CITY OF LANCASTER:

Thursday, February 9, 1860.

Republican Central Committee.

The Republican Central Committee for this county will meet in this city on SATURDAY NEXT, THE 11th INST., for the purpose of calling a County Convention to elect congressional delegates to elect delegates to the Chicago Convention, and also delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Columbus, March 1st, 1860, to elect delegates for the State at large.—Fairfield County is entitled to three delegates to the Congressional and three to the State Convention, and this Congressional District to two delegates to Chicago

We hope our Central Committee will be prompt in its call for a County Convention. Let the meeting be called for Saturday the 18th. We hope there will be a full attendance of the Committee.

It is thought by many of our friends down the Valley that, as each county will be represented at the State Convention in March, that we can there select our delegates to Chicago, and thus dispense with the necessity of a Congressional Convention. This remains however for the Committee to dispose of, and we hope if the question is brought before them (as doubtless it will) that it may be promptly met.

S. P. Chase Elected to the U. S. Senate.

The election of the Hon. S. P. CHASE to the United States Senate is doubtless in accordance with the wishes of a large majority of the Republicans of the State.—Mr. CHASE will no doubt represent ably and faithfully the sentiments of Ohio, filling the position to which he has been elevated, with dignity and power. The New York Evening Post, commenting upon his election says:

"Ohio has done well in thus honoring one of her noblest men. It is not every citizen possessing the admirable moral constitution of Mr. Chase, and endowed, at the same time, with such gifts of intellect, who is willing to engage in public life. When such men are not absolutely averse to office, it is well to do as Ohio is doing, and make the most of their services. Men of considerable talent and little principle are to be found in crowds, elbowing and jostling each other in the avenues to public life, and may be had in scores whenever you choose to whistle for them, but Mr. Chase is of another class.

☞ We regret to learn that rude boys and vagabondish men are disposed to interfere with the beautiful Swans and also the shrubbery belonging to Mr. TALLMADGE west of the city. Mr. T. has been to a great trouble and expense in procuring those Swans and in adorning and beautifying his premises with choice and valuable shrubbery, and it is surprising that any are found so thoughtless or malicious as to interfere in any way with either.—Mr. TALLMADGE heartily welcomes all, old and young of every class to his premises, but while he opens his field and extends his hospitalities, he hopes they may be legitimately used and that his property may not be damaged or destroyed.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.—On Friday of last week our young friend TALLMAN SLOUGH was duly admitted by the Supreme Court of the State to the practice of the law. Mr. SLOUGH is a young man of studious habits, rare talent and fine promise. For the past two years he has closely applied himself to the study of his profession, and on the day of his admission was complete master of the text books of the law. Mr. SLOUGH is qualified to discharge fully all the onerous duties of the profession. We predict for him a brilliant future.

HOCKING FOUNDRY AND MACHINE SHOP.—Under this head in another place may be seen an advertisement to which we desire to invite special attention. Mr. DARST is fully prepared to fill all orders sent him. To those cultivating Sugar Cane he offers rare inducements, manufacturing as he does the best Sugar Mills in the country. Give him a call, on the corner of Columbus and Broad Streets, where you will always find Tom ready and willing to accommodate.

☞ We notice that a huge stock of Drugs, Groceries, &c., are to be opened in a few days, by HENRY HUNTER, Esq., in the Shaeffer Building. The room on the corner has been greatly enlarged, and has also undergone thorough repairs, making it second to no business room in the city in point of style and convenience. Success to the new firm.

LOST.—On Saturday, the 4th inst., a carved gold bracelet, prized more from interesting associations than pecuniary value, was lost between the residence of D. TALLMADGE Esq., west of Lancaster on the pike, and that of the Rev. D. D. MATHER on Jail street. Any person returning the same to this office will be suitably rewarded.

☞ LITTLE & LAUDERBACH in the Shaeffer Building are selling the finest oysters of the season. They have fitted up a suit of rooms and are well prepared to accommodate the public with the most palatable dishes of every kind. LITTLE & LAUDERBACH are gentlemanly and obliging fellows and deserve a good share of public patronage.

☞ We take pleasure in calling public attention to the card of Messrs. KING & FEEMAN in another column. These gentlemen are well and favorably known to the citizens of Lancaster and vicinity.—They are complete masters of their profession and will merit the patronage of the public.

VIRGIL E. SHAW.

