CITY OF LANCASTER.

Thursday Morning, July 5, 1855

☞ Of this fine Poem, which we copy from the Genius of the West, George D. Prentice says: "It is worthy of any Poet in America."

The Wine of Parnassus.

BY HETTA V. FULLER.

The wine of Parnassus is mingled with fire;
It is drunken with pleasure and pain:
Who quaffs of it once must forever desire
Its ethereal fumes in his brain.

It is deep as with a sadness immortally deep,
Clasping down in the breaker doth swim;
While the silvery bubbles of joy overleap,
Or in splendor subside on the brim.

And the grapes, ah! the grapes that were torn from the breast
Of the clinging and passionate vine—
The life from their hearts in its richness was pressed
To secure this ambrosia divine.

'Tis full of delight as the grapes were of juice,
Like their amethyst bloom is its hue;
It has drank from the sunlight its glory profuse,
It has drank from the roses their dew.

And yet it has stolen all the bloom of the eight,
And of Diana's sad eyes, o'er the hill
As they beam in their beauty forlornly yet bright
And the mists in the valley grow chill.

In goblets of Juno's white lilies so sweet
It is served by the Gods to the few
Who can drink the top sparkle most bright and most
And still drink till the dregs are in view. [fleet;

The ethereal bliss flowing fast through each vein,
The aromas of earth yielded up,
But the fire rolling fast to the agonized brain
By Promotheus was mixed in the cup.

Who can bear the sweet anguish of Heaven's pure fire?
Who will drug his own soul with despair?—
The roses whose odors wake endless desire,
The poppies of dreams, who can bear?

If he seeks but the bliss that perfumeth the top,
If he seeks but its sweetness divine,
Let him leave it, for anguish and joy drop by drop,
Are expressed in this exquisite wine.

The lip that have thrilled at the goblet flow fast
With a madness they cannot forbear;
The Gods what they will of the future and past
Through these oracles boldly declare.

The chill of the caves where it cooled, and the glow
Of the hills where it grew, mingle up—
Who can bear, like a God, both its raptures and wo,
He shall quaff from the mystical cup.

Giants are seldom overlooked.

It takes a lifetime to learn how to live.

Nothing but a good life can fit men for a better one.

We learn a little of God's ways, but very little of his purposes.

Incessant activity, of what kind soever, leads at last to bankruptcy of health.

The greatest hero is not he who subdues nations, but he who conquers himself.

The thoughtless and impatient shut their eyes to danger, rather than labor to avert it.

We start in life with a great stock of wisdom, but it grows less and less the further we go.

A generous mind does not feel as be longing to itself alone, but to the whole human race.

The victor in an argument can afford to dispense with "the last word."

The fame which follows true greatness no friend need hold up, and no enemy can keep down.

The world has no time to read books of promise, and very little to read those of performance.

It is one of the worst of errors, to suppose that there is another path of safety, besides that of duty.

The only praise that ought to be relied on, comes from competent judges without temptation to flatter.

Writers often multiply words, in the vain attempt to make clear to others what is not clear to themselves.

If a truth be established, objections are nothing. The one is founded on our knowledge, the other in our ignorance.

Every sorrow we meet is a billow on this world's troublesome sea, which we must cross to bear us nearer home.

If you would be pungent, be brief; for it is with words as with sunbeams the more they are condensed, the deeper they burn.

A quiet exposition of truth has better effect than a violent attack on error.—Truth eradicates errors as grass extirpates weeds, by working its way into their place, and leaving them no room to grow.

Blessings which we have slighted when in our possession, are more highly prized when there is danger of our being deprived of them; and our hearts are more keenly touched by the anticipations of loss than by fullness of enjoyment.

Unpopular personages.—A fat man in an omnibus; a tall man in a crowd; a short man on parade.

Timid people.—A lover about to pop the question; a man who does not like to be shot at; and a steamboat passenger with a cholera case on board.

Stupid folks.—The man who cannot see any fun in jokes; the editor who respectfully declines your communications; and the old folks that will not leave you alone with your lady-love.

Kind folks.—The man who makes you presents you do not want; the friend who gives you so muck good advice; the lady who insists that you have not made a good dinner; the old gentleman who is starving himself to lay up money for you; the shopkeeper who abates the price of an article just because it is for you; and the mother who lets her children do as they please.

