The Sickles Trial.

WASHINGTON, April 14.

It is stated, that the counsel for the prosecution were prepared, in case the confession of Mrs. Sickles was received in evidence, to give in evidence the fact, that in January last, Mr. Sickles and a lady, not his wife, remained during a night at Barnum's Hotel, in Baltimore. The register of the hotel was in court for that purpose. On the register there is first the entry of Mr. Sickles' name in his own hand, and about ten names below, the name of Mrs. Daniel E. Sickles, in a different hand, neither her own nor his. Had Judge Crawford admitted the confession, there would have been an immense lot of scandal developed on both sides.

In Court, George B. Woodbridge was examined. His testimony did not differ from the other testimony for the defence, and went to prove the insanity of Sickles at the time of the affair. He was with Sickles on the afternoon, and says he saw Key passing, looking toward the house and waving his handkerchief. Sickles came into the library where the witness was, and said, "that villain has passed my house." He was very much excited, and attempting to hold him, threw off witness' grasp, and turned into the hall.

Witness was asked whether he had made any communication of an exciting nature to Mr. Sickles at the Capital. Mr. Ould objected, and an excited discussion ensued between him and Mr. Stanton, who accused the Public Prosecutor with being actuated by a thirst for blood. The latter replied warmly, terming one of the counsel "bruizer and bully." Stanton responded, saying that the principle claimed by Ould would lead his client to the foot of the gallows. He had not the honor of Ould's acquaintance, and after his language did not desire to cultivate it.

During the argument Messrs. Stanton and Carlisle had a sharp encounter, and the proceeding of the day was quite spirited.

Pennsylvania Politics.

HARRISBURG, April 14.

The Democratic States' Rights Convention adopted resolutions to the following effect: That we are here to-day to resist every attempt to weaken or overthrow the creed of the Democratic party; to unite for the purpose of restoring in all their vigor and purity, truths that have heretofore made the Democracy the conquering organization which has contributed to the enduring welfare of the Union; that this Convention most solemnly declares its warm attachment to the Union of States, to maintain which it pledges all its powers, and for this end it is our duty to oppose every infraction of those principles which constitute the only basis of that Union, because a faithful observance of them can only secure its existence and the public happiness; that we are bound to regard the Administration as having forfeited the confidence of the people, and to denounce it as unworthy of the support of the Democratic party; that the attempt of the Administration to disregard the covenant of 1856, and in its stead exact a despotic test to compel obedience to doctrines subversive of republican liberty, was the work, not of the Democratic party, but of men who had resolved upon ambitious purposes; that we denounce the principle of executive interference with the franchises of the people of the States; that we repudiate the platform of the Convention of March, and that no matter what the decision of the Supreme Court may be on that abstract question, still the right of the people to make a slave territory or a free territory, is perfect and complete under the Nebraska Bill.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

Cuban News.

BALTIMORE, April 14.

The Ledger's N. Y. Correspondent gives a few facts in regard to Cuban affairs.

1st. On the 28th of March the Barque Giga was cleared from this port for Havana by Lord & Bros., a Spanish house. The vessel was consigned to W. H. Riversmith, and there is every reason to believe, that she had on board one hundred fighting men, and a liberal supply of ammunition.

2d. The day following, the brig Moseatan cleared for Fernandina, Florida, by J. E. Wood & Co. The informant is not specific as to her real character, but intimates enough to justify the suspicion that she is a fillibuster.

3d. The principal partner in the firm of Lord & Co. above alluded to, has retired to Moraye, to the famous fillibuster General Goecesuria, the treasurer of the Cuban Junta. This establishes a direct connection between the Barque Giga and the fillibuster interest here, and goes far to strengthen the suspicions entertained. The Spanish minister is here, sorely disturbed.

The U. S. Marshal is in great tributation and has set a watch on a couple of schooners at anchor off the battery.

Railroad Accident.

MADISON, Ind., April 14.

The engine and baggage car of the train going north on the Jeffersonville Railroad, were precipitated by the breaking of a bridge over a small stream, giving way near Amity this morning. The engineer, Henry Snipps, was instantly killed, and the fireman badly injured.

New U. S. Minister.

NEW ORLEANS, April 14.

Senor Matta was officially informed today, by the Secretary of State, that the President will recognize him on his arrival, at Washington. He will leave here Saturday or Monday.

Railroad Accident.

MEMPHIS, April 14.

A train on the Mississippi Central fell through a trussel work, killing two, and wounding eight. Names not ascertained.

TO HORSEMEN.

A. GALLIFY, Veterinary Surgeon

Cor. St. Clair and Second Streets,

DAYTON, OHIO.

DURING the twenty months since I have opened the stable on Second and St. Clair sts., I have treated in my Horse Infirmary more than 450 horses and cows; of these there were many animals which the majority considered incurable; and yet I have treated them with the very best success.

The public is therefore respectfully requested to favor me with its confidence and patronage in the treatment of Horses and Cattle; and I will spare no pains to deserve the same.

The following testimonials given under their own hands, by my patrons, are sufficient to prove my capability:

DAYTON, OHIO, Oct. 20, 1857.

We, the undersigned, certify that A. Gallify, Veterinary Surgeon, has treated sick horses for us, and that we are not only satisfied with the cures he has effected for us, but we conscientiously recommend him to all our friends and acquaintances as an experienced and skillful Physician in this branch of science.

Sewing Machines.

HUSTON BUILDING,

Corner of Third and Jefferson,

DAYTON, - - - OHIO.

WE offer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines, with important improvements, at a reduction of $25 on former prices, and to meet the demand for a GOOD, low-priced Family Machine, have introduced a NEW STYLE, working upon the same principle, and making the same stitch, though not so highly finished, at

FIFTY DOLLARS!

The elegance, speed, noiselessness and simplicity of the Machine, the beauty and strength of stitch, being ALIKE ON BOTH SIDES, impossible to ravel, and having no chain or ridge on the under side, the economy of thread, and adaptability to the thinnest or thinnest fabrics, has rendered this the most successful and popular Sewing Machine now made.

At our various offices, we sell at New York prices, and give instructions free of charge, to enable purchasers to sew ordinary seams, hem, fell, quilt, gather, bind and tuck, all on the same Machine, and warrant it for three years.