In our paper of last week appeared the following:

"We desire Republicans of the county to take notice that VIRGIL E SHAW, at present Chairman of our County Central Committee still persists in his refusal to publish "calls for meetings" in this paper. Last fall after Mr. Shaw had refused to publish calls for meetings in the Gazette, the question was brought before the Central Committee by motion, and after Mr. Shaw found that he would be over ruled; he arbitrarily refused to put the question and adjourned the meeting on his own authority! The question afterwards came before the County Convention, and Mr. S. WAS UNANIMOUSLY INSTRUCTED TO PUBLISH IN THE GAZETTE. He still refuses to obey the instructions of the Committee and pays no regard to their wishes."

Mr. Shaw not daring to controvert the truth of the above, and well knowing if he did, he could be impeached by the staunchest Republicans and best citizens of the county, weekly attempts his justification in the last No. of the Democrat, by willfully misrepresenting the position of this paper, by maliciously garbling and perverting the truth, by corruptly charging up on us sentiments he well knows we do not entertain. By drawing false conclusions, and corrupt deductions. His first charge is that the Gazette "opposed the election of Fremont." True—hence it is not Republican. Logical deduction, worthy of its great author. Let us test its legitimacy. Virgil E. Shaw was the rabbidest member of the "Red Lodge Clique," a brawling Locofoco partizan—hence he is not a Republican. But away with such stuff, Virgil E. Shaw knew that on the 1st day of May last, the Gazette office changed hands, and when he asserts that the "change was nominal," and "that the young men never owned a dollar in it," he asserts a falsehood of the blackest dye. The charge that this "paper has constantly and uniformly charged the Republican party with being in favor of negroe equality and negroe suffrage" and that he (Mr. Shaw) has frequently been called upon to defend the party from these charges of the Gazette," is as weak, unfounded and contemptible as its author. Mr. Shaw well knew that since our connection with this paper as its editors, we have "constantly, and uniformly" defended the Republican party against these calumnies, and that in the very last No. of the Gazette, the one containing the charges against Mr. Shaw, we boldly and distinctly disavow these things. As to Mr. Shaw's having been called upon to defend the party from these charges of the Gazette, we have only to say, that in the fall of '58, Mr. Shaw obtruded himself upon the Central Committee, was sent to Sugar Grove to fill an appointment, and by his eloquent appeal for "negroe equality" in the shortest possible time talked the house empty, and so disgusted the Republicans of that vicinity, that they called another meeting, and another speaker to set things right, and that afterwards the then chairman of the Central Committee, was urgently requested out of respect for the intelligence of the party, not to suffer Mr. Shaw to fill further appointments.

The last and weakest thing in Mr. S's. defense is his willful, malicious and intentional perversion of the letter, spirit, substance and intention of our article of Dec. 27th, upon the "Political Condition of the Country." So great is the distortion of this article and so glaring the perversion of its sense, that Mr. Shaw's own partizans will put him to shame—must despise his littleness—will ridicule his abortive effort. To say that in that, or any other article, we charge the Republican Party with "bringing on the crisis of the present hour" is simply ridiculous. To say that in that, or in any other article, we charged that the "Republican Party is possessed with a spirit of mad fanaticism which proposes to consummate its hellish ends in a dissolution of the Union," is a perversion of truth—is simply contemptible. To say that in that or in any other article we asserted that we were "opposed to the Republican Party," is simply false.

Death of Judge Gustavus Swan.

Gustavus Swan, Esq., died at his residence on High street, Monday afternoon at three o'clock, in his 75th year. As connected with public enterprises, Judge Swan was known all over the country, and wherever State of Ohio Bank Notes could penetrate, his name is familiar from that peculiar signature, as President of the State Bank of Ohio. But here in Columbus, where the dignified old gentleman was daily seen upon the street and in his "little office at the head of the stairs," he was best known and appreciated. He always had a kind word and helping hand for the young; cheerful, advisory counsel for the dejected, and pleasant greeting for all. His absence will long be a blank.—Ohio State Journal.

GAME LAWS OF OHIO.—From the 1st of February to the 15th of September, all persons are forbid killing or injuring the wild turkey, patridge, quail, pheasant, prairie chicken, woodcock and deer; and from May first to the 15th of September, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to kill or injure wild goose, wild duck, teal, or other wild duck.

The penalty attached to the violation of this law is a fine of from $2 to $15, for each and every offense, before a Justice of the Peace. The same penalty is attached for the destruction of the eggs of any of the game above mentioned.—[Lebanon Star.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"The friends of Judge Douglas are confident that he will receive the vote of Virginia at Charleston, on the second or third ballot, and that the delegation from South Carolina will be instructed for him. They now say it will only require two or three ballots to elect him."

Before the Charleston Convention meets, the friends of Judge DOUGLAS will claim every vote from every State in the Union.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The Times Washington correspondent says:

It is understood that Mr. Glassbrenner, the late Sergeant at Arms, will be appointed U. S. Treasurer.

