LUDLOW, KY.—A prominent officer of the Cincinnati B. B. C. says his club was organized to beat the Ludlows and Covington Stars. Well, we shall see how much truth there is in the above prediction on next Saturday evening.

Our moonlight hop and the cause of its failure: For the last two weeks the young gentlemen and ladies of this city were on the tip-toe of anxiety in their preparations for what was to be considered the grandest and most enjoyable affair of the season. Invitations were sent to acquaintances in Cincinnati and Covington, and about 10 o'clock last night the beautiful grove, with its handsome dancing platform, illuminated by brilliant head-lights and hundreds of Chinese lanterns presented a spectacle of splendor, with its hundred couple of beautiful young ladies and handsome young gentlemen, who after the usual interchange of courtesies, inquired when will the grand march begin, and just then, among the pleasure seeking elite of the three cities, could be seen the most chagrined committee of arrangement that ever stood before a party of disappointed guests, all through the the bad faith of Dave Hamilton, who contracted to furnish the music, but who disappointed in the most niggardly and unexcusable manner, causing a postponement until next Friday evening.

WAPAKONETA, O.—The Auglaize County Teachers' Institute commenced its sessions in this place yesterday. Prof. Williamson, the efficient Superintendent of the Wapakoneta public schools, is ably assisted by Prof Schuyler, of Baldwin University, and Prof. Torrence, of St. Marys. The Institute will remain in session two weeks.

Base-ball is the topic of conversation here as elsewhere. The "Wapaks," who have triumphed so often of late, were vanquished last week by the "Crogans," of the city of Fremont. In a few days the Wapaks play the Van Werts for the championship of this Congressional district.

Our "City Dads" are determined that lawlessness shall not go unpunished. Our new Mayor, some time ago, determined to try what virtue there would be in the "chain-gang" system. Since the resolution has been carried into effect, quite a number have been forced to work with the ball and chain, to work out their fines.

Not long since, a party of Lima roughs ventured to pay our town a visit on the Sabbath day, and ventured to do as they pleased generally. They finally got worked up to a high pitch of excitement, and in their anger gave vent to some well directed blows. Our Marshal being absent, the Mayor deputized two or three parties to arrest them, and had them incarcerated within the walls of our jail. Two of the roughs escaped however, but were captured in their little burg and brought back for trial. All were fined heavily for their rowdyism, and some two or three were committed to jail, in default of bail to work their time out on the chain-gang. They being respectably connected, we will omit their names, trusting they will not be guilty of such a misdemeanor again.

HAMILTON, O.—Dr. Beauchamp is reported quite sick again.

Four arrests were made on Sunday last for disorderly conduct. The first, James Gustin, was fined $2 and costs. Next came Theodore Roach and Matthew Smith, both of whom were fined. But upon him promising to leave the city never more to return, the execution of the sentence was suspended for one hour. Michael vamoosed. Conrad Parr, drunk, $1 and costs. John Conley received a letter from his brother who died about two months ago, and in order that he might grieve over the matter he went and got tearfully drunk, and not only howled and screamed, like a "true mourner," but even went so far as to break up the furniture, which, however, was not of a costly kind. Uncle John begged hard and wept bitterly before the "learned Judge." He promised to go home and "be a good b'y" if the Judge would only be merciful with him, but his doom was sealed, and Uncle Berry Conley will administer to his wants during the next eight days.

Lieutenant Middendorf, from Hammond-street Station, Cincinnati, accompanied by Officer Burk, came over to Covington this morning after John Ryan, who stole a coat from a man near the Suspension bridge, about ten o'clock last night. John had been captured by some of the Covington police during the night. Ryan is well known to the police circles of this city.

The stone fence around the eastern part of Ex-Governor Stevenson's yard, together with a lot of the earth, took another "slide" last night in the direction of the Licking river.

A land-slide seems likely to occur at the corner of Taylor and Isabella streets, from the effects of the late flood. The locality is now considered dangerous, and eventually will prove a costly case to the city. We are told the gully is twenty-five feet deep, and there is no protection whatever, and the wonder is that many children have not lost their lives by falling into it.

Our citizens who suffered from the late flood in the Licking bottom complain, and justly, too, that the City Council have not done their duty. A little attention in that direction may save a big law-suit. A petition regarding this matter, signed by a number of responsible citizens, will be laid before Council to-morrow evening.

It was reported this morning that Marshal Lock and his deputy, Joe Taylor, had been arrested on a warrant issued upon the affidavit of John Brunner, charging them with a breach of the peace. Mr. Lock informs us this morning that he has not yet been arrested, and can not therefore vouch for the foundation of the rumor. Brunner, it will be remembered is the man who figured so conspicuously on the nose of "Joe" Huff a short time ago.

A man who for some time has been floating with his family in a small dwelling-boat, which he had landed near the placid shores of the Ohio river, just above the city, became tired of the location, and at an early hour this morning he cut the moorings that held his movable house and floated it to the mouth of the Licking, where he was met by a fellow-craftsman, and the twain towed the "concern" up the Licking, where he will make his future home.
