PUBLIC SALE

OF THE

WASHINGTON & OHIO R. R.

Under authority of a decree of the Circuit Court of Richmond city, rendered April 23, 1880, in the suit of Henry Lewis et als. vs. the W. & O. R. R. Company et als., and affirmed by the Court of Appeals of Virginia at its September term, 1881, the undersigned, special Commissioners, will, at 12 o'clock m., on the 31st day of January, 1882, at the railroad depot of the Washington and Ohio Railroad Company, in the city of Alexandria, Va., offer at public auction the including that partly and that wholly constructed, and also all and singular all the works and property, real, personal and mixed, rolling stock, locomotives, cars, &c., and all rights, contracts and franchises of said Washington and Ohio Railroad Company.

The said property consists of a constructed line of railway in active operation from the city of Alexandria, Va., westward through the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax and Loudoun to Round Hill station, in Loudoun county, a distance of 51½ miles, including a line connecting with the Washington and Alexandria Railroad. The road is also graded beyond Round Hill for a distance of three miles.

The other real property of the company consists of a large brick depot building and freight house, in the city of Alexandria, a round house, machine shop, car shop, car shed, store house &c., and about fifteen acres of land adjacent thereto; also eleven depot houses and lots at the eleven principal stations between Alexandria and Round Hill.

According to the route surveyed the distance from Washington city to Point Pleasant, on the Ohio river, is three hundred and twenty five miles, and passes through a country heavily timbered and of great mineral resources.

Terms. The entire property, real, personal and mixed, franchises, &c., is sold together, and for the same the purchaser must pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) of the purchase money in cash, and the residue in four equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, which said payments are to be evidenced by bonds which are to be secured by a deed of trust upon the property sold, to be executed upon the confirmation of the sale and conveyance to the purchaser.

This sale is subject to the lien of the deed of trust executed August 6th, 1858 to indemnify the county of Clarke State of Virginia, against liability for the annual interest on the bonds of the said county for the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100 000) "up to and until the time when said road shall be commenced, and under construction in said county of Clarke;" and against liability for the payments of the principal of said bonds in case they shall become due and payable before the road shall be commenced and under construction in said county, the said bonds falling due in the year 1892.

The oyster dredgers who were confined in Annapolis jail for two weeks tell a terrible story of their sufferings while in that institution. One of them has since died, and another is dying.

Errors, it is said, have been found in the official tabulated vote for Governor, which corrected, makes Cameron's majority 12 715, instead of 11,716 as reported.

The Association for the Protection of the Fishing Interests in the Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries held its annual session at the Maltby House, Baltimore, Tuesday. They adopted a resolution in favor of free fishing.

The New York Board of Aldermen has passed a resolution over the Mayor's veto, giving the Metropolitan Telephone and Telegraph Company permission to lay wires under the streets of New York.

A message from Nice, France, announces the death of Major-Gen. John Henry Marindale, who, from 1852 to 1854, was Military Governor of Washington. He was brevetted Major General for gallantry at Malvern Hill, and in that year resigned on account of ill health.

Among the furniture of the old Washington Hotel, No. 1 Broadway, New York, which was to have been sold at auction to-day, were a sofa and five chairs used by General Washington himself and about one hundred and thirty years old. It is needless to add that they are alive with—historical reminiscences.

The board of inquiry on the Massachusetts Ninth Regiment at Yorktown and Richmond has concluded its investigation. Several members appeared Monday evening to answer to charges of misconduct while the regiment was in Richmond. All denied the charges against them, and demanded to be confronted by their accusers, a demand which was not complied with. The accused claimed that some of the officers were endeavoring to clear themselves by putting the blame on the men. The final decision of the board could not be learned, but it will be transmitted to the Governor in a few days."

Inspector Byrnes, of New York, received a dispatch from Hampton Roads, Va., last week asking that Gilbert Manson, the captain of the schooner Henry Sutton, coal-laden, for New York, be arrested, on the charge of kidnapping Harrison Vaughn, a twelve year-old colored boy. The vessel arrived in New York on Thursday night, and the boy was taken in charge by the police, but Manson, having gone to New Haven, was not arrested until Monday night. He was arraigned in a police court yesterday and denied having kidnapped the boy, but said he took him at his own request. The captain was held to await the papers for extradition.

H. H. RIDDLEBERGER, who has received the readjuster caucus nomination for United States Senator, is a native of Shenandoah county, and is but little over forty years of age. He entered the Confederate army at the beginning of the war as an infantry private, and was promoted to a lieutenancy, but receiving a wound in the foot was so lamed as to render him unfit for that branch of the service. He then entered the cavalry, raised a company, of which he was made captain, and did service in the Shenandoah Valley. Some years after the close of the war Mr. Riddleberger commenced the publication of a democratic paper at Edinburg, Shenandoah county, which he afterwards removed to Woodstock, the county seat. Whilst thus engaged in journalism he read law, and shortly after being admitted to the bar was elected prosecuting attorney for Shenandoah county. He rapidly developed as a fluent speaker, and was elected to the Virginia House of Delegates, from which he was promoted to the State Senate from the district composed of Shenandoah and Page counties. During the late canvass he was considered the most effective speaker on the readjuster side.

PREMIUM SAFETY OIL.—We desire particularly to call the attention of our customers to this Oil, our sales of which are largely increasing and with entire satisfaction to all using it. It is absolutely safe and non explosive under all circumstances, water-white in color, burns with a beautiful, soft and brilliant light, and being much less volatile, does not consume so fast and is therefore in reality no more expensive than coal oil. No change of lamp or burner needed as it is used in the same manner as ordinary coal oil. Price twenty-five cents per gallon. On receipt of two dollars we will deliver free on board cars or boat in Alexandria a five-gallon box shipping can of the Safety Oil marked to any address desired.
