CITY SCHOOL BOARD.—At 7:15 o'clock last evening the board was called to order. Present, S. Ferguson Beach, esq., chairman; Messrs. Gregory, Herbert, Kemper, Marbury, Snowden, and Whittlesey, trustees, and H. L. Orme, superintendent of schools.

The minutes of the last meeting having been read and approved, on motion of the superintendent the clerk was directed to issue permits to David Downey, William Sims, and Joseph Johnson, pupils under suspension from Westgreen and Snowden schools, on condition that they submit to the punishment for refusing which they were suspended.

On motion of Mr. Kemper the committee on schoolhouses and furniture was directed to have a gutter placed upon the Washington building.

The Superintendent stated to the board that he had been informed by Judge Stuart of a change of residence, by which his office as a trustee was vacated, and on his motion the board expressed its regret at losing the very valuable services of Judge Stuart, and the clerk was directed to notify the City Council of the vacancy, and request that it be filled.

Maj. Herbert stated that Maj. R. H. Henderson had accepted his position under a misunderstanding as to to the salary due him, and requested of the superintendent information on the subject.

Superintendent Carter read the 15th by-law, and explained that under it Maj. Henderson's salary was only $250 a year.

Mr. Herbert thought that sum far too little for a man to live upon. He asked if his predecessor had not $700 a year.

The superintendent said Mr. Harper had that salary, but that was not under this by-law. Mr. Montjoy had received only $250.

Mr. Snowden said some arrangement should be made by which a more adequate salary could be given to Mr. Henderson, who was a gentleman of superior qualifications. The superintendent replied that all the salaries were inadequate and that he would willingly advocate a general advance if the money could be found to pay more; but he insisted that the advance ought to be made on some regular plan; the reference of the 15th by-law to a committee for revision was, he thought, the proper course in the matter.

On motion of Mr. Herbert, such a committee was ordered, and Messrs. Hebert, Kemper and the superintendent were appointed to compose it. The Board then adjourned.

POLITICAL.—The following is the declination of the offer to divide time, at last night's meeting, which was alluded to in yesterday's Gazette:

Alexandria, October 31st, 1879.

James R. Caton, esq., Secretary of Conservative Committee:

Dear Sir: Our invited guests, Gen. Mahone and Harry Riddleberger, already understand that they are not to be limited as to time, but may occupy the whole evening, and we must peremptorily decline any such arrangement as you propose. The Readjusters, at their former engagement of the hall, invited only Mr. Smith to speak, but found the arrangement departed from, and Mr. Mushbach thrust upon us, contrary to the agreement. If, however, at your meeting on Monday night next you are willing to reciprocate the courtesy of our first meeting, and will divide the time with us, we will find speakers to dispense with your speakers.

Respectfully yours,

JACOB M. HEISLEY,

Chairman of Workingmen's Exec. Com.

BRAVEN.—The Washington Republican of this morning says: "Special officer Ben Klopfer found a white man lying at the corner of Thirteenth and C streets northwest last night, who bore evidence of having received a terrible beating. His nose was cut and broken, a piece of the bone projecting, and there was a cut about three inches in length behind the right ear. Klopfer had him conveyed to the fifth precinct station, where he was attended by Dr. Walter. The man was unable to give his name or any account of the affair, being muddled with liquor, but later in the night three countrymen called at the station and identified him as a farmer named John O'Barton, residing in Middleburg, Va. His injuries are not serious, but he will bear the marks of pounding as long as he lives."

RELIGIOUS.—To day was duly observed by the Catholics as the Feast of All Saints. At St. Mary's Church Bishop Keane said Mass and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation at 9:30 o'clock. The ceremony was preceded and followed by a clear and logical exposition of the Sacrament. At 10 o'clock a High Mass was sung by Rev. J. A. McHugh, of St. Aloysius Church, Washington, and the Bishop preached on "The Communion of the Saints." The sermon was a most eloquent and convincing one and reflected great credit upon Bishop Keane, who is one of the foremost among the pulpit orators of the Catholic Church. Eleven men and ten women were confirmed at the early Mass, no children being presented.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.—A conservative mass meeting is to be held at Sarepta Hall, tonight. It will be address by Captain F. L. Smith, Gen. W. H. Payne, Mr. G. A. Mushbach and Edmund Burke, esq. It is expected that the meeting will be largely attended. Inasmuch as the readjusters refused to divide time last night, as will be seen by an item elsewhere, it behooves every conservative to be present.

VISIT TO WAKEFIELD.—Secretary Evarts and a large party of ladies and gentlemen made a visit to Wakefield, the birthplace of General Washington, yesterday. They were carried down the river on the U. S. steamer Tallapoosa. The visit was preliminary to the erection of a monument on the site of Washington's birthplace, as provided by act of Congress. The party returned early this morning.

FRIENDS' MEETING.—Martha E. Travilla, a minister of the Society of Friends, and a very eloquent and impressive speaker, has appointed a meeting for worship at Friends' Meeting House to morrow afternoon at half past three o'clock. A general invitation is extended to all to attend.

COUNTY COURT—Judge James Sangster presiding, met this evening and after the Judge signed the minutes, adjourned until the court in course.

THE CANAL AND MINERS.—The Cumberland News has the following items of interest to canal and coal men:

"The water in the creek and river near the city has raised considerably within the last few days, the continuous feeding into the upper levels of the canal, rendering the draft on the streams lighter.