Genteel people.—The young lady who let her mother do the ironing for fear of spreading her hands; the Miss who wears thin shoes on a rainy day; the young gentleman who is ashamed to be seen walking with his father.

Persecuted people.—Woman, by that tyrant man; boys, by their parents; and teachers and all poor people by society at large.

Sensible people.—You and I.

'Why have you volunteered?' said rather a careworn looking, newly-enrolled volunteer to a fine-looking young country soldier.

'Why, I have volunteered because I have no wife, and go for war,' was the unequivocal reply; 'and now, why have you volunteered?'

'Ah!' said the careworn little man—for he was little—with a significant sigh, 'I have volunteered because I have a wife, and go in for peace!'

☞ Land warrants are selling in Washington at $1,10 per acre.

The Village Blacksmith.

Under a spreading chestnut tree
The village smithy stands;
The smith, a mighty man is he,
With large and sinewy hands;
And the muscles of his brawny arms
Are strong as iron bands.

His hair is crisp, and black and long,
His face is like the tan;
His brow is wet with honest sweat,
He earns whatever he can,
And look the world in the face,
For he owes not any man. Longfellow.

☞ Brown runs over to Jones', raps at the door, and is admitted:—'Good morning Mr. Jones,—do you believe in fore ordination?'

'Certainly I do. I believe whatever happends, was to have happened—that every circumstance or event that occurs, however trivial it may be, was so ordered by divine Providence. And it's no use Mr. Brown, for you to attempt to argue me out of that notion.'

'No,' but I just thought I'd drop in, and let you know that divine Providence has broken that axe all to pieces that I borrowed of you, so you'd know who to look to for your pay. Good day, Mr. Jones.'

☞ The Chicago Tribune says:—'We saw yesterday two deeds, both the result of bona fide transaction, both conveying the same piece of unimproved' property: in one the consideration was 'seven hundred, and in the other nine thousand five hundred' dollars. So much for real estate profits in Chicago for the short space of 'three years,' which was the difference in the dates of these instruments.'

A Bold Enterprise.—A scheme is in agitation in London, for the formation of a road through London, eight miles long, roofed in with glass, with houses and shops on each side, and beyond these, also on each side; two lines of rails, one above the other, the lower for trains stopping at every mile, the upper for expresses.

Too Bad.—A virgin of twenty three was lately throwing out affected sneers at matrimony, when a grave friend in the company made the remark, "marriages were made in Heaven?" "Can you tell me, my dear sir," rejoined the cunning nymph, "why they are so slow in coming down?"—Buffalo Repub.

The Cholera at New Orleans has been producing quite a heavy mortality. On the 24th ult. there were 40 deaths; on the 25th, 53 deaths; and on the 26th, 50 deaths from that diseases, besides 9! during the three days from other diseases.

☞ It is rumored in New York 'fancy' circles that Hiram Woodruff has in training a new horse, with which he intends attempting the cruel feat of trotting twenty miles in sixty minutes. The stakes are again to be $2,000.

An Irishman and an Englishman falling out, the former threatened his opponent, that if he did not hold his tongue, he "would break his impenetrable skull, and let all the brains out of his empty head."

The humorous Dean Swift, whose antipathy to fishing was well known, having been asked by a child what a fishing rod was, said: "It is only a long pole, with a worm at one end and a fool on the other."

DR. JOHN BULL.

SOMETHING NEW AND VALUABLE.

The most powerful King on the face of the globe now reigns supreme in the American Republic. The power of the crowned heads of Europe sink into insignificance when compared to that of our American King.

European Kings employ the power vested in them to increase the riches of the rich and lordly, and to reduce to the lordly mansion and humble cabin, ready alike to administer relief and to offer health and happiness to the lofty and lowly, the rich and the poor.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

GREAT AMERICAN KING OF PAIN!!

Is the Tenth Wonder of the World, and the greatest blessing ever offered to afflicted humanity, to the suffering millions, the Doctor can say, relief is at your command. You have only to use this magical remedy. All those who still suffer, and will not accept the proffered balm, deserve not the pity of their families.

This wonderful medicine, during the brief period since its introduction, has carried happiness to the hearts of thousands, and made life a charm to many who heretofore regarded it only as a painful and miserable existence.