The Mexican treaty and correspondence have been printed and laid before the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs, who will report it back on Tuesday, when its merits will be discussed.

Secretary Toucey had a long interview to day with Gen. Cass, touching the execution of the Clayton and Bulwer treaty by the home and African squadrons, upon which subject the Government is preparing a rejoinder to Lord John Russell's note in which are the charges that the unfavorable notice taken by the U. S. Government of all complaints presented by men engaged in the slave trade traffic only emboldens them in the use of the American flag to protect their piracies.

Joshua R. Giddings appeared on the floor of the House to day, and was surrounded by his friends.

The Post office appropriation bill will probably be passed on Monday, under suspension of the rules.

The same correspondent says: The following Presidential programme was arranged yesterday between the Republican and American members of the House: For President, Edward Bates of Missouri; Vice-President General Cameron, of Pennsylvania. The platform is to be distinctly national and conservative. Mr. Seward is provided with the French Mission.

The Tribune's correspondence says:—The Republican Conference to morrow will decide upon Doorkeeper, Postmaster and Printer. It is probable that Marston, of New Hampshire, will be nominated for Doorkeeper, Mr. Lunas of Illinois, Postmaster and Mr. Defrees, of Indiana, for Printer, but there are various combinations and some quite formidable to the defeat of every proposed programme, and this may not succeed.

The Herald's correspondence says: The Senate Printing Investigation Committee met this morning, Mr. Wendell underwent an examination of upward of three hours. It appeared that some seven or eight parties were interested in the public printing, viz. Steadman, Banks, McLean, Walker, Rice, Severns, and Bowman. He stated that he had paid out during the past three years over $100,000 for party support to newspapers, and in aid of election expenses in Pennsylvania principally, but extending over New Jersey, New York, Maryland, Ohio, &c., and considerable had been paid by official authority, and some of his own free will.

He also stated that by the action of the Senate in electing Bowman, who had given the work to Blair & Rives, he had been left penniless, with the largest establishment in the Union lying idle. Bowman's conduct toward Wendell was shown up in a very bad light. Bowman, it appears, has given part of the work to Jewitt editor of the Fillmore organ at Buffalo.

A. D. Banks and J. O. Severns were also examined. They did not seem to know much, except that they received some aid from Wendell.

Wendell testified that of the Postoffice blank printing he paid, in 1857, the sum o, $600 to the Pennsylvanian newspaper, of Philadelphia, and the Evening Argus, of Philadelphia, the sum of $5,000. He informed the committee that he went into doubtful Democratic districts in Pennsylvania, and spent money freely for the benefit of the supporters of the policy of the Administration.

Mr. Rice, of the Pennsylvanian, was also before the committee, and did not discredit the testimony of Wendell.

The Tribune's correspondent says:

Messrs. Giddings, Plumb and Dr. Howe, appeared before the Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee to-day. Mr. Giddings stated his wish to be examined without delay, and the Committee politely consented. He stated his presumption that a note submitted was written at the time indicated by the date.

Its object was to answer a letter from John Brown, intimating that he would be in Andover, and would lecture in Jefferson, where Mr. Giddings lived. Giddings was introduced to Brown, and consulted as to arranging matters for a lecture next day. He was not engaged more than three minutes on this subject, being indisposed to any conference concerning the dollars and cents, but told Brown to come and lecture. Brown did so the following afternoon in a church where Giddings worshipped.

FOR FUTURE REFERENCE.

What Mississippi Means to Do at Charleston.

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer of Jan. 25, 1860.]

We copy for future reference—for a future time will be to it—the following from the Mississippi Patrol. The Democracy of the whole Union is informed in advance, what Mississippi will demand of the Charleston Convention. It will do mind that "the principle of protection for slavery in the Territories shall be fully recognized," and that neither Mr. Douglas nor "any of his party" be nominated; and, if the demand is not complied with, the delegates from that State will withdraw from the Convention and appeal to the Southern States to sustain her. We will say to the Patrol, in advance also, that the Convention will not comply with the demand; for the simple reason that to do so would be suicidal and wrong. The Patrol can republish this also for future reference:

"Mississippi goes into the Convention pledged to support no man who does not recognize the rights of the South in every particular. She will demand that the Cincinnati platform shall be so amended that none can misconstrue it; that the principle of protection for slavery in the Territories shall be fully recognised. She will demand a sound constitutional man for President. Failing to get them, she will withdraw from the Convention, and appeal to the Southern States to sustain her. We are pledged to this course, and from conversation with our distinguished delegates, and from the character of the whole delegation, we know they will not submit to the nomination of Douglas or any of his party. We do not think any Southern delegation will submit and we are proud of the position Mississippi now holds among her sister States. She has taken the lead, and will keep it."

