Arrival of the America.

SEVASTOPOL TAKEN!

GREAT SLAUGHTER!!

30,000 KILLED AND WOUNDED.

STARTLING NEWS.

New York, Sept. 27—The Steamer America arrived at Halifax at eleven o'clock this morning.

The Bremen steamer Washington arrived off Sandy Hook at 12 o'clock M.

The Collins steamer Pacific arrived out at noon on the 15th.

The city of Sevastopol fell on the 8th inst., after a bombardment of three days, and six repulses of the French before the Malakoff, and one repulse of the English before the Redan.

The Slaughter was terrific; 2,000 English and 14,000 French were killed.

The Russians lost about the same number, making the total killed upwards of 30,000.

The Russians evacuated the town after blowing up the defenses, sinking the ships, firing the town, and leaving nothing but a mass of smouldering ruins.

Five French Generals were killed, including Bosquet.

A large Allied force was marching to the coast to interrept the retreat of the Russians inland.

The Allies captured immense materials of war.

It is reported that the Allied Generals have orders to demand the surrender of the Russians unconditionally all troops, defences, stores, &c., including Odessa.

Another attempt has been made to assassinate Napoleon.

THE PLAN OF ATTACK.

The place was attacked in four different directions. The British attempted to storm Redan, and the French and Sardinians made an attack upon the central batteries; all were made simultaneously, with great energy and spirit; but the most eminently successful one was made by Generals Bosquet and Macmahon, on the Malakoff.

Both the Redan and Central batteries were at one time in the hands of the Allies, but it was found impossible to hold them under the murderous and accurate fire of the Russians.

OPERATIONS IN AZOF.

A dispatch from the Sea of Azof says that the Allies were doing immense damage to the Russian vessels and merchandise along the coast; the fisheries were almost entirely destroyed. The damage is estimated at several millions francs.

Two British steamers were about to send the Gulf of Oukliouk to destroy the Government stores collected on the coast.

FRANCE.

Bellerman, the would-be assassin, is undoubtedly a maniac; and will not be tried. He will be sent to the Lunatic Hospital.

The Emperor was to leave on Tuesday the 16th, for Camp St. Omer, to review the troops for the Crimea.

DENMARK.

It is reported that Austria has offered her mediation to Denmark in her difficulties with the United States, concerning the Sound dues.

RUSSIA.

A despatch from St. Petersburg, says that the Czar intends going to Warsaw with Count Nesselrode, who will, it is supposed, there arrange for an interview with the King of Prussia.

The latest telegraphic intelligence is the following, dated London, Saturday morning, Sept. 15th:

The Paris correspondence of the Times says, it is reported that 25,000 troops embarked at Balaklava for the north of Sevastopol, and also, that the Russians were in full retreat toward Perekop.

Paris papers are discussing the question whether Sevastopol is tenable by the Allies, while the Russians are masters of the forts on the north side fronting the sea.

A dispatch from Danzig, dated the 14th says, that the blockade ships are expected to be ordered home immediately.

It is rumored in clubs to-day that the Allies found 1,200 guns in Sevastopol, and also that the Russians were falling back upon Backsha and Seral; but French rumors say that the Russians still certainly hold the north side of Sevastopol, and will to the last extremity. It is also rumored in Paris that the Allied Admirals have decided that it is not expedient to enter the harbor of Sevastopol until Fort Constantine is silenced.

The Allies will probably attack Fort Constantine from Fort Alexander and Artillery Bay.

GOV. MEDILL AND THE NEBRASKA APPEAL.—Governor MEDILL has, of late, been so busy in "skinning Mr. CHASE," that he has not found time to reply to the charges made against him of interfering to aid in the passage of the Nebraska bill. It will be remembered that he was charged with having, while the bill was pending, gone to Washington, and while there urged personally and privately upon every Democratic delegate from Ohio the importance of voting for this measure, and of having actually threatened those who were refractory, with the vengeance of the party at home, in case they refused to comply.—He has been called upon to deny these charges if they are not true, and the proof has been tendered in case of denial, but the Governor has not found it convenient to open his lips. The inference is that he dare not deny, and is forced to seek a cowardly silence, the only protection of which his case is susceptible.—Cin. Com.

