CITY COUNCIL.

There was a called meeting of the City Council last night.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

This Board met at 7:30 o'clock with seven members present.

A communication was received from the Mayor stating that he had called Council to consider the question of a re-lease of the American coal wharf.

The Mayor also called attention to the condition of Cameron street, between Royal and Fairfax streets.

Mr. John B. Smoot offered a resolution directing the Mayor to renew the lease.

Mr. Strauss moved to associate the Committee on Public Property with the Mayor in making the lease, but it being explained that the resolution required the same covenants and agreements in the new lease that were in the old one, and was merely a matter of form, he withdrew the amendment.

Col. Reid inquired if no larger sum than $2,100 per annum could be obtained for the property.

Mr. C. C. Smoot had understood that the proposition of Captain Boothe was his ultimatum.

The resolution of Mr. John B. Smoot was then adopted.

An act in relation to contracting for or letting out the removal of night soil was received from the Common Council, by a member, who said that the paper had been in the Board of Aldermen several times and no action had been taken. It appeared from the endorsements, that the act had been passed by the lower Board and laid over by the Aldermen.

Mr. J. B. Smoot did not see how the Common Council came in possession of the paper, it seemed to be the property of the Board.

The act was again laid over.

A resolution to repair Pitt street between Cameron and Queen streets and appropriating $200 from the street fund, therefore, was received from the Common Council.

Several members thought the street good enough to remain as it was, in the present financial condition of the city.

Mr. Rushell said that while the city was certainly cramped for money, there parties who lived on Pitt street were tax payers and entitled to the same privileges and accommodation as others who had their streets repaired. He had been told, however, by the Auditor, that after the payment of bills due this week, there would be only about $200 to the credit of the street fund.

Mr. Strauss favored the resolution and thought that the work should be done.

Col. Reid was of the opinion that some money ought to be left for the necessary cleaning of the streets, for sanitary purposes next summer, and if the committee only had $200 the repairs on Pitt street had better be left alone for the present.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Streets, but was subsequently returned by the Common Council non concurred in, and a committee of conference, consisting of Messrs. Strauss and Reid, was appointed.

The committee, after a short absence, reported in favor of doing the work, but limiting the cost to $100. The report was agreed to.

The Board, after waiting some time for the action of the Common Council, on the lease of the American coal wharf, adjourned at 9:30 o'clock.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The called meeting of the Common Council for the purpose of making arrangements for a new lease to the American Coal Company, was occupied with other business while the Board of Aldermen were considering the lease.

Mr. Eichberg hoped that the bill creating the new sinking fund would be taken up.

The chair said the subject had been postponed until the next regular meeting, but it could be taken up now if there was no objection.

Mr. Evans was not satisfied with the bill as it stood.

Mr. Eichberg urged that it was necessary to secure the insurance. If the market house building should burn down and the insurance was in the name of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, it might be hard to get it. "If you have business with any insurance company," he said, "you know what difficulties are placed in the way of the payment of losses."

Mr. Evans thought that if the building was insured the insurance was good in any event.

Mr. Eichberg said that all chance of difficulty had better be avoided.

Mr. Evans objected to the continuance of the sinking fund for so long a time as thirty years. If the Commissioners redeemed the whole debt they would have over a million of dollars in their possession. It looks like too much power to place in the hands of any five men.

Mr. Eichberg and the Chair explained that the bonds as redeemed would be cancelled and certificates furnished in their stead.

Mr. Evans—Why don't you put that in this law.

Mr. Eichberg explained that this was an amendment of the old law which provided for the destruction of the bonds, &c. The bill passed.

The bill for removing the nuisance of unsafe buildings, &c., was taken up, and on the suggestion of Mr. Smith, who said that there was an old wall belonging to R. Hetrillen's estate, adjoining his (Mr. Smith's) property that ought to be removed, was referred to a special committee.

The Aldermen afterwards disagreed and referred the bill to the Committee on Streets.

When this action was sent back to Council there was a proposal to adhere.

Mr. Latham—Oh no! "Let's satisfy the children at least for once." And Council concurred.

When the lease to the American Coal Co. at $2,100 per annum came from the Board of Aldermen there was some debate.

Mr. Keck urged that if Council had the backbone to stand up and demand $2,800 this company would give it.

Mr. Latham said this was no time for strikes. He was in favor of adopting the lease.

Mr. Eichberg and Mr. Broders urged that the sum offered was very liberal under the circumstances.

Mr. Broders said the company had very liberal offers elsewhere, and only the influence of Capt. Boothe kept them here.

The lease was agreed to.

A resolution appropriating $200 to repair Pitt street, between Cameron and Queen, was taken up on motion of Mr. Ficklin, who said that the need for this work was of the most urgent character. The drainage of the city, which, in falling weather, rose up to a stream which had been called "Chatham's Creek," passed down there and filled the hollows with pestilent stuff that infected the air.

