NEWPORT.

The Kentucky Legislature meets next month.

The very latest is that the French have invaded Newport and taken "Root."

Mary L. Ross was confirmed as Postmistress of Newport in the United States Senate yesterday.

The feast of "All Saints" is being observed with due solemnity among our Catholic citizens.

The Festival of Reformation will be celebrated next Sunday at St. Paul's Evangelical Church.

Dr. Thayer says he wants no more complimentary benefits from "prominent citizens" of Newport.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Cole on Bellevue street.

Physicians report scarlet fever as very prevalent among children, and which in a number of cases has proved fatal.

Squire C. P. Buchanan and Deputy Marshal Brasier left last night on a hunting expedition through Central Kentucky.

Charles Mauget and General O. W. Root had a set-to yesterday near the Court-house, during which the military man was knocked down.

Six out of the twenty "prominent citizens" who signed their names for that grand complimentary benefit paid for admission to the show.

Mr. Charles A. Clark, who has been confined to his residence for several weeks with severe illness, will, we are pleased to note, be about in a few days.

The case of Root vs. Mauget was called in the City Court this morning, but neither being able to appear, the case was continued to to-morrow morning.

Will. Spencer, who is getting a national reputation as a temperance orator, will address a Murphy meeting, under the auspices of the Central Christian Union, at Cincinnati this evening.

Two companies of United States soldiers, under command of Major Brown, came in on the 12 o'clock train to-day. They marched direct to the Barracks, where they will be permanently located.

Mrs. Sarah Spinks, a highly-esteemed lady, died last evening at her residence on Mayo street. Mrs. Spinks was in her seventy-fifth year, and during forty years of her life she has resided here. The funeral services will take place to-morrow at the Taylor-street M. E. Church.

John Milin and Joseph Lyman started out last-night with a full determination of having some sport or die in the attempt. They hadn't gone far before they tackled a gate, and in the attempt to jerk it off the hinges pulled the whole fence down. A warrant was sworn out and the two young men arrested, and this morning Judge Geisler fined them $3 and costs each.

CALIFORNIA, O.

Mr. Charles H. Love starts for Nashville to-day, where he intends to make his permanent residence.

The fare on the "Narrow-gauge" has been reduced to 10 cents, from California Station to Columbia. This is right.

The wedding of Mr. Hamer Fiscus and Kate Emig was a nice affair. The bride received a large number of presents, some of which were valuable.

We return our thanks to the village band for their serenade last evening. The boys are improving, and we hope they will soon furnish our village with splendid music.

The friends of Senator Morton, residing in our village, will be glad to know, we presume, that he gave in his adhesion to the policy of pacification a few days ago. Now let all do likewise.

LEXINGTON, KY.

There were fifty-six arrivals at the Phœnix Hotel Tuesday.

Mr. John Rogers, policeman, is dangerously ill at his residence on Upper street.

Henry Metcalf says he don't want to ride Ten Broeck Saturday. Well, then, try Big Milt. Metcalf.

Mrs. D. Hurley is lying dangerously sick with rheumatism of the heart at her residence on Cox street.

All the principal churches of the city celebrated All Saints' Day to-day. All Souls' Day will be celebrated to-morrow.

The Murphy meetings have been discontinued, and it will be several weeks before regular meetings are to be held in this city again.

Rev. Father Augustine, of Mt. Adams, Ohio, and Father Broeset, of Paris, Ky., are in the city assisting at the services at St. Paul's Church.

Mrs. Thomas Quinn has removed from her residence on Second street, and will now occupy her house situated on Main street.

Prominent among the weddings that will shortly take place, will be that of Henry Matt and Barbara Kleimbeck, and John Kleimbeck and Barbara Baumann.

Judging from the present rate of speed in which the new dummy track is being laid, it may possibly be completed by New Year's.

Allhalloween was was not forgotten by the boys. They were out in full force, and from the number of gates missing and the crops of cabbage "raised," they did their work well. Halloweve comes but once a year, and boys will be boys.

EATON, O.

Wm. Flemming, living near Camden, this county, ate on Sunday last a bucketful each of black haws and green walnuts. His funeral was largely attended from the M. E. Church of that village on yesterday, October 30.

Miss Pauline Straub, one of Hamilton's most gifted favorites, will, ere long, we understand, give a concert at the Opera-house. And our own Mrs. R. W. Richie, with a tiptop company of Cincinnati artists, is booked for a concert at the same place, November 9

The Opera-house is finished at last. Every one is happy over the event, and doubtless none more so than Mr. J. E. Lesly, the artist himself, who, by the way, has left here for Richmond, Indiana, with a view of remodeling Phillips' Hall in that city—verbatim et literatim—with this one of ours.

Wm. Eson, for several years leader of a military band in the U. S. Army, has been home here on an extended leave of absence for some time. Town life becoming monotonous, he folded up his tent and camp equipage, packed them in a wheelbarrow on Friday last, and broke for tall timber, near Sugar Valley, eight miles southwest of here, since which time the Professor has been the recipient of visits from the solid men of Eaton, who have enjoyed his hospitality, and feasted upon fish, squirrels, chickens, pheasants, oysters, &c., served up in a style worthy of A. S. Hunt. On looking over his register, kept on the side of a birch tree, we found among other prominent callers, Major H. B. Van Ausdal, W. D. Queen, Esq., Dr. Tuttle, Dr. A. H. Stephens, Charley Thumb, Esq., W. W. Jefferson, L. G. Gould, editor of the Democrat, E. P. Lockwood and Captain Wilson. The Professor will remain in camp during Indian summer.

HAMILTON.

Charles Hamilen, indicted for riot, was yesterday arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Dave Harper (colored) was yesterday sentenced to thirty days in jail and to pay a fine of $5 for petit larceny.

Robbed on the Railroad.

A man named G. J. Meece, a resident of McGoffin County, Ky., who is stopping at the Day House, went out for a little stroll last night, and going up the railroad near the Eighteenth-street Bridge, in Covington, was approached by a negro man, who knocked him down and robbed him of $120 in money. After he was knocked down the villain kicked him in the jaw and broke it, and beat him up in a frightful manner. Meece laid there all night, and this morning he was brought to the city in an insensible condition and taken to the office of Dr. Stuard, who rendered the necessary medical aid. The police are on the look-out for the culprit.