LEFT THE FIELD.—Major General Senator George H. Pugh, sickened with the deplorable condition of the party which elevated him to office, has retired ingloriously from the field, leaving his appointments to be filled by others. Poor little fellow, what will become of him after the second Tuesday in October?

Dr. Tom Edwards, of Cincinnati, requests the Commercial to state that he has been posted to speak at the Trimble meetings without his knowledge or consent.—He has no sympathy with the movement, and complains of the unwarranted use of his name.

From the Buffalo Republic.

A ULO-GE.

IT ONE CANTO AND A VERSE.

To the little darlings not grown'd, to the Boys, at the Barnum, New York. To be sill'd 'em when they are a little stroned naked and little.

CANTO.

Naken little cusses. How far have you cum—
And what for? Do you know what your folkes brung You here for? Where's your trowsers, you as wears 'em? Go and wash your chin, says, you as wears them; All the rest of you, where's your diapers, "if anybody asks?" Do you know who you are? You're young cattle, swine, etcetra. You're a lightning rod for luker for your ungrateful Parinks as wants to lay up sunshin for
A rainy day, sank to extepense for your groceries. If you knowed your fate, you'd a More sanctifine. After you-gh through
Been exhibited, you'll probably be dropped
Among the steeples, in baskets, with a rag
Tied round you as a kor sake, so as not
To know who you are; and the papers will
Have long articles about deserted children,
On the next morning's sheet on. The folks
As bring you here is just about krait enuf
To do that. But now you're here and cent
Home yet, don't think every man as comes
Along your house, nor every woman as pats
You on the head and turns you over a spanking,
And don't make a mess of your things.

TO WIT.

A hard thing to bring you here away from all
You lovedest, where you can't scrap no more at all
The powerful song of
Co-che-cha-lunk, che-lary,
Co-che-cha-lunk, che-lunk, che-lay,
Co-che-che-lunk, che-lunk, che-lary,
Hi-po-co-che-che-lunk, che-lay;
Which in connection with spanks, was
Used to lull you to repose. No more—nary time
Will your costly pecunty nose be held so the nuss
Can make you willing to hav Godfrin's cordial
Forth to your unwiling bowels. Nary
Victoria's pin will never tie up your conceited
Tri-cornered clothing no more—they will use
A skewer—and when you hoy the summer kiss,
Who's a going to rub your backs. Perhaps
You'll be licked out the reservoir, some
Of you, as that deep lake is a fashionable
Place for concealin little children'sakes
Whose parinks don't allow them to come onto them;
Praps you'll be hov'n up to the reg pickin
Bizzard, which is a good business for that kind.
Johnny rotten chaps you grow up—you'll be left in
New York, where you can charge a profeshan for Yourself.

You fat little cusses—are you a goin
To take a prize for fat? Was your father
And mother both fat men to make you so fat?
Or is it that they didn't water their milk?
What have they been doing of you, poor little
Chick a pea, to make you so lean? Don't
Kick your diaper off if you have got the belly
Ache. You must counte expand here
Till all the white folks and niggers has
Made their remarks on you, and belly-ache
Or no belly-ache, you cant get nary ano-
Ther here but spanks and punches.

A. P. L. PANTS.

For the American Clipper.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—May be a few items from old Clearcreek—the residence of the Sag Nicht candidate for the Ohio State Senate—may not be uninteresting to your readers.

