Linimentum.

WORTHY of the NINETEENTH CENTURY.
DR. S. CONWAY'S
LINIMENTUM
For the speedy and effectual cure of RHEUMATISM
In presenting the "Linimentum" to the public as one of the best and most curative compounds of the day, I do not wish to be understood as claiming for it the power of performing unheard of cures, but I do claim that for all the purposes of a FAMILY LINIMENT, it has no equal. The "Linimentum" has Never been Known to Fail
in any case of Rheumatism, no matter of how long standing, where the directions were carefully followed, nor, indeed, in the case of any disease for which it is recommended.
In cases of sciatica, pains in the back, side, and chest, cramps in the stomach, sprains, spinal complaints and weakness, chronic sores, burns, scalds, frosted feet and hands, toothache, headache, &c., it is the salvum.
The "Linimentum" is the result of many years persevering experiment, and combines amongst its rare excellencies the paramount virtues of
AN EXTRAORDINARY PENETRATIVE POWER,
Which no other Liniment possesses, and which is the secret of the unparalleled success which meets the "Linimentum" wherever it is used.
TRY IT ONCE, AND YOU WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT.
It is put up in 25 cent, 50 cent, and $1 bottles, with full directions for use, and manufactured only by

Last Night's Dispatches.

Official Bulletin—From Sherman.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, June 3, 10 P. M.—To Major-Gen. Dix: A dispatch dated yesterday, at 7.30 P. M., has this evening been received from Sherman. He reports that on Wednesday, June 1st, McPherson moved up from Dallas to a point in front of the enemy at New Hope Church. On Thursday, June 2d, Schofield and Hooker having been shifted to the extreme left, pushed forward toward Marietta, at the same time Stoneman's and Garrard's cavalry were sent to Altoona Pass, which they reached and held possession of. These movements the dispatch says, have secured the pass which was considered a formidable one. Movements are reported by the dispatch as in progress, which are not proper for publication.

Nothing has been heard from Grant since his dispatch, dated at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Telegraphic communications has been delayed by a violent storm on the Peninsula, yesterday evening and last night, and cannot be re-established before sometime to-morrow.

Gen. Birney Whip the Rebels.

WASHINGTON, June 3d.—A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac, dated 5 o'clock, P. M. Tuesday, says, General Birney's division advanced against a breast work held by Breckinridge's corps on the south side of the Totopotomoy creek on a high eminence,—a very strong position, and one which might have been easily held against vastly superior forces.

The enemy, after firing a round or two, and seeing a determination to take the place, evacuated and retreated to the woods. Our loss is about 252. We took about fifty prisoners, mostly belonging to Breckinridge's command, some of whom said they were in the valley to fight with Gen. Sigel, but did not have to fight as stubbornly as they did here.

The attempt made to turn our left last night and cut us off from our new base of supplies was defeated with considerable loss on both sides.

WASHINGTON, May 3,—A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac, dated Tuesday night says the day before the 5th Corps advanced from Hawes's Store toward Bethesda Church, and drove the enemy about two miles.

At sunset while our men were engaged in digging rifle pits, Rhodes' and Early's divisions made an attack on Warren's right flank, causing him to fall back from the first line. The enemy then advanced and charged, the second line. Kitchin's brigade of heavy artillery was posted there, and opened a heavy fire, in conjunction with Burton on both flanks which nearly demolished the rebel columns of attack. The enemy fell back in terrible disorder, and left their dead and wounded behind them.

THE PRESIDENT SIGNS THE NATIONAL BANK BILL.

The National Bank Bill has been signed by the President.

Delegates to the Baltimore Convention are arriving here in considerable numbers.

It is well known to the Navy Department that the rebels have ironclads, torpedoes rafts and other infernal machines which they intend to send down the James river, against our Gunboats, but our naval officers are well prepared for them, and there is no fear of the result.

A Battle in Progress.

WASHINGTON, June 3d.—The steamer Key Port, arrived this P. M., having left the White House at noon, yesterday. Parties who came up on her, state that heavy cannonading was heard there when they left, indicating that an engagement was in progress.

A cavalryman who came in from the front to the White House reported that the Sixth Corps was engaged, having brought on by a rapid and sudden movement from the left to the right. Several regiments of negro troops, doubtless a portion of Butler's forces, were being landed at the White House when the Keyport left.

GENERAL OGLESBY, the republican candidate for Governor said, in speaking of Mr. Lincoln, at the State convention on Thursday, "I cannot help loving that godlike man." If there are any persons in the State who are unacquainted with General Oglesby, this declaration will serve as a complete introduction and revelation of character and capacity.—To call a retailer of stale anecdotes, a humble rigger and "smutty joker," with an attenuated shambling, disjointed, disproportioned mind and body, "godlike," is an attempt to ridicule Daby and a burlesque upon common sense. It strikes a combination of impudence, demagoguism and fanaticism that Governor Yates even cannot parallel.

When will Richmond Be Taken.

In answer to many enquiries as to when Richmond will be taken, we state that it will be taken on or about the time the Baltimore Convention convenes. News of this kind will be necessary to strengthen the backbone of those delegates who may feel disposed to kick against the nomination of Lincoln.

☞ Here is a specimen brick in the line of confidence games: A woman in Cincinnati having an earthen vessel in her apron, entered a grocery store and bought a pound of coffee. Removing the lid, and was about to pay for it, when she discovered she had forgotten to bring her money. Not to have her honesty suspected, she said she would "never purchase" till she went home and got her money. She accordingly set her crockery up the counter, where it remained until the grocer bought something must be wrong, and in removing the lid he found there was no bottom to the vessel, and of course the woman had gone off with the coffee in her apron.