☞ Nobody, of the New York Times, writing of SHERMAN, in the House, the day after he had declined to be a candidate for Speaker, says:

Immediately after prayers and roll call this morning, John Sherman, of Ohio, took his natural place on the floor as the Republican leader. He called the previous question on a motion for a viva voce vote, and at once displayed tactics which, if they could have been used in his own behalf, might have elected him.

Court of Common Pleas, Fairfield County, Ohio.

Ulery, Stockdale & Co.

Daniel Yeigh, Aquilla Parish and others.

AARON YEIGH, Henry Yeigh and Abram Yeigh citizens and residents of the State of Iowa, will hereby take notice, that the said plaintiffs have this day filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Fairfield County, Ohio, against the said non-resident defendants and others, setting forth that said Ulery, Stockdale & Co., did, on the 25th day of October, 1857, by the consent rules of said Court, recover a judgment against their co-defendants Daniel Yeigh and others, in the sum of $10,433 93 and costs of suit in the sum of $90 50. That there was realized on said judgment, February 28, 1859, the sum of $5,913, and that there still remains unpaid on said judgment the sum of $7,075. That all the defendants to said judgment are insolvent, with no visable means in their possession to satisfy the same. That on the 26th day of December, 1856, Aquilla Parish executed and delivered a mortgage to the said Daniel Yeigh, upon the following real estate, in said County of Fairfield, to-wit: A part of the South side of the Southeast quarter of Section No. 26, and also part of the North side of the Northwest Quarter of Section No. 35, Township No. 18, and Range No. 16, in said County of Fairfield, which said mortgage was given to secure the payment of $700 annually to the said Daniel Zeigh during his natural life, and the sum of $2,500 to the assignor administrators at his death. The petition alleges that the said Aaron, Henry and Abram Yeigh, are children of the said Daniel Yeigh, and pretend to assert some interest in and to said mortgage. The petition prays that the interest of said Daniel Zeigh in said mortgage be decreed to be sold, and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the balance due on said judgment; or, if that shall be denied, then that said annuity and the said sum of $2,500, as the same shall respectively fall due, be subjected to the payment of said judgment.

The said defendants, Aaron, Henry and Abram Yeigh, non-residents as aforesaid, are hereby notified to appear and answer or demur to said petition on Saturday the 3rd day of March next, or a decree will go against them accordingly.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and the community generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or declamatory puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense demand could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of puffing the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; being under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cases are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

Court of Com. Pleas, Fairfield County, O

PETITION TO SELL LAND

Isaac Orcff, Administrator of Anthony Myer, deceased,

vs.

Thomas Myer, Barbary Kelleny, et al Defendants.

DEFENDANT, Thomas Myers is hereby informed and notified, that I have filed a petition as Administrator of the Estate of Anthony Myer, deceased, in the Court of Common Pleas of Fairfield county, Ohio, for the sale, &c., of the following Real Estate, the property of said deceased, to-wit: Situate in the County of Fairfield, in the State of Ohio, and being the East half of the East half of the Northeast Quarter of Section No. 34, of Township No. 14, of Range No. 19, containing Forty Acres and 50 100 of an Acre, and shall in pursuance of the prayer of said Petition, on the first day of the February Term, A. D. 1860, of said Court, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, ask for an order for the assignment of the Widow of said Anthony Myer, and the sale of the Real Estate herein before described, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay his debts.

The said defendant Barbary Kelleny will also take notice, that the said plaintiff will at the same time pray for the correction of the following mistake in the deed of conveyance from the said Barbary Kelleny to the said deceased, to-wit: That said deed be corrected to convey the "East half of the East half of the Northeast Quarter of Section No. 34, of Township No. 14, of Range No. 19," whereas it now conveys the "East half of the East half of the Northeast Quarter of Section No. 26, of Township No. 14, of Range No. 20."

LINDSAY'S IMPROVED

☞ BLOOD SEARCHER ☜

A STANDRAD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY of the BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of Scrofula, Cutaneous diseases, Pimples in the Face, old stubborn ulcers, bone affections dyspepsia, jaundice, mercurial diseases, liver complaint, low spirits, cancerous formations, Erysipelas, Boils, sore eyes, scald head, Rheumatic disorders, costiveness, salt rheum, general debility, loss of appetite, foul stomach, Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their original in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Corley, that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months notwithstanding which, his lip, nose and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away. He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what the invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Blackney of Elderton, Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for years.

To the case of a lady in Zanesville, Clearfield County, who was afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Nickel, welding in Carrollton, Cambria County, Pennsylvania, who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it ate his entire nose off, and his eyes was gone, if possible then McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases, every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any agent.