It was deemed necessary by the faithful of "Old Fogyism" here, that a few of those extraordinary orators and statesmen from your city, be called upon to enlighten and warm up the citizens of this township.—Accordingly a meeting was appointed to be held on the 21st instant. In the meanwhile, the friends of Slavery and Popish superstition were vigorously engaged in spreading about the news, that there would be two speakers on each side of the political questions of the day. The day came, and brought together some twenty of the faithful (including boys,) to hear of those things which make for the good of our great Republic. Two speakers came, Sag Nichts to the core. The meeting organized by calling ex-Squire Pussy to the Chair. A certain gentleman—name forgotten—then took the floor, and proceeded to illustrate very cogently the views of that party. Surely he evinced his lack of knowledge; and on closing, we could not see that any of the principles of the American party were a whit worse of his onslaught. But an immortal gentlemen of your city, having more beard than brains, soon followed. He was particularly hard down on Sam's boys. He (as he supposed,) proved beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the American platform, in some of its principal features, is decidedly unconstitutional. He thought we had nothing at all to do with Slavery; nothing more than one individual had to do with the private affairs of another. Sage conclusion, this! He very conclusively denounced the K. N.'s as a set of demagogues, midnight assassins, producers of riots, &c., &c. He thought the time was when necessity compelled men to act secretly, in caves and dens of the earth, at the hour of midnight,—the liberty of our country demanded it,—but that time had passed. He nearly come to the conclusion that these secret parties were abominable and unconstitutional—of course using the "crooked barrelled gun so as to hit them if they were Know Nothings, and miss if Sag Nichts!" But his address closed without a cheer or a grunt on the part of the audience, all looking seriously, and pondering these things in their minds.

The Hon. ex-Senator Andrew (also present candidate,) then arose and moved a vote of thanks be tendered the gentleman that had so ably and eloquently addressed them on the occasion. Now, I tell you, this made ex-Squire Pussy scratch his ideas to know how to get such a question as this before the house;—however, after thinking for a short time, he succeeded in some sort of a way. Hon. Andrew then arose to enquire into the expediency of a meeting of the committees that had been appointed in the school-districts within the township; remarking that he would meet them, and if they thought it necessary, he would canvass the township with them.—He exhorted them to work incessantly; remarking that the democratic (alias Sag Nichts) party was worse disorganized and disbanded in Clearcreek township than any where within the county, save in Lancaster city.

We will tell him a story in October that will carry greater confusion and consternation to his ears, and those of his dear party. Yours, &c.

GOUGER.

Clearcreek, Sept. 26, 1855.

☞ When Gov. Reeder was nominated as their delegate to Congress, a few days since, by the free State men of Kansas, he made a speech in which he pledged himself to stand by them in the coming struggle, and dwelt in eloquent terms upon the vast interests identified with their cause. He concluded with the familiar lines:

"Sinks for our altars and our fires,
Sinks, &c., &c., &c.

The Kansas Herald of Freedom says:—"As he paused, there was an air of deep silence, as when a question of life or death is being considered.—every man drew a long breath; but the next minute the air was rent with cries of 'Yes, we will strike!' 'White men can never be slaves!' Reeder! Reeder! Nine cheers for Reeder and Right!"

During his speech he had been constantly interrupted by shouts and shaking of hands, but now the enthusiasm was ungovernable; the crowd gathered around him with the warmest feelings. We wo'd rather have the place he holds in the hearts of a generous, daring people, than wear a kingly crown."

AYER'S PILLS

GOOD MEDICINES.—It is estimated that AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL AND CATHARTIC PILLS have done more to promote the public health, than any other one cause. There can be no question that the Cherry Pectoral has by its thousand—ten thousand cures of Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup, Influenza, Bronchitis &c., very much reduced the proportion of deaths from consumptive diseases in this country. The Pills are as good as the Pectoral and will cure more complaints.

Every body needs more or less purging. Purge the blood from its impurities. Purge the bowels, liver and the whole visceral system from obstructions.—Purge out the diseases which fasten on the body, to work its decay. But for diseases we should die only of old age. Take antidotes early and thrust it from the system, before it is yet too strong to yield.

Ayer's Pills do thrust out disease, not only while it is weak but when it has taken a strong hold. Read the astounding statements of those who have been cured by them from dreadful Scrofula, Dropsy, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Internal Pains, Bilious Complaints, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and many less dangerous but still threatening ailments, such as pimples on the face, Worms, Nervous irritability, Loss of appetite, Irregularities, Dizziness in the head, Colds, Fevers, Dysentery, and indeed every variety of complaints for which Purgative Remedy is required.

These are no random statements, but are authenticated by your own neighbors and your own Physicians.

Try them once, and you will never be without them.

Price 25 cents per Box—5 Boxes for $1.00.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by F. Eckstein, Cincinnati; Kaufmann & Co., and M. S. Reider, Lancaster; G. E. Hamlin, Oakland; R. Rafe, Rushville, and by all Dealers in Medicine everywhere. September 6, 1855—2m 18.
