WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 13.

FIGHT WITH A WILDCAT.—A most desperate fight occurred last Saturday on the back part of the farm of Capt. Lennig, near Harrisonburg, between a wildcat, which measured two feet and two inches long, and four little colored boys, Willie Rice, Eli Waters, each ten years old; Newton and Luther Gaines, thirteen and fifteen years old, and a little white boy, a son of Mr Berry, who farms for Capt. Lennig, resulting in the killing of the wildcat with little damage to the boys. The boys, who had two smallidogs with them, saw the animal running on the fence some distance off and made toward it, when it ran up a tree. The boys, unaware of the dangerous character of the animal, determined to catch it. The largest boy cut a hickory stick and climbed the tree to within reach of the cat and struck it, when the animal made a fierce demonstration, but receiving another blow on the head, he ran out on a limb and plunged down at the other boys. Just as he reached the ground the little dogs fiercely assailed the animal, who was rapidly cleaning them up, when the boys pelted him with stones and clubs. The cat let up on the dogs and flew at young Berry, catching him on the body, tearing his clothes badly. But the plucky little boys did not give him time to do much mischief, for they hit him such blows as stunned him and made him release Berry. The cat rallied and plunged at the other boys, but they stood well together and finally killed the ferocious and dangerous animal, which no doubt, had wandered out of the mountains in search of prey. It had been killing chickens and turkeys in the neighborhood.—Rockingham Register