"The miners of the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, who stopped work a few days since because 'blacklegs' were employed in the mine, held a meeting last evening and decided to resume work to day."

Vessels are very much in demand here and freights are advancing rapidly.

LEASE OF MARSHALL HALL.—Marshall Hall, the popular pleasure resort below this city, has been leased by its owner, Mr. John M. Little, to George W. Bauer, of Washington. The rent is $700 for the first two years and $800 thereafter. Mr. Little reserving the fruit and residence. By the terms of the lease the landing of negro excursions is prohibited, and the lessee is required to keep a good and sufficient police at all times to preserve order.

SUICIDE.—It was reported to day that Chas. Spiker aged about 21 years committed suicide by shooting himself through the temple at the house of John Hammond, near Strasburg, on the evening of the 28th. He died instantly.—Disappointment in a love affair was the supposed cause.

STOCK TRADE.—The stock business of the Virginia Midland Road is increasing very rapidly, and the company is often obliged to refuse transportation for want of cars. One hundred and forty car loads are expected here to night.

ACCIDENT.—A valuable mare belonging to Mr. George H. Watkins, got out of her stable, at West End last night and fell into an ice house, sustaining severe injuries, from which she subsequently died. The mare had lately been purchased—costing $150.

DEAD.—A dispatch received here announces the death at Atlanta, Georgia, yesterday morning, of Mr. Augustus D. Forsacre, son of Col. G. J. Forsacre, formerly of the Midland Road. Mr. Forsacre was educated in this city and was well known to many of our younger citizens.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A marriage license was granted, in Washington, yesterday, to Joseph Plaskett and Lucy Heflin, both of Fairfax county, Va.

A man was sentenced in Washington yesterday to be confined in jail for sixty days for stealing five gallons of cider from the shooting gallery of Mr. Morris Ullman, of this city, at the National Fair Grounds

The schooner Joshua Bragdon, while coming down from Georgetown this morning, ran into the Long Bridge and carried away the davits on her stern. She came down to this city, and was repaired at the ship yard.

A collision took place off the Washington arsenal last evening between the yacht Americus and a sloop from the Eastern Shore, name unknown, commanded by Captain Pruitt. Some damage was done to both vessels, but it was not serious.

OFFICIAL.

AN ACT to amend "an act to establish a permanent sinking fund for the extinguishment of the debt of the city of Alexandria."

Whereas the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund have informed the City Council by their final report that all the provisions of "an act authorizing the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to sell two thousand shares of the stock of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, subscribed for by the City Council by an act passed January 24, 1849, and invest the proceeds in the erection of buildings on the Market square, and appropriate the revenue therefrom to carry out the intent of section three (3) of said act," have been complied with.

Section 1. Be it therefore enacted by the City Council of Alexandria, That the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall have control over the renting of the stalls, stands and benches in the Market square and of such rooms in the Market building not occupied by officers of the city government, which shall be set apart by resolution of the City Council.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, That the revenue derived from the rents of stalls, stands and benches in the Market square and rooms in the building thereon, shall be collected by the Clerk of the Market and deposited with the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, taking from them their receipt for the amount so deposited, which receipt he shall deposit with the City Auditor, who shall charge the amount to said commissioners on the books of his office.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund are hereby authorized and shall from time to time invest the revenue derived from the rents of stalls, stands, benches, rooms, &c., in the Market square and buildings thereon in the stocks, bonds or other indebtedness of this corporation, as they may deem most advisable, with power to fund any stocks or bonds of this corporation issued prior to the first day of July, 1879, which they may purchase into bonds or certificates authorized to be issued under an act passed by the City Council and approved May 24, 1879, (and shall in like manner invest the interest arising from such investment, to create a sinking fund as required by section 6 of "an act of the General Assembly of Virginia authorizing the city of Alexandria to compromise the debt of the city, approved February 27, 1879, for the redemption and payment of bonds and certificates issued under "an act to accept and ratify an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved February 27, 1879, and to authorize the preparation and issue of bonds and certificates for arrears of interest, in accordance with the terms thereof," approved May 20, 1879.

Section 4. Be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall on or before the 25th day of June in each and every year furnish to each branch of the City Council a statement showing in detail all their transactions for the fiscal year ending the 31st day of May, and the then condition of the funds under their control, and are hereby required to keep the buildings on the Market square insured for an amount not less than thirty thousand dollars.

Section 5. Be it further enacted, That when the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall have redeemed the bonds, stocks or certificates of the corporation issued under the above recited act of the City Council, approved May 24, 1879, they shall make their final report to the City Council, and shall turn over all investments made by them to the City Council for cancellation, and their control over the revenue derived from the stalls, stands and benches in the Market square, and from the rent of rooms in the building thereon shall cease.

Section 6. This act shall take effect from and after the first day of July, 1879, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Passed Board of Aldermen October 28, 1879.
E. E. DOWNHAM, President.
Passed Common Council October 30, 1879.
J. T. BECKHAM, President.
Approved October 31, 1879.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY.

JACOB M. HEISLEY is hereby placed before the voters for their suffrages as an independent candidate for the House of Delegates. He runs on this platform: The children of the State the preferred creditors of the State. The McCulloch bill not a "settlement" such as Virginia ought to accept. No repudiation of honest debts, but no compounding of interest, and no tying up the revenues of the State for 41 years beyond legislative or popular control. A fair and honest bill, or none.
