TO HORSEMEN.

A. GALLEY, Veterinary Surgeon

Cor. St. Clair and Second Streets,
DAYTON, OHIO.

DURING the twenty months since I have opened the stable on Second and St. Clair sts., I have treated in my Horse Infirmary more than 450 horses and cows; of these there were many animals which the majority considered incurable; and yet I have treated them with the very best success.

The public is therefore respectfully requested to favor me with its confidence and patronage in the treatment of Horses and Cattle; and I will spare no pains to deserve the same.

The following testimonials given under their own hands by my patrons, are sufficient to prove my capability:

DAYTON, OHIO, Oct. 20, 1857.

We, the undersigned, certify that A. Galley, Veterinary Surgeon, has treated sick horses for us, and that we are not only satisfied with the cures he has effected for us, but we conscientiously recommend him to all our friends and acquaintances as an experienced and rational Physician in this branch of science.

WHEELER & WILSON'S

Sewing Machines.

HUSTON BUILDING,
Corner of Third and Jefferson,
DAYTON, - - - OHIO.

WE offer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines, with important improvements, at a reduction of $20 from former prices, and to meet the demand for a GOOD, low-priced Family Machine, have introduced a NEW STYLE, working upon the same principle, and making the same stitch, though not so highly finished, at FIFTY DOLLARS.

The elegance, speed, noiselessness and durability of the Machine, the beauty and strength of stitch, being ALIKE ON BOTH SIDES, impossible to revel, and leaving no chafe or rubs on the under side, the economy of thread, and adaptability to the finest or coarsest fabrics, have established this machine as a special favorite among sewing machine now extant.

At our various stores, we set it at New York prices, and give instructions free of charge, to enable purchasers to use ordinary sewing, hem, fell, quilt, gather, bind and tuck, with the Wheeler & Wilson Machine, and warrant it for three years.

The Sickles Trial.

WASHINGTON, April 5.

Shortly after the meeting of the Court, this morning, the talesmen were severally called for the purpose of completing the number of Jurors; only five from the regular panel having been selected yesterday.—No additional Jurors were to-day accepted until the 34th name was called. The disqualification was on the general ground of having formed opinions from newspapers or conversation with witnesses, and, therefore, incompetent to render a fair and impartial trial. No additional Jurors had been selected, when the fiftieth was called. The pressure to obtain admission to the Court Room was not so great this morning, as it was yesterday, for the reason, probably, that it is not expected to obtain a Jury.—The Court Room, however, is filled. The box, or cage, in which the prisoners have to sit, has been removed from the out of the way corner in which it was yesterday, and placed in front of the Jury.

The table for the lawyers occupies the intervening space. It looks a good deal like a hencoop.

Much dissatisfaction has been expressed by the friends of Mr. Sickles, at subjecting him to the indignity of occupying this cage; particularly as there is nothing but the usage of this Court to justify it; and even the usage has not been uniform. The District Attorney refused to interfere in the matter, and hence the necessity of applying to the Court yesterday.

There are no ladies in the Court, and no accommodations for any. There appears to be a greater desire to-day to give facilities to the Reporters. The Father of Mr. Sickles and Mrs. Sickles, Mr. Bogioli, occupy seats together. Among the friends of the accused, in attendance, are Peter Byrons, of N. Y., and the Hon. Mr. Eustis, of La. The Crier opened the Court at 20 minutes past 10 o'clock. Some time elapsed before the prisoner was brought in. The five Jurors who were sworn in yesterday, were called and answered to their names.

The Judge suggested that the list of talesmen should be called in their order. The District Attorney said that he preferred the adoption of the balloting system. That the names should be placed in a box and called as they were drawn out.

Mr. Stanton preferred the calling of the name, in the order of which they appear on the list, as the defence had arraigned their challenges in that way. The Judge ordered the names to be placed in the box and called as they were drawn. While this matter was in course of arrangement, the prisoner was conducted into Conrt, and took his seat in the dock.