To the winds with all Liniments, Embrocations, Pain Killers, and Pain Extractors, and let mankind be glad tongues proclaim the wonders of the great "American King of Pain," a preparation composed solely of vegetables and roots, produced by America's own rich and bounteous soil.

We would ask the Ladies, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well and often of it, and see that it is used by their afflicted neighbors. The Ladies are always charitable, and when they behold their suffering friends to use this truly valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, &c., and for many internal afflictions, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of wonders performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it; and Dr. Bull stakes his well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask, have you the Rheumatism or Gout, these are not pleasant companions, and we know that you would like to drive them away as soon as possible, then use

"BULL'S KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured almost immediately, of Bowel Complaint, Dysentery, Summer Complaint, Cholera Morbus, Cramp Colic, Head Ache, Tooth, or any other ache or pain, the remedy is simple and the cure certain.

USE THE GREAT KING OF PAIN.

Would you have your Sores, Swellings, Cuts, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, or any other wounds healed, we repeat it, use the MAGICAL KING OF PAIN.

Would you be cured of Scald Head, Stiff Joints, Sore Throat, Neuralgia, Sore Breast, Lumbago, Tetter or Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Bites of Poisonous Insects, Chapped Hands, and all other Sores, either dry or running, we say again and again, YOUR REMEDY is Dr. John Bull's

"KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured of King's Evil, Cancer, Tumors, Eruptions, or any disease of the Skin caused by impure blood, then use Dr John Bull's Sarsaparilla internally, and the King of Pain externally, nothing can be more certain than a speedy and effectual cure.

It is a remarkable fact, that among the hundreds of eminent physicians who have examined the recipe by which Bull's Sarsaparilla is prepared, none have condemned it, but all approved it, and commend it in the highest terms. Many physicians express themselves strongly in the belief that it is decidedly the best preparation of Sarsaparilla that has ever been placed before the public. Although there are many physicians who feel a reluctance to having their name appended to the recommendation of any particular remedy, notwithstanding they may approve of it in the highest degree, there are others who frankly yield their support in favor of a remedy which they know is capable of doing so much good in an afflicted community. As an evidence, read the following from old and respectable physicians, of high standing in the community in which they live:

TESTIMONY.

☞ Testimony like the following renders superfluous all comments on the efficacy of Bull's Sarsaparilla. From Dr. L. P. Yandell, Professor of Chemistry in the Louisville Medical College: I have looked over the list of ingredients composing John Bull's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and have no hesitation in saying that they form a safe compound, and one that promises well in chronic diseases, to which it is applicable. L. P. YANDELL, M. D.

Louisville, June 6, 1848.

What Dr. Pyles, physician by appointment to the Louisville Marine Hospital, says of Bull's Sarsaparilla:

LOUISVILLE, March 20, 1848.

I have examined the prescription for the preparation of John Bull's Sarsaparilla, and I believe the combination to be an excellent one, and well calculated to produce an alterative impression on the system. I have used it both in public and private practice, and think it the best article of Sarsaparilla now in use. M. PYLES, M. D.,

Resident Physician Louisville Marine Hospital

Better Testimony than was ever Offered in favor of any Medicine.

Rev. E. W. Schon, Rev. E. Stevenson.

LOUISVILLE, May 20th, 1849

We have used John Bull's Sarsaparilla, and have known it to be used, with entire satisfaction; and we have no hesitation in stating our belief, that it is a safe and valuable medical compound, and calculated to produce much good and relieve much suffering; and therefore would cheerfully and most earnestly recommend it to the afflicted. (Signed) E. STEVENSON.

We earnestly invite all persons who are suffering with any of "the ills that flesh is heir to," to call on Dr. John Bull's agent, and get a copy of Bull's Family Journal GRATIS; and for the sake of humanity, we hope that a single individual will not be found unwilling to give Bull's Sarsaparilla a TRIAL, after reading, and reflecting, at the same time, that it is impossible for the Doctor to publish the tenth part of the number of certificates of astounding cures performed by his Sarsaparilla. The amount of testimony voluntarily showered on Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla, from well known and distinguished individuals, both in public and private life, has been perfectly overwhelming.
