CHOICE EXTRACTS BY A DAYTON CONTEMPORARY.—Hear him?

INTEMPERANCE.—Its march is onward. It invades the family and social circles, and spreads woe and sorrow all around. It cuts down youth in its vigor, manhood in its strength, and age in its weakness. It breaks father's heart, bereaves the doating mother, extinguishes natural affection, erases conjugal love, blots out filial attachment, blights parental hope, and brings down mourning age in sorrow to the grave. It produces weakness, not strength—sickness, not health—death not life. It makes wives widows, children orphans, fathers fiends, and all of them paupers and beggars. It hails fevers, feeds rheumatisms, nurses gout, welcomes epidemics, invites cholera, imparts pestilences, and embraces consumption. It covers the land with idleness, poverty, disease, and crime.

This is a true and sad picture of some of the evils of intemperance, but why he should, in the next article, advocate drinking this warm weather, is most inexplicable to us.—This blowing hot and cold in the same breath may however suit his readers.

Hear him again:

Happy that cool, radiably German who stands behind the counter, in a little galaxy of paint colored decanters, and mixes the acetal lemonade, the soothing and beneficent cobbler, the odorous, life-giving julep, with its garland of leaves, crowning depths of joy, and its crystal spire of slender tube—Happiness to hear all day the murmur of pleasant liquids, the gush of the drink dashed from glass to glass, and the faint, bell-like clinking of the ice-particles against the tumbler-sides!

The wheat harvest in Maryland, we learn from the Baltimore Sun, which gives much attention to facts about the crops, is on hand this week, and the grain is good in quality, and a full average in quantity.

MAPLE SUGAR IN VERMONT.—The Vermont papers state that the banner belongs to Hardwick for making the most maple sugar this season. That town made 230,000 pounds. Orleans county boasts of fifteen farmers that have made 15,000 pounds.—Hardwick has twenty-five farmers that have made 75,000 pounds, and two farmers in the same town have made 14,000 pounds.

Never Attempt to get out of Debt.

The man who owes nobody is a poor, miserable being; nobody manifests any interest in his welfare—nobody cares a continental cent whether he lives or dies. He is lean, hungry, and generally as poor and wilted as were the pin-feathers on Job's turkey—Look at our great men; they are all debtors—owe everybody; our men of science, our authors, our sensation ministers—all, the entire cabout of them, are deeper in debt than Pharaoh's army were in the Red Sea. Debt ennobles a man; gives him a more expanded and liberal view of human nature; keeps him moving—especially if he never pays rent. Nothing will cure the consumption quicker than a strong dose of debt, properly taken. To owe, is human; to pay is divine. Therefore, till man becomes superhuman, he shouldn't attempt to emulate divinity. The science of payment, the untrue modern science, is to get in debt to somebody enough to pay somebody else whom you owe. By this means, you avoid getting out of debt, and yet maintain a reputation of paying. The greatness of a nation increases with its national debt. Make a note of this at ninety days.—[Quiz.

CINCINNATI, June 19, 1858.

This is to certify that we have employed Messrs. J. Beckley and Co. to put their Cement Roof on our foundry at the west end of Eighth street, and thus far it has given entire satisfaction, having been fully tested by severe rains, etc. The burning of a large frame warehouse joining, scorching our wood work and destroying our glass, produced no effect on our roof.

THE SIMPLE ANNOUCEMENT THAT we have a Machine in every way equal to the

THE DEMAND

Having already EXCEEDED THE SUPPLY, and being now PREPARED TO MEET ANY DEMAND, and to FILL ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY, we feel it our duty, to the class of people who have been neither WILLING nor ABLE to pay such

CINCINNATI INSTITUTE,
FOR
Diseases of the Lungs and Throat,
No. 901 Vine st., between 5th and 6th.

PERSONS HAVING ANY AFFECTIONS of the Lungs or Throat are invited to call at DR. WOLFE'S CINCINNATI INSTITUTE, where this class of maladies is treated exclusively on the most improved method of medicating air for inhalation in a section with constitutional treatment.

Those who cannot visit the Institute, but are desirous of employing Medicated Inhalation at home, will have a circular sent to them containing a full description of Medicated Inhalation and a list of questions respecting disease in the chest, which, by answering correctly, will enable me in many instances to form a proper opinion of the case, and prescribe and forward for express or otherwise (as ordered) the proper medicines and Inhaler, (see the engraving above,) with full directions, to be used at home. In this way, I have treated patients with entire success, after their home physicians had pronounced them hopelessly incurable.

For the circular enclose a postage stamp, and address,

DR. N. R. WOLFE,
Box 2210, Cincinnati, Ohio.

NOTE.—Dr. WOLFE has just published a work on Consumption, on its treatment by Medicated Inhalation, which he recommends to the attentive perusal of every person who suspects disease lurking in their vitals. It will be sent, FREE OF POSTAGE, to persons to any part of the country or adjoining states, at 25 cents per copy. The trade supplied at a liberal discount. Address as above. my28-3mdaw

OREGON
Against "Ye Ancient" DAYTON!

PHILOSOPHERS pronounce the proposition irrational that, an "irresistable body can ever come in contact with an immovable one." Be that as it may, one thing is certain, and beyond successful contradiction, that the BEST and CHEAPEST GOODS ever offered to the people of Dayton, are to be found at No. 214, COR. FIFTH AND LUDLAY STREETS, where