Mr. Javins opposed giving the Committee on Streets power over the work. It was not legal to do so.

The resolution was agreed to, but the Aldermen non concurred, and after a committee of conference, $100 was substituted for $200 in the resolution.

Mr. Evans would be willing to adopt the resolution if the Aldermen would do the work for $100. It would cost $3,000.

Mr. Latham agreed with Mr. Evans, but said he presumed there was one member of the Board of Aldermen who had just about sense enough to offer to pave that street for one hundred dollars. He would concur in the one hundred dollars to please the children.

Very soon intelligence came in that the Board of Aldermen had adjourned, and Mr. Latham said that it was no use to send the bill back as "the children had gone to bed."

Council concurred, and in a short time adjourned.

POLITICAL.—This morning it was announced on the streets that Geo. Mahone and Mr. H. H. Riddleberger, canvassers for the re-adjusters, were to speak at Sarepta Hall this evening, under the auspices of the workingmen's association. The Secretary of the Conservative Committee immediately upon receiving the information, sent a communication to the workingmen's association, desiring to know if they were willing to divide the time of their speakers with speakers in favor of the McCulloch bill, which proposition was declined.

Travers B. Pinn, who was nominated by the republicans for the House of Delegates, was in the city today, and indignantly denies the report mentioned yesterday, that he was about to withdraw from the canvass. He says that he intends to remain a candidate at all hazards, and will withdraw for no one. The gentleman alluded to yesterday's Gazette, as a possible candidate, has positively declined.

As announced in yesterday's Gazette Geo. Mahone, Mr. H. H. Riddleberger and W. W. Henry, esq., of Richmond, had a joint discussion at Leesburg, yesterday evening. Last night Mr. Henry addressed another large meeting and, it is represented, completely demolished the re adjusters.

There was a meeting at Annandale Church, yesterday. Speeches were made by Edmund Burke, esq., Mr. Geo. C. Round, Capt. F. L. Smith and Judge J. H. Gray. All of the speakers except Mr. Round favored the McCulloch bill. An appointment was made for a joint discussion at West End, last night, but although Capt. Smith and Mr. Burke and a goodly number of citizens were present, Mr. Round failed to put in an appearance.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.—Judge Keith yesterday granted a writ of supersedeas to the judgment of the County Court of Fairfax county in the contested election for the office of Commissioner of Revenue for the Northern District, and will hear and decide the case at the November term. The appeal was from the decision of Special Judge C. W. Watts, who was selected to try the cause, who decided that the petition against Richard F. Broadwater on the part of the people was not signed by a sufficient number of qualified voters. The question as to what constitutes a qualified voter will be decided in this case, and whether the Legislature exemption from payment of the capitation tax enables a person exempted to vote. This decision will be interesting to voters of that class.

The contestants, who claim that Mr. Amos Fox was duly elected to the office, are represented by Edmund Burke, esq., of this city, and the contestee, Mr. Broadwater, by Gen. Wm. H. Payne, of Warrenton.

DR. BAGBY'S lecture, last night, at Sarepta Hall, on the "Old Virginia Gentleman," was listened to with delight by an appreciative audience, composed in great part of the beauty and fashion of the city. The delineation of the character of the Virginia gentleman of the olden time, was true, and but a just tribute to a race the like of which, we fear, will not be looked upon again. To the matrons of the good old days, "now gone forever," he paid the highest compliment, and touched a pathetic chord in the breast of all his hearers by his apostrophe to the mother whose life was devoted to the well being of all save herself, but whose cares and troubles were never known outside her chamber. The lecturer concluded with the recitation of a beautiful and touching poetic tribute to the race of Virginians that have passed from off the stage, and very appropriately introduced the great Lee as the last of the old regime.

RELIGIOUS.—To morrow will be observed in the Catholic Church as the Feast of All Saints. It is a holiday of obligation and services are held as on Sunday. The occasion will have more than usual interest this year to the Catholics of this city on account of the visitation of Rt. Rev. J. J. Keane, Bishop of this diocese, who will officiate and administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at 6:30 a. m. High Mass will be sung at 10 a. m. by Rev. J. A. McHugh, of Washington, at which time the Bishop will preach. Bishop Keane is distinguished as one of the most eloquent of American prelates and always attracts large congregations.

AMERICAN COAL WHARF.—As will be seen by the proceedings of the City Council the city has renewed the lease of the American coal wharf property to that company for ten years. It is understood that there was a proposition before the directors of the coal company to remove their business to Georgetown, but that owing to the strenuous objections and efforts of Capt. Wm. J. Boothe, the efficient General Superintendent, the project was defeated. The company, during the season, puts several thousand dollars in circulation in this city.

