☞ Yesterday afternoon the workmen engaged on the Cincinnati Street Railroad, at the corner of Western-row and Ninth street, found it necessary in removing the street crossing to build a temporary dam in the street gutter in front of the Telegraph House. The water accumulated at that point to the depth of three feet. A number of small boys enjoyed themselves by rolling up their pants and wading in, one of whom, the son of Mr. Geo. Seitzer, was tumbled into the water, and came very near being drowned. His grand-mother, an elderly lady, ran to his rescue in time to pull him out and save his life.

☞ Lewis Brittiner, the young man arrested night before last for placing bowlders on the street-railroad track, was tried by His Honor, Judge Lowe, yesterday, and fined $10 and costs, together with imprisonment in the City Prison for five days. Brittiner is about eighteen years of age, and is certainly too large a boy to engage in such tricks. In connection with this matter, we would say that it is the determination of the police to arrest all parties caught in placing obstructions on the track.

☞ The Great Eastern, manufactured by Mr J. B. Morrison, of Dayton, Ohio, and intended as a repair boat for the Whitewater Canal, has arrived at what is termed Grandin's Station, and laid up, in consequence of the obstruction of the streets at the corner of Western-row and Ninth, at Seitzer's crossing. She will be taken to the basin of the Whitewater Canal, on wheels, as soon as the curve in the street railroad is completed, which will probably be to-morrow.

REDUCTION OF FEES.—Henry Elias, jeweler, and another person, who had paid Dr. Ealing thirty-five dollars each for services rendered in extracting corns, made complaint before Esq. Hanselman, who, after hearing the testimony, yesterday, decided that Dr. Ealing must refund thirty dollars to each, a cure not having been effected.

☞ We were yesterday favored with a call from Mr. J. H. Mendenhall, of the New Richmond (Ind.) Broad Axe. We always bid the editorial fraternity a hearty welcome.

☞ The following touching lines were handed to us by a friend, who we feel certain has been advertising in our want column successfully. We do not intend to place our "poick" among the stars, (as Prentice, of Louisville, does with his,) by any preliminary remark, but this much we will say, that if our "poickal" Skeesicks, does not wield a Byron, Milton, or Goldsmith pen, he wielded one of Robert Clarke & Co.'s No. 2 lead pencils—we have his word for it—to accomplish his effort. Success to Skeesicks, say we:

WANT INFORMATION.

BY SKEESICKS.

You want a girl—indeed you do,
You can not do without;
And wonder at the quickest way
To bring the thing about.
The safest, surest, quickest way—
The way of all the wise—
Go seek the PENNY PRESS forthwith
And in it ADVERTISE.

You want a House—of course you do—
A thing quite hard to get;
You wonder who the deuce has one
Now empty, and "To Let."
There's only one slit rnative
To quiet your distress,
Go ADVERTISE this want of yours
In the DAILY PENNY PRESS.

You want to sell a House and Lot,
You want to sell a Farm,
And wonder how your neighbor does
Such things "to such a charm."
The only secret of such things
And truly, I confess—
A simple ADVERTISEMENT in The DAILY PENNY PRESS.

Now all ye needy, old and young,
Who would your wants supply,
The PENNY PRESS is just the thing,
(Between just you and I.)
To ADVERTISE your every want
That ev'ry one will know,
And if you don't believe my song,
Go try—'twill plainly show.

INKLINGS.

A desperate fight took place among a number of women in a house on Pearl-street, near Fulton, several evenings since, in which a woman named Johannah Hogan beat one of the party very badly. She was tried in the Police Court yesterday and fined $5 and costs, and sentenced to the City Prison for three days.

Geo. Williams, the colored boy charged with inducing a number of white boys to burglariously enter the boarding house of Mr. Foster, on the corner of Third and Broadway, some nights since, will be tried in the Police Court to-morrow.

The new car, which was to have been placed on the street-railroad track to-day, will not be ready until Saturday. Look out for something nice.

