DAILY EMPIRE.

Fred Douglass afraid of being "Bagged."

The black rascal in a letter coolly appropriates to himself a good deal of old Brown's glory, excepting the bravery of it; and then makes off for England, where he can be received by the Earl of Carlisle and the Duchess of Sutherland. It seems that the United States officers have made him "scarce" about his former haunts. In reference to his future plans, Douglass remarks as follows:

"I have no apology for keeping out of the way of those gentlemanly United States Marshals, who are said to have paid Rochester a somewhat protracted visit lately, with a view to an interview with me. A Government recognizing the validity of the Dred Scott decision, at such a time as this is not likely to have any charitable feelings towards me, and if I am to meet its representatives, I prefer to do so, at least, upon equal terms. If I have committed any offence against society, I have done so on the soil of the State of New York, and I should be perfectly willing there to be arraigned before an impartial jury, but I have quite insuperable objections to be caught by the hands of Mr. Buchanan, and 'bagged' by Gov. Wise. For this appears to be the arrangement—Buchanan is the fighting and hunting, and Wise 'bags' the game."

☞ What has become of the 'flag of universal freedom,' under which Mr. Bingham fought in 1848? Did he send it to old John Brown, to be hoisted on the rock capped battlements of Harper's Ferry?—[Ind. Atlas.

The foregoing can best be answered by a letter found in the carpet bag of old John Brown, of which the following is a copy:

HARPER'S FERRY, Oct. 1859.

J. D. D.—Your letter was duly received. I will use my best endeavors to secure you the votes of the Western Reserve members of Congress and all other ultra members.—Pull the wool over the eyes of the South Americans, and all will be O. K. The poor white emigrants to the North from the Slave States, I have always found to be the most intense Abolitionists, and for that reason I have confidence in you. Besides your active labors in 1856 for "Fremont and freedom," as Chairman of the State Central Committee and your sympathy for old Ossawatomie in his war upon the Missourians, entitle you to my gratitude. The "flag of universal freedom" you sent me, I will unfurl "on the rock capped battlements of Harper's Ferry," and at that period I know you will be there in sympathy, if not in body.

Yours, in freedom's cause,

JOHN SMITH.

*J. D. D. is the last man to put his body in that much danger. If he should happen to be caught on such a field, the "flag of universal freedom" would be found around his person to prevent the soiling of his pants in the "seat of honor."—Sentinel.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her

Soothing Syrup!

For Children Teething,

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS,

Depend upon it, Mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and,

RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS

We have put up and ten years, and can say, in truth of it, what we say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when used according to directions, and we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE KNOW," after ten years' experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. This is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS IN THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, and WIND COLIC, which, if not speedily relieved, ends in death. We believe it the best remedy in the world, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New-York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