He appeared calm and composed, though his features were marked with the lines of deep grief. The Clerk then proceeded to draw the names of the talesmen, Mr Sickles stood in the dock conversing with one of his counsel, as the Jurors were in course of questioning.

[Here a large number of persons were examined as Jurors, and were all rejected because they had formed or expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. They could not, under the circumstances, form an impartial judgment. They were all disqualified.]

Eight persons only have thus far been selected.

Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE NEW YORK!

NEW YORK, April 5.

The N. Y. steamship from Southampton, with dates to the 23d inst., has arrived.

It has been determined to hold a Peace Congress for settlement of Italian affairs.

Consuls have advanced to 96⅜@96½.

Since the sailing of the Persia, a large meeting of workmen had been held in Hyde Park, to oppose the Ministerial Reform Bill.

The Neapolitan Exiles had arrived at Bristol, and were received by a gathering of at least 10,000 prsons, who had gathered on the quays in the vicinity of the landing.

The Paris correspondent of the London Press states that the Emperor having been informed of the ultimate resolution of Austria, now desires to recede, by diplomatic help, from his aggressive attitude. Another letter says, that Austria and France appear more inclined towards a solution of Italian affairs. It is certain that the Austrian force in Lombardy, is more imposing than was supposed.

The Vienna correspondent says, there is no danger that it will be diminished for the present.

Telegraphic despatches from Paris, says that the five Powers have agreed to the assembling of a European Congress; but the basis and extent of the discussion are not settled.

Hague, London and Berlin are mentioned as likely places for this Congress.

The Austrian papers caution their readers against too much confidence in the peaceful reports, and express an opinion that it is very doubtful whether the Congress will be convened.

The export of arms, gunpowder and sulphur from Austria to the Italian States is prohibited.

The London Morning Herald says that France intends to protest against the construction of the fortifications at Placenza.

Cardinal Antonell had again requested the immediate vacuation of Rome by the French troops.

The London Daily News says that the last Austrian Circular is reported to have been written by Prince Metternich.

In the British House of Commons, on Monday night, Lord John Russell moved an amendment to the Reform Bill, of which he had given previous notice. The debate was adjourned till Tuesday night.

The London Times City article says that the announcement of the Peace Congress caused an improvement in the funds which would have been greater, but for the fact that the Paris Bourse had not shown any decided recovery of confidence.

India advices, by the Bombay mail of the 25th of February, have been telegraphed to London. The insurgents, under Repelas, had been dispersed by the English, without a blow.

Tantine Lopee was still at large.

LIVERPOOL PRODUCE MARKET.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—According to the present indication, the Sickle's trial will occury at least two weeks.

The following are the names of the witnesses for the United States: Thos. Woodward, Hon. J. B. Hawkins, John Befoe, Hon. H. Walbridge, J. Dillon, Daniel Daugherty, E. Pendleton, Francis Boyl, J. N. Reed, Jos. Dodson, Abel Upshur, Hon. R. Broadhead, Cyrus McCormick, Ambrose Rengsland, E. K. Alberlis, E. W. Canes, E. C. West, B. Hays, J. D. Hoover, D. Coolidge, R. W. Doriner, P. C. R. Vandyke, E. M. Silball, Hon. G. Eustus, John M. Seely, jr. For the defence, the following is the full list: J. Ginnity, A. F. Boreland, T. Langley, Wm. Brentle, C. Allen, Sarah Ann Seeley, J. M. Seeley, Matilda Seeley, John Curlin, G. W. Emerson, Messrs. Stewart and Rubbly, W. McCoffey, Mrs. Macey, Brown, John A. Linton, James Miller, David Wolch, Joseph Edwards, C. B. Winter, Thos. Morrison, Z. M. King, John Grey, S. S. Parker, John Thompson, Wm. Forster, Charles Mason, Chas. William, Wm. McDonald, and J. H. McBlain. So far the above named witnesses are the only ones summoned. The defense have subpoened their witnesses to support the theory of justification. Neither Butterworth nor Wallbridge is among them. It is further stated that the prosecution has summoned Mr. Hoover, of Washington, and Cleveland and others.