The members of the First Regiment Ohio Volunteers in the Mexican war, and resident of this city, celebrated the thirteenth anniversary of the battle at Monterey, in an appropriate manner, yesterday.

The express train on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, due here at seven o'clock yesterday morning, was delayed by the engine and baggage-car being thrown from the track when near Shoel's. The fireman was severely injured, and the engine badly smashed up.

A pair of horses attached to a beer-wagon ran away near the Two-mile House yesterday, and smashed the wagon up considerably.

Omissions were found, yesterday, in the Assessor's returns of the Third Ward, amounting to $100,000, and in the Twelfth Ward $3,780.

A horse jumped through the show-window at the Water-work's office yesterday forenoon, and played smash generally.

A pugilistic individual named Jerry Hogan was fined $10 and costs by Judge Lowe, yesterday, for disorderly conduct, and sent to the dungeon of the County Jail for ten days, to be fed on bread and water, for an assault and battery.

James Haskins will be tried by the Police Judge to-morrow, on a charge of stealing a coat and a book.

Forty-two cases were disposed of by Judge Lowe yesterday.

The Thirteenth Ward has lost its Cupid. He was sent to the City Prison by Judge Lowe yesterday, on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Charles Donnelly was tried in the Police Court yesterday, charged with maiming Lacy Manning—biting off his lower lip—and acquitted. The prosecuting witness refused to testify.

Pratt, the lad who was run over by the car on the Street Railroad, is considered out of danger by his physician.

The curve on the Street Railroad track at the corner of Ninth and Western-row, is being altered.

Business on the Levee yesterday was quite brisk.

Judge Ranney is expected to arrive here to-day.

The track of the Cincinnati Street Railroad, with the exception of the curve at Ninth and Western-row, is completed to Mound street. The whole route will be ready for the cars by the 15th of October.

The body of a colored man was found in the Ohio River day before yesterday, so much decomposed as to render recognition impossible. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by accidental drowning.

We are informed that Mayor Bishop has issued orders to his policemen, instructing them to refrain from electioneering at either primary or regular elections.

Mons. Blondin, in connection with those Cincinnati favorites, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman, will appear at Pike's Opera-house to-night.

Considerable electioneering was done by interested politicians in the various wards yesterday.

The total number of churches, of the various denominations, in Hamilton County, is one hundred and sixteen.

☞ The citizens of Sedamsville were thrown into great excitement, last evening, by the discovery of the dead body of an unknown person. Appearances indicate that the dead man had crawled into a culvert running under the river-road from the premises of F. H. Yateman to the canal. From the evidence given before the Coroner, it is believed that he has been dead about three weeks. He had on a blue shirt and pants, and looked to be about thirty years of age. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—One of the most attractive and useful novelties on exhibition is Dr. Karshner's Positive and Negative Electro-Therapeutic Bathing Apparatus, a new mode of administering electricity for curative purposes. The Doctor has a patent for the same, and is meeting with much success in the sale of rights, and in performing remarkable cures. We understand that insanity, epilepsy and delirium tremens are entirely and speedily cured by the Doctor's new mode of treatment. This is certainly a great achievement in the healing art, and well worthy the attention of the profession and the authorities having charge of hospitals and insane asylums.

PENDLETON AND FIFTH-STREET RAILROAD COMPANY.—This company was organized yesterday morning by the election of a Board of Directors, composed of Charles H. Kilgour, Charles Rule, John L. Stettinius, D. Harries, O. P. Thorp, A. E. Jones and John Kilgour. The first regular meeting of the Board and election of officers will take place next Monday evening.

PERSONAL.—Among the immense crowd of guests at the Spencer House we find the following distinguished persons: Mr. Carey, U. S. Treasurer, brother and family; Hon. John C. Rives; Hon. Humphrey Marshall. Mr. Carey is in very feeble health, and is on his way home for recreation.

GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c.—This morning at nine o'clock, Cooper & Stokes, auctioneers, sell gold and silver watches, and a splendid lot of jewelry, at their auction rooms, No. 14 East Fourth-street.

