THE FOURTH.—Next Monday Germantown will be visited by a number of strangers, and we have no doubt that ample preparations will be made by our citizens to entertain them. All the hotels in the place are making extensive preparations to furnish a dinner worthy of the occasion. We believe that none will be compelled to go away disappointed; and therefore, on behalf of our citizens we most cordially invite the public from our neighboring towns to share our hospitalities on that day.—[Independent.

SHORT DRESSES.—Some of the fashion-mongers announce that tight sleeves and short dresses will hereafter be worn by ladies who desire to be admitted into the best society. We are decidedly in favor of the change. We know of no greater abomination than to see elegant dresses dragging in the mud and mire of our dirty streets, and, though in the parlor long dresses add something to the fine appearance and carriage of a well dressed lady, in the street they are made ontlyand ocean disgusting, by their redundancy and excess.—Ex.

THE ATLANTIC SHIP.—The editor of the Troy Budget has taken a ride on the Hudson river in the life-boat of our, which has been built to accompany the monster balloon of Mr. Lamountain in its first trip across the Atlantic. He says it moves through the water at the rate of from six to eight miles an hour by the same machinery acting on the air that propels it when aloft. It is a model of beauty, and when beheld with its wings (the fins) beating above the water, looks "like a thing of life," a monster bird, wounded and fluttering in efforts to raise to its native element, the etherial regions.

☞ A young scholar has recently discovered in Madrid, the MS. of a letter written by the Spanish Ambassador in Paris on the very day preceding the massacre of St. Bartholomew, of a letter written by Philip II. to Charles IX to congratulate him on the successful perpetration of that massacre, of Perseus' narrative of the battle of Pavia, a letter on the death of Henry IV written by a Madrid Jesuit by a desuit in Paris, of various letters of Charles V. and Francis I., &c.

AND SO, the reputation it has acquired in every place where it has been introduced, has heretofore rendered it unnecessary (with the limited means we have had for supplying ourselves with Machines,) to advertise to any great extent.

THE DEMAND

Having already EXCEEDED THE SUPPLY, and being now PREPARED TO MEET ANY DEMAND, and to FILL ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY, we feel it our duty, to the class of people who have been neither WILLING nor ABLE to pay such

HIGH PRICES

As have been demanded by other machines, to use all the means in his power to let the Public know that they can get as good a

Sewing Machine

As there is in the market, at a reasonable price. Our Machine was given the MOST FAVORABLE NOTICE in the report of the Fair at the Franklin Institute at Philadelphia, and PLACED AT THE HEAD of the list in point of merit, and has received

THE FIRST PREMIUM

Over all others, at the State Fairs of Illinois and Wisconsin, and ALL OTHER FAIRS at which it has been exhibited. It is

SURPASSED BY NONE

In beauty, simplicity, durability, quantity and quality of work, and is, in a word, THE Machine for the People.

We depend on QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS, and have therefore placed it at

THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE.

Those who cannot visit the Institute, but are desirous of employing Medicated Inhalation at home, will have a circular sent to them containing a full description of Medicated Inhalation and a list of questions respecting disease in the chest, which, by answering correctly, will enable me in many instances to form a proper opinion of the case, and prescribe and forward by express or otherwise (as ordered) the proper medicines and inhaler, (see the engraving above,) with full directions, to be used at home. In this way, I have treated patients with entire success, after their home physicians had pronounced them hopelessly incurable.
