Four Days Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE HUNGARIAN.

FARTHER POINT, (below Quebec,) July 8.

The steamship Hungarian, from Liverpool, has made the trip to this point in about nine days.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

There have been no movements reported by the Allies since the battle of the 24th.—The details of the action have not yet been received.

Austrian and Sardinian accounts report extraordinary losses in killed and wounded.

The dispatches from the Emperor Napoleon report the capture of 6,000 prisoners, three flags, and thirty cannon.

The Austrian troops have re-crossed the Mincio.

Gen. Hess has been appointed commander in chief of the Austrian forces.

LONDON, June 29.—The latest dispatches from the seat of war report, that the French troops have crossed the River Mincio.

LIVERPOOL, June 28.—Breadstuffs have a declining tendency. Provisions are also dull.

LONDON, June 28.—Consols are quoted at 92¾@92⅞.

A dispatch from the Emperor to the Empress, dated the 25th, says that the enemy retired last night, that he slept in a room occupied in the morning by the Emperor of Austria.

Gen. Neil has been appointed Marshal of France.

The Austrian troops crossed the Mincio for the purpose of attacking the French with their whole force, but were obliged to abandon their position, and withdraw to the left bank of the river after blowing up the bridges at Garla.

The Emperor also says, we took 30 cannon and 7,000 prisoners.

A private dispatch says the Austrians had 35,000 placed hors de combat, and lost 16 flags and 75 cannon.

There has been no circumstantial account published at Paris. Private dispatches intimate that the French army has suffered so severely as to be unable to resume the offensive. Vague rumors put the French loss in killed and wounded at 12,000

The battle was fought at Salferino.

The Austrians were preparing for another great battle, under Gen. Hess, who has already displaced Gen. Schilick as Commander in Chief.

The Emperor Napoleon issued a stirring address to the army after the battle of Salferiad.

The Austrian dispatches acknowledged that they were obliged to retreat after suffering extraordinary losses. The Emperor Napoleon was constantly in the hottest of the battle, and Gen. Lorrey, who accompanied him, had his horse killed under him.—Gen. Neil's corps d'arme covered themselves with glory.

The Sardinians fought with great fary, against superior numbers.

The Emperor of Austria is to return to Vienna, on important business.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says, that another battle is expected, and is considered as inevitable before the siege operations can commence.

Messrs. Richardson & Spence's circular report the Breadstuff market very dull, and prices have a declining tendency. Flour was declining.

LONDON.—Large reinforcements are constantly leaving France. The attack on Venice was expected to commence on the 28th.

175,000 troops, from the Austrian Reserve, were on their way to Italy. They are called the flower of the Austrian army, every man having served upwards of eight years.

Five French Generals were wounded at the battle of Salferiad.

Prussia made a proposal to the Federal Diet to place an army of observation on the Rhine, under the superior orders of Vazaria. The proposal was referred to the military committee. It was reported that the Emperor of Austria would soon have an interview with the Prince Regent of Prussia.

The English news is not important. The Atlantic Telegraph Company have issued proposals for subscriptions to the new Capital of £600,000.

It is rumored that an English fleet of twenty-five sail was arriving off Venice.—The Gazette de France says, that preparations are making to raise, within two months, an army of 450,000 men.

Great naval preparations are going on at Cherbourg.

A dispatch received at Paris, from Cariani, on the 29th ult., says, that the French troops passed the Mincio without interruption the enemy having withdrawn therefrom.

The following telegram, with what has been received, contains all that is known in regard to the great battle of the 24th ult:

The loss of the enemy is very considerable, while ours is much less. We have taken 30 cannon, more than 7000 prisoners, and 3 flags The Sardinian army inflicted great loss on the enemy, and after having contended with great fury against superior forces.

The following is the order of the day published by the Emperor Napoleon, after the battle:

CARRIANA, June 25.

Soldiers: The enemy who believed themselves able to repulse us from the Chieze, have recrossed the Mincio. You have worthily defended the honor of France. Salferino surpassed the recollection of Sonola and Castiglione. In 12 hours you have repulsed the efforts of 150,000 men. Your enthusiasm did not rest there; the numerous artillery of the enemy occupied formidable positions for over 3 leagues, which you carried. Your country thanks you for your courage, and perseverance.

The Sardinian army fought with the same valor against superior forces, and worthy is that army to march beside you—Blood has not been shed in vain, but for the glory of France, and the happiness of the people.

THE AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF THE BATTLE.

VIENNA, June 25.

Day before yesterday, our right wing occupied Pozzolengs, Salferino, and Carianna, and the left wing pressed forward as far as Gudizzalo, and Cascioffiendo, but were driven back by the enemy. A collision took place between the two entire armies at 10, a. m., yesterday.