☞ There will be a meeting of the Re-union Club of Herron's Seminary, this evening, September 22, at 7½ o'clock. A prompt attendance is earnestly requested to complete the organization by signing the constitution.

☞ The Great Eastern is expected to sail, on wheels, from the corner of Western-row and Ninth-street, some time to-morrow. Passage free.

AMUSEMENTS.

PIKE'S OPERA-HOUSE.—Remember that to-night Mons. Blondin, the famous Blondin, whose recent fearful exploit of crossing the gulf of Niagara—on a tight-rope at night, and in inky darkness, bearing a man upon his shoulders, is familiar to everybody—commences an engagement at the Opera-house to-night, during which he will execute upon the tight-rope a number of extraordinary feats; after which he will make a grand ascension from the back of the stage to the extreme hight of the vast auditorium—previous to which Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman and an excellent company appear in the laughable comedietta of "The Artful Dodger."

WOOD'S THEATER.—A crowded house was present at this establishment last night, to witness the star sisters, Helen and Lucille, in SATAN IN PARIS, and in the minstrel scene in the THREE FAST MEN. Miss Lucille's personification of his Satanic Majesty won from the audience marked favors, made known by frequent rounds of applause. In the minstrel scene both Lucille and Helen were perfectly bewitching. These versatile artistes remain but two nights longer to please the habitues of Wood's, and it behooves those who have not yet witnessed their charming acting to shorten their procrastination. To-night will be rendered ROSINA MEADOW, and a repetition of the THREE FAST MEN minstrel scene—Miss Helen appearing as "Rosina" and "Rosalie," and Miss Lucille as "Jenny Fairlove."

PANORAMA OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.—Butts's Panorama of the New Testament and land of Palestine will be on exhibition this evening at the Melodeon Hall. This is a painting of true merit, and ought not fail to be well supported by our citizens. It brings to memory scenes long since enacted, and affords to the view of the beholder a better knowledge of the Holy Land and its peculiarities than any written description.

LAW REPORT.

COMMON PLEAS.

CIVIL SIDE.—Burgovne, administrator of Ludlow, vs. the of heirs Ludlow and others. A motion of the Jefferson Branch of the State Bank of Ohio to dissolve an injunction in favor of J. C. Miller, (the survey of Ludlow,) was argued before Judge Walton, by R. McBook, for the motion, and Judge Woodruff on the other side, and was fully submitted.

CRIMINAL SIDE.—The State vs. Nathan Davis. Before Judge Carter. The defendant stood indicted, charged with stealing a horse and buggy, the property of D. M. Marsh. According to the testimony, the buggy was left in front of the Baptist Church, on Catharine-street, on the night of the 5th of August. The horse and buggy were seen on the same night on Sixth-street, the defendant being then in the buggy. He was under the influence of liquor, and was taken to the station-house, where he soon fell asleep, and in the morning asked what he was charged with. He admitted going off with the buggy, but said it was only for a ride, that he had no intention of stealing.

Several witnesses testified to the fact of his drinking liquor to a considerable extent on the day in question; one said that he had come into his coffee-house and invited him and others in the house to go out riding.

The jury rendered a verdict of acquittal. Kerr for the State; C. Hilts for defense.

ARRAIGNMENTS AND PLEAS.—Daniel Fosset pleaded guilty of forgery, and was remanded for sentence.

James Stewart pleaded guilty of assault and battery, and was sentenced to ten days in the dungeon.

J. Scholson, policeman, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of assault and battery.

Emma Press plead not guilty to a charge of maliciously destroying property.

PROBATE COURT.

The question raised in relation to the insanity of Michael Julg (in custody on a charge of killing his wife) was to have been investigated yesterday. The prisoner was brought into court, and the witnesses were present, but, on application of the Prosecuting Attorney, who stated that business in the Common Pleas would prevent his being able to give his attention to the case of Julg at this time, the investigation was postponed until Thursday, the 13th of October. So far as the appearance of the prisoner was concerned, it presented a strong plea in favor of the claim now made on his behalf.

COVINGTON NEWS.