THE REASON.—The Richmond Whig says: "The funders have had two appointments for speaking at Alexandria, and both have fallen through for some reason. Funderism doesn't seem to flourish at Alexandria." Yes, but it does, and that is the very reason no meetings were held. Like the jug handle it is all on one side here—that of the funders—and speaking is a waste of breath.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The Henry street sewer has been completed by the contractor, Mr. Jas. Mills.

The German Lutheran church will be finished and ready for use on Saturday evening.

Mr. John Powell has taken the contract for rebuilding the partially burned house, at the corner of King and Columbus streets.

FUNERAL.—The remains of the late Mrs. Mary Havenner, the esteemed wife of R. H. Havenner, esq., whose death was mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, were taken on a special train this morning to Facemwell Station, on the W. & O. R. R., near which place she formerly resided, and interred.

HALLOW'EEN.—To-night is All Hallow's E'en, or as it is more familiarly known, "Hallow'een." It is regarded as a night on which the youthful elves are at liberty, not to shoot, but to engage in all sorts of pranks aimed at the peace and comfort of their more aged neighbors.

CITY TAXES.—To morrow will be the last day on which the city tax payers can save the five per cent discount by paying their tax bills. On December 21 a penalty of five per cent will be added. Tax payers would do well to attend to the matter to morrow.

STILL OUT.—The Cumberland News says that at last accounts the miners of the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, who stopped work Tuesday because "blacklegs" were employed, had not yet returned to work.

MARRIAGE LICENSES have been granted in Washington to J. R. Burns and Ella J. Downey, both of this city, and W. H. Jackson, of Gordonsville, and Amelia Wilson, of Washington.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—A three story brick dwelling, on I street N. W., in Washington, was sold at auction on Wednesday to Messrs. Burke & Herbert, of this city, for $2,150.

REVIVAL.—The revival of religion at the Baptist Church, on Washington street, still continues. Last night Rev. Mr. Beale preached to a large congregation.

PROPERTY SALE.—A valuable lot and house on King street, near Alfred, will be sold to-morrow by Green & Wise, auctioneers.

[COMMUNICATED.

Fairfax County Candidate for the House of Delegates.

At the recent primary election held in Fairfax county it is well known that old party lines were in many instances entirely ignored or lost sight of, and that the question of the settlement of the State debt was the main subject at issue. This being so, would it not be the part of wisdom and good judgment to set still further upon that plan, and all those who are opposed to having the McCulloch bill repealed and the whole subject of the settlement of the State debt made the bone of contention and strife at the coming session of our Legislature, thereby necessitating perhaps an extra session, entailing additional needless—worse than needless—expense upon the already heavy burdened State, combine together and unite upon some one that will redeem the county of Fairfax from the stigma now placed upon it by having for its representative one who is the accredited champion of readjusters. Some of the followers of this readjuster are honestly open in their declarations of their desire to see the entire debt of the State wiped out, and to that end will vote for George C. Round for State Senator and R. B. Farr for the House of Delegates, as the candidates who will take the nearest steps toward accomplishing that object.

It is sincerely hoped that all those who have the honor and pride, in wishing to see the county of Fairfax fairly and justly represented by one who can be depended upon to do all in his power to oppose the repealing or alteration of the agreement made last winter in relation to the State debt, will unite upon some one who will carry out their views and put an end to the agitation of this vexing question that is retarding the prosperity of the State and acting as an effectual suppression of all immigration.

FAIRFAX.

Snow in Pennsylvania.

SCRANTON, PA., Oct. 31.—A snow storm commenced here at ten o'clock this morning.

THE NORTH POLE AND EQUATOR ARE not more widely distinct than the standard tonic, stimulant and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the cheap and fiery local bitters which unscrupulous vendors foist upon the unwary as medicated preparations with remedial properties. The latter are usually composed in the main of half rectified alcoholic excitants, with some wretched drug combined to disguise their real flavor and are perfectly ruinous to the coats of the stomach. Hostetter's Bitters, on the contrary, has for its basis choice spirits of absolute purity, and this is medified and combined with medicinal extracts of rare excellence and botanical origin, which both invigorate and regulate the bowels, stomach and liver. They effect a radical change in the disordered physical economy, which is manifested by a speedy improvement in the general health.

In the absence of the Clerk, H. J. Nevett was elected Clerk pro tem.

A communication was received from the Mayor, enclosing a proposition from Captain Wm. J. Boothe, General Superintendent of the American Coal Company, offering to renew the lease of the wharf, belonging to the corporation, now occupied by that company.

On motion of Mr. John B. Smoot the offer was accepted, and the Mayor directed to execute a lease of said property at a rent of $2,100 per annum.

The Common Council refused to concur and asked for a committee of conference. The request was granted and Messrs. Strauss and Reid appointed on the part of this Board. The committee reported in favor of making the repairs, the expense not to exceed $100, and the amount to be taken from the appropriation for streets. The report was received and the resolution adopted.

The Board then adjourned.
