Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 27, 1880.

Miscellaneous.

A sea l on was caught at New Brunswick, N. J., in the lower lock of the canal Saturday night by the harbor master It was shot in capture but not killed. It was eight feet long and is supposed to be one of the eight that escaped from Coney Island last Friday night.

The New York Commercial Bulletin assumes that the wheat crop of the present year will reach 495,000,000 bushels and estimating that the foreign demand will be 143,000,000 bushels there will remain 352,000,000 bushels This will far exceed the amount required for home consumption.

The census report for the 2d supervisor's dist. in this state, twenty counties, shows a total population of 1,6,140, about one-fourth the population of the state Included in the district are Petersburg, population 21,654; Lynchburg, 16,012; Danville, 7,526; Manchester, 6,036; Pittsylvania county has a population of 52,969. The census shows heavy gains in the past few years.

The Mormons celebrated Saturday, the anniversary of their first entrance into Utah, 33 years ago. They had a grand procession of trades and industries with ten brass and military bands in Salt Lake City. It was witnessed by 15,000 spectators Among the mottos was "The Happy Polygamous Family," carried by said family in a wagon. The ceremonies closed by a big meeting in the tabernacle with speeches and music.

Mr. Wm. F. McKewer, late clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore, was on Saturday chosen by a quorum of the Supreme Bench to fill the position of clerk of the City Court for the rest of the term made vacant by the death of the late incumbent Nathaniel C. Robertson — There was no balloting as it appears that Mr. McKewen was the unanimous choice of the judges present

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

By virtue of authority vested in us by the State Central Committee, we hereby designate Wednesday, the 25th day of August, 1880, as the time, and Alexandria as the place, for holding a convention to nominate the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 8th Congressional District of Virginia.

The basis of representation will be one delegate and one alternate to every one hundred votes and fractions of one hundred exceeding fifty cast for Tilden and Hendricks in 1876.

Delegates to said convention are to be selected by county, district or ward meetings, or by primary election by wards or districts, as the various county or city committees may elect, and at such times as the respective county or city committees may determine; provided, that if district or ward meetings or primary elections are adopted, even meetings or elections in any one county or city shall be held on the same day.