[Any communications from our friends will be thankfully received. Address "Press Reporter," Box 21, Covington, Ky.]

THE RIVER.—The rapid rise of the river put a sudden stop to the improvement of the wharf at the foot of Scott-street, and should it continue long, it will require a large additional expense to fill it; according to some estimates, double and even treble that it is now worth.

The rise still continues, though its progress is very slow. The river is full of drift-wood. The Pittsburg rise, telegraphed a few days ago, is expected here some time to-morrow. We may now look for the ingress of large boats, and trade in our neighboring city of Cincinnati will receive a great impetus. The Licking is also very high.

The new sidewalk on Second-street, between Scott and Madison, is in progress, and the prospect now is that there will be a passage from one of these streets to the other, in muddy weather, for persons on foot.

CITY COUNCIL.—This body held a special session yesterday afternoon at the regular hour. Some business of an unimportant character was transacted. The great feature of the day was the good-humor of the members; although it no doubt obstructed business to some extent, yet it was much better than quarrelling.

POLICE COURT.—F. Myers, for whipping his wife, was fined $1 50. He has, we understand, since become an advocate of woman's rights. John Ryder, for breach of the peace, was fined $1 25.

HONESTY.—One of our city officials left, by mistake, several dollars on the desk of the Police Court-room through the greater part of yesterday, and found it safe on return. Is it because the people are so honest, or did no one see it?

NEWPORT NEWS.

[Subscriptions, advertisements and communications, addressed to the "Press Reporter," Box 85, will be attended to.]

THAT ITEM.—We rehearsed our tribulation in search of a robbery, in our yesterday's issue, and gave the conclusion, as we supposed, but the matter underwent a legal investigation this morning, before Mayor Hawkins, and resulted in the acquittal of the defendant, who established the facts as we gave them yesterday.

CAMPBELL COUNTY FAIR.—All accounts from this fair represent it as a complete success. The crowd is large, and the articles exhibited do honor to the State. The fair continues three days longer, and we hope everybody will attend. Newport has already sent a large delegation, all of whom are pleased with the character of the exhibition and the demeanor of the managers.

Young Huntly, who was arrested for burglary, was held to bail in the sum of $100, by Esquire Payne, for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court. The bail was given.

Two cases of felony were continued in the Police Court till to-morrow.

The case of Selman was dismissed by the Mayor, the assault being of such a nature as not to warrant binding over.

MONETARY.

WEDNESDAY, September 21—6 P. M.

The Money market remains in the same close condition that it has been in for the past three weeks, with no immediate prospect for relief.

Exchange remains ½ premium selling rate—buying at ⅞@¾ cents.

No change in Uncurrent Money.

Cincinnati Produce Market.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, September 21, 1859.

FLOUR—There was a somewhat firmer feeling in the market for Flour to-day, but no essential change in prices. The sales were confined to 500 brls. at $4 50@4 60 for superfine, and $4 85@5 for extra.

WHISKY—A good demand and prices ½c. higher. The sales comprise 1,000 brls. at 24@24½c.; the latter rate for wagon.

PROVISIONS—The demand for all articles coming under this head is good, and the market buoyant, though we cannot quote all prices higher. The sales to-day comprise 50 brls. city mess Pork at $14 00; 250 do country at $14 25; 145 hhds Bacon, at 7½c. for shoulders, 9¾c. for sides, and 11c. for clear sides; and 80,000 pounds bulk meat at 6½c. and 8½c. for shoulders and sides. Lard is salable at 10½c., but is held higher.

OIL—Linseed dull and offered at 56c.

GROCERIES—The market is unchanged and the demand good at full rates. Sales of 30 hhds. Sugar at 7@7¾c., and 40 brls. Molasses at 36½c.

WHEAT—The market remains steady and prices are unchanged. Sales 250 bushels good white at $1 05; 350 do. prime red at $1; 700 do. do. at 97½c.; 500 do do. hill at $1; 300 do good white at $1 03, and 300 do. do. at $1 05.

CORN—The market is firm at 75c. for fair mixed.
