A Cabman Taught a Lesson.

Congressman Jason B Brown, of the New Albany (Indiana) district, has given the cab drivers in Washington city a lesson which they will not soon forget. The other day Mr. Brown wanted to meet a friend who was just around the corner, having an engagement to go to a certain part of the city. He called a cabman and was driven to the place designated only to find his friend absent. He told the driver to take him back to his hotel, which was done at once. The whole transaction did not occupy over five minutes. "How much?" asked Jason when he jumped out. "Seventy-five cents," said the cabman gruffly. Now, Jason Brown doesn't care any more for a dollar than some men do for a hundred, but he saw at once that the cabman was trying to skin him, so he observed: "Why the rate is only seventy-five cents an hour. I haven't been out five minutes"

"That makes no difference," said the cabman; "I charge just the same as if I had been out an hour."

"All right," said Mr. Brown, "you just stay here in front of the hotel for 55 minutes and your hour will be up. Come in then and I will pay you."

The cabman was dumbfounded, but the Congressman walked away. In ten minutes he was in the hotel hunting Mr. Brown up and offering a compromise for a quarter, but the latter would not have it and made cabby earn his 75 cents by waiting. Mr. Brown looks like a farmer, but there are few smoother men in Congress than he.—Louisville Post.

A CHEAP WAY TO WARM COLD FEET.—More than twenty-five years ago, says a writer in the Boston Journal, while I was in the Thirty-fifth Massachusetts Regiment, strutting around in Virginia, I was sometimes troubled with cold feet. At one time while I was stamping upon the ground in the effort to warm my extremities, a comrade in the same regiment said to me, "If your feet are cold try this." He raised his foot from the ground and struck some light blows with his hand on the upper part of the leg, just above the knee. I did the same with both legs, and instantaneously felt a flow of warm blood coursing downward, and the feet became comfortably warm. The experiment was repeated with good effect in the comparatively warm climate of Virginia, and also with equally good results in the more rugged atmosphere of New England.

Lead Poison Cured.

I am a painter by trade. Three years ago I had a bad case of Lead Poison, caused by using paint. I was cured in a short time by S. S. S. The medicine drove the poison out through the pores of the skin. My system was so saturated with poison that my underclothes were colored by the paint being worked out by the medicine through the pores of my skin. I was cured entirely by S. S. S., and have had no return since.

The Alexandria Gazette

Publishes in condensed but comprehensive form news from all parts of the world, and daily lay before its readers an epitome of whatever is going on around them.

THE GAZETTE enjoys unsurpassed facilities for procuring ALL THE NEWS, and that, too, often twelve hours earlier than the morning papers, its telegraphic columns being kept open till late each evening in order to receive the very latest dispatches, so that whatever may occur, whether in this or other lands, is almost sure to find its way into its columns the same day.

Its correspondence is newsy and accurate, and its miscellaneous department is conducted with an eye to the enlightenment and pleasure of its readers, and no pains are spared to make it attractive in every feature.

Its commercial columns are edited with care and precision, so that the merchant and the farmer can always rely upon its market reports.

As an advertising medium it has few, if any superiors in all this section of country, having an extensive circulation, not only throughout Virginia, but in nearly all the States and Territories
