of Jennie at the house in Somerville. The facts of the case as they are related by them and corroborated by other testimony are that on the 12th of February last when the Clarke girl left her house in the Highlands, having been seen a short time latter at the corner of Kneeland and Washington sts, she went direct to the house of Mme. Goodrich on Lagrange street and that there the abortion was performed.

She remained for a few days, and on the 15th of February left Boston for Somerville, going to the house of the "Smiths." Shortly after her arrival she was delivered of a foetus, and, for awhile, exhibited symptoms of getting better. Soon, however, her illness took an unfavorable turn, and on 25th inst. she died. Dr. Kimball and the "Madame" had previously been notified of the turn matters were taking, and the Doctor went to Somerville, arriving there shortly after Jennie's death, and assisted in packing up the body, first with a pair of dentist's forceps, cutting off the nose of the dead girl.

The Trial of Cox.

NEW YORK, July 16.—The Court of General Sessions was crowded to excess to day, notwithstanding the intense heat, with people anxious to hear the trial of Chastine Cox, for the murder of Mrs. Jane L. Deforest Hull. Mr. Rollins opened the case for the prosecution, reciting the particulars of the crime and describing the effect upon the community and his appearance in court. Mr. Rollins said it was the prisoner's vanity that led him into the house, led him to steal jewelry and commit murder, and to keep some of the jewelry in his possession. His vanity led him to make confession, and it must also be his vanity that makes him perfectly contented with his present position. The prisoner occasionally smiled as the District Attorney narrated the story of murder, and sometimes he shook his head as if disagreeing with what was said. The final question to be decided was, did Chastine Cox contribute to the death of Mrs. Hull?

Shooting Match.

TORONTO, July 16.—A special cable dispatch from London, July 15th, to the Globe says: "There was better weather to day at Wimbledon. There was no rain and excellent scores were made. The shooting for the Queen's prize began to day, and several of the Canadians are well up in the first range. The competition will be continued to morrow. The Duke of Cambridge is expected to pay a private visit to the camp next Saturday, and it is expected that the Prince of Wales will be present sometime during the meeting."

Pennsylvania Democrats.

HARRISBURG, PA, July 16.—The democratic convention met here at noon to day, in the Opera house, which was about two thirds full. The convention was called to order by chairman Speer. He announced that notices of contest in all the Senatorial and Representative districts of Philadelphia had been presented to him and one from Lackawana. Mr. Speer then named a number of secretaries, and one of them called over the roll.

Dead.

PRINCETON, N. J., July 16.—Col. A. M. Cummings, a prominent and influential citizen, died this morning at the age of 77. He was a son-in-law of the late Chief Justice Hornblower, and was ex Mayor of Princeton; a member of the Cincinnati society, and in the late war served with the First New Jersey Cavalry.

Coal Mine on Fire.

CENTRALIA, PA, July 16.—The vein of coal at Prevost's colliery is still burning fiercely, together with the dirt and rock bank. The mine is being flooded now, but with poor prospects of overcoming the flames, which gained considerable headway during the night.

Yellow Fever.

MEMPHIS, July 16.—No new cases of yellow fever are reported to day, and no deaths have occurred since last report.

The possibility of a second canal across the Panama and Nicaragua isthmus suggests lively competition for M. De Lesseps.

☞ A PARTIAL BLOCKADE OF THE MAIN avenue for escape of refuse from the human system is utterly subversive of regularity among the other organs. Let constipation become chronic, and, leaving out the imminent danger of inflammation of the bowels and their total obstruction occurring, jaundice is almost certain to ensue, the liver is liable to become engorged, the blood and urine are poisoned by the bile, which also vitiates the juices of the stomach, and other unhappy consequences follow. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a prime tonic alterative, prevents or remedies these results and their cause, as the case may require and is also signally efficacious in overcoming flatulence, heartburn, and variable as well as constipated action of the bowels. It renews nerve power, improves the appetite, stays the progress of early decay, relieves the infirmities of age, and is a pleasant appetizer.

AN AGITATOR AMONG THE NEGROES.—A dispatch from Washington to the Louisville Courier Journal says: Senator Lamar has returned from Mississippi, and reports that he was surprised at the extent of the exodus fever and at the prospects for the future. In this regard he says the colored people are being excited to the highest pitch by the stories of the land of milk and honey they will find in Kansas. Recently a white man, carrying a red flag, marched through one section of the State, spreading the report that the government had taken up the exodus question, and would from this time on furnish all who would go to Kansas with free transportation and a supplied farm on their arrival in that promised land. The day and hour when the free train would pass were announced, and at the time hundreds of colored people swarmed along the line of the road for miles, only to be informed by the railroad officials that there was no free train.

GOLD MINING.—Buckingham county is about to turn out the California of the Atlantic slope. Mr. Greely lent a Dr. Baird $10,000 to invest in Buckingham gold land. His debtor complained, and Mr. Greely took the mines and released his debt, and it was thought that the old philosopher had sunk his one. Now it turns out that these mines are exceedingly rich and productive. New machinery is being introduced into several of these mines, and money is being made. Improvements in the way of buildings, stores, etc., are springing up at these mines, and soon we shall see old Buckingham a new mining country, with its gold stock on the market, and its ingots in the mint. Speculation in these mines and lands is starting, and this county, which by war and reconstruction has been carried to the bottom—reducing many of the most refined and cultivated people of the State to abject poverty—will soon, we hope, in virtue of its rich, valuable and abundant minerals, slate, iron and gold, be the Eldorado of Virginia. We most sincerely trust that this good providence awaits our Buckingham friends.—Lynch. News.