Our left, under Gen. Wimpen, advanced as far as Chieze. In the afternoon there was a concentrated assault on the heroically defended town of Sanferino. Our right wing repulsed the Piedmontese, but on the other hand, the order of our centre could not be restored, and our losses are extraordinarily heavy. The development of powerful masses of the enemy against our left wing, and the advance of his main body against Volta, caused our retreat, which began late in the evening.

VIENNA, June 25.

The Austrian correspondence contains the following: Day before yesterday the Austrian army crossed the Mincio at four points, and yesterday came upon the superior force of the enemy, in the Chieze. After an obstinate combat of twelve hours, our army withdrew across the Mincio. Our headquarters are now at Villa France.

The London Times says, the Austrians have most candidly admitted their defeat. Said, that his official report is no bulletin, in which such a disaster, is more explicitly avowed.

The Moniteur says, that the battle will take the name of the battle of Sanferino.

An official Austrian correspondence of the 27th, contains the following: the Emperor of Austria will soon return to Vienna, on account of important business. The Commander-in-Chief of the army which is preparing for battle will be given to Gen. Hess.

Forty thousand men were embarking in Alsera, for Adriatic, and at Parish, news was expected of the occupation of Venice, by the French.

A dispatch from Berne, says that 3,000 Piedmontese, with 700 volunteers had arrived at Tirano, and advanced towards Bormio.

Patriotic demonstrations by the working classes of Paris were universal. Some reinforcements for the French army, were constantly leaving France for Italy.

A dispatch from Vienna says, the attack of the French on Venice, and Tagliamento, about forty-five miles north-east of Venice, was expected to take place on the 24th ult.

Drowned.

NEW YORK, July 8.

It is reported, that the Rev. Dr. Nott has been drowned in the Raritan river.

CORRECTION.—The person drowned in the Raritan River was a kinsman, Mr. Knott, Pastor of the Broome street Baptist Church of this city.

Railroad Accident.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 8.

Two passenger cars, on the N. Y. Central Railroad, ran off the track, near Oneida, yesterday, injuring five or six persons. There were none killed, but Mr. Schedell, one of the Directors of the road, was badly hurt.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, July 8.

At the auction sale this morning, Coffee was held above the views of buyers. Sugars are firm, and active, and the refined qualities are held at prices ⅛ higher than yesterdays quotations.

Political.

NEW YORK, July 8.

The Tammany General Committee, last evening, adopted a resolution expressing their disapprobation of the reported attempts to induce the U. S. Government to contract with private parties for the reception, storage, and delivery of goods sent to the public store, thereby throwing many persons employed for the purpose, out of employment.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions condemning the spirit of the letter of Gen. Cass, with regard to the rights of naturalized citizens abroad. The committee will report next Tuesday evening.

The Wood General Committee met and resolved to run an Independent Ticket.

FORSMAN'S Portable grinding & bolting FLOUR MILLS.

HAVING MADE AN ARRANGEMENT with the Patentee, we are now prepared to furnish to order the above Mills, of any size, burrs and bolts. The Mill is simple in its construction, having very little machinery occupying but little space, and warranted to do more work with the same amount of power, and make as good a quality of flour, as any Mill now manufactured. Proprietors of Saw Mills, especially those that use steam, would find it to their advantage to purchase one of these Mills, for the purpose of doing custom grinding—either wheat, corn or other grain. The Mill will be sold with or without the bolt. The principle of the Mill is equally applicable to the construction of large Merchant Mills, and persons about to build, would do well to call and examine.

We will also furnish with the Mills, Bolting Reels of any size and length, Smut Machines, Wheat Cleaners, Flour Packers, etc.

Orders respectfully solicited.

WHEELER & WILSON,

Sewing Machines.

HUSTON BUILDING,

Corner of Third and Jefferson,

DAYTON, - - - OHIO.

WE offer the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines, with important improvements, at a reduction of $25 on former prices, and to meet the demand for a GOOD, low-priced Family Machine, have introduced a NEW STYLE, working upon the same principle, and making the same stitch, though not so highly finished, at

FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS!

The elegance, speed, noiselessness and simplicity of the Machine, the beauty and strength of stitch, being ALIKE ON BOTH SIDES, impossible to ravel, and leaving no chain or ridge on the under side, the economy of thread, and adaptability to the thickest or thinnest fabrics, has rendered this the most successful and popular Sewing Machine now made.

At our various offices, we sell at New York prices, and give instructions free of charge, to enable purchasers to sew ordinary seams, hem, fell, quilt, gather, bind and tuck, all on the same Machine, and warrant it for three years.