Nicaragua Affairs.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.

The correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says, that H. Rumnells, the newly appointed Consul, at San Juan del Sur Nicaragua, left here to-day with dispatches for General Lamar; also dispatches for Commodore McClung of the Home Squadron, and Commodore Long of the Pacific Squadron, who go out in to-morrow's steamer from New York. These dispatches are understood to be, as stated yesterday, of a peremptory character, and will show to the Government of Nicaragua, that the U. S. will no longer submit to their double dealing, and if Gov. Oersley has been weak enough to yield to the influence of Mr. Manning, the British Consul, in Nicaragua, and exceeds his instructions, he will prove himself unfit for the important task he undertook and ought to be immediately recalled by his Government.

Great activity prevails in our Navy yards in getting ready vessels for immediate service. The Lancaster, Hartford, San Jacinto, Constellation, John Adams, Levant, Portsmouth, Mohican, Wyoming, and Narragansett have been ordered to be prepared for sea immediately.

Elections.

CINCINNATI, April 5.

The whole Opposition ticket elected.—Average majority 1000. Council.—Opposition, 10; Democrats, 6.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—Full returns give Filler, Mayor, upwards 2,500 over Boggy, Dem. 4,500 over Wyman, American. Filley's plurality may be increased to 3,000. Republicans elected the whole city ticket, and a large majority of the Council.

CLEVELAND, April 5.—Senior, Republican, is elected Mayor. Entire Republican ticket elected, without doubt, though the vote is not entirely counted.

DETROIT, April 5.—The election, yesterday, for Chief Justice of the Superior Court, passed off quietly, yesterday. Returns from the interior of the State, show considerable Republican gains, and indicate the election of Geo. Martin, Republican candidate, by over 1,000 majority. Republican gain in the city, since last fall, nearly 800.

Brisk snow storm here this morning.

Fugitive Slave Case.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.

The Fugitive Slave case was continued this afternoon. The counsel for defense moved that Commissioner Longstreth hand the case over to another Judge, for the reason, that the Commissioner had prejudged the case and acted advocate for the claimants, it having been shown, in evidence, that the Commissioner pronounced the first power of Attorney as insufficient, and informed them he would be obliged to release the same if arrested under it; and by his advice a new power of Attorney was obtained. Benjamin Brewster, for claimant, argued that it was preeminently the duty of the Commissioner to give this information before he issued the warrant. The Commissioner overruled the motion.

Personal Liberty Bill.

ALBANY, April 5.

The personal Liberty bill was defeated in the House to-day by a vote of 55 yeas to 54 nays.

Connecticut Election.

NEW HAVEN, April 5.

The Republicans elected the four members of Congress and the whole State ticket, and a majority of twenty in both Houses of the Legislature.

OHIO Photographic temple of Art

AND

DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

COR. MAIN AND THIRD STS.,

DAYTON, O.

I HAVE RECENTLY REFITTED THIS well-known Gallery with all the improvements of the Photographic Art, and have made it the most complete and attractive in the city. I have procured the right to use the Solar Camera, the most important improvement in Photography, and am prepared to enlarge to Life Size on Canvass or Paper,

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, or Miniature Portraits,

Of any kind, and have them colored in Oil, Crayon, Water Color, or India Ink, by the very best Artist.

Those having small pictures of deceased friends, can by the above process, secure a correct and durable likeness—one that will be valued at all times.

I have associated with me in the Photographic department Mr. O. D. FINCH, one of the best Artists in the United States; and cordially invite all to call and examine his specimens recently enlarged—they speak for themselves.

☞ All work WARRANTED, or no charges will be made.
