Linimentum.

WORTHY of the NINETEENTH CENTURY.
DR. E. CONWAY'S
LINIMENTUM
For the speedy and effectual cure of RHEUMATISM
IN presenting the "Linimentum" to the public at this day, I do not wish to be understood as claiming for it the power of performing unheard of cures, but I do claim that for all the purposes of a FAMILY LINIMENT, it has no equal. The "Linimentum" has;
Never been Known to Fail.
In any case of Rheumatism, no matter of how long standing, where the directions were carefully followed, nor, indeed, in the case of any disease for which it is recommended.
In cases of neuralgia, pains in the back, side, and chest, cramps in the stomach, sprains, spinal irritation and weakness, chronic sores, burns, scalds, frosted feet and hands, toothache, headache, &c., it is as the charm.
The "Linimentum" is the result of many years persevering experiment, and combines among its rare excellencies the paramount virtues of
AN EXTRAORDINARY PENETRATIVE POWER,
Which no other Liniment possesses, and which is the secret of its unparalleled success which meets the "Linimentum" wherever it is used.
TRY IT ONCE, AND YOU WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT.
It is put up in 25 cent, 50 cent, and $1 bottles, with full directions for use, and manufactured only by

DR. ROBACK'S
STOMACH
BITTERS
ARE NOT TO BE EXCELLED
AS A
STOMACHIC
AND Regulator
OF THE DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

These Bitters are not offered to the public as a medicine which will cure all the "ills which flesh is heir to," but as a remedial agent—a great regulator of the system.

In the Bilious districts of the West and South there has, for a long time, been much needed an article of Stomach Bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities, and at the proper time, are a sure preventive of

Bilious Fever,
Fever and Ague,
Liver Complaint,
Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Jaundice,
Kidney Complaints,

and all diseases of a similar nature.

These Bitters are composed of rare and powerful roots and herbs, which make them Highly Tonic.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters are the poor man's friend.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters save the poor man many Doctor's Bills.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters are the rich man's Solace and Comfort.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters invigorate the weak and debilitated.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters drive away melancholy and make Life enjoyable.

Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters are the Soldier's Friend, by preventing Diarrhea, Dysentery, Rheumatism, etc.

These Bitters are put up in quart bottles, of which the above is a fac-simile. The label is finely engraved, and is provided with a safe-guard from counterfeiters. Price $1 per bottle, or six for $5.

C. W. Roback, Proprietor, No. 6 East Fourth Street, Cincinnati, to whom all orders should be addressed.

Last Night's Dispatches.

Grant Again Heard From—10,000 Prisoners Captured.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, May 25, 9 P. M.—To General Dix: The latest date from General Grant's Headquarters, received by this Department, is dated at Mount Carmel Church one P. M., yesterday. The dispatch says every thing is going well. Warren has 4,00 prisoners, Hancock some 3,00, and Wright has picked up some 2,00. The whole number resulting from yesterday's operations will not fall short of 1,000. Warren's loss is not over 300 in killed and wounded. The prisoners captured, who are in great part North Carolinians, are much discouraged and say that Lee has deceived them. The pursuit is delayed by the great fatigue of the men, still Hancock and Warren will reach South Anna by night fall.

General Butler, in a dispatch dated at headquarters, 7 o'clock this morning, reports that Major General Fitzhugh Lee, lately promoted, made, with cavalry, infantry and artillery, an attack upon my position at Wilson's Wharf, on the north side of James river below Fort Powers, garrisoned by two regiments, all negro troops, Brigadier General Wild commanding, and was handsomely repulsed. Before the attack General Lee sent a flag of truce stating that he had force enough to take the place, and demanded its surrender, and in case the garrison surrendered they should be turned over to the authorities at Richmond as prisoners of war, but if this proposition was rejected he would not be answerable for the consequences when he took the place. General Wild replied, "We will try that." Reinforcements were at once sent, but the fight was over before they arrived. Our loss is not yet reported. No other reports of military operations have been received by the Department since my telegrams of 9.40 last evening.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

☞ The Washington Star tells us about a soldier who in dodging away from a patrol, hid himself in a restaurant by jumping into a large box used for steaming oysters. The lid closed with a spring lock, and the disappointed patrol went on his way baffled. In a little while the colored man attending the apparatus turned on a full head of steam in order to prepare a mess for some customers. The soldier began to grow uncomfortably warm and kicked and yelled lustily for liberation until the frightened negro ran away shouting that "de debbil was in de steamer." Other employees gathered around hearing the noise, and released the perspiring soldier, who bounded off with the speed of a machine whose motive power is steam.

Andrews, the leader of the draft riot, has been tried in New York, found guilty, and sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the New York Penitentiary.

There is a report to the Philadelphia Enquirer that Jeff Davis and Cabinet has left Richmond.

Grant to be in Richmond before the 14th of June, when Congress will adjourn.

It is claimed that the Confederates have ordered out all the boys of fifteen years of age as a part of the garrison at Richmond.

No dispatches are expected from Sherman for several days. So says Secretary Stanton.
