Scholarships for Sale.

We have scholarships from the Columbus, Cleveland and Mannee Commercial Colleges, which we will sell cheap for cash.

Dr. J. F. McMillin

Will be at the Perrysburg Exchange on Saturday next, June 8th. The afflicted should give him a call.

The June Session

Of the County Commissioners commenced on Tuesday. Those having business with these officials will govern themselves accordingly.

Corn Planting.

During the past two or three weeks our farmers have been pitching into their corn-planting with a will. It is thought their will be fully as much put in the ground this year as there was last. There will undoubtedly be use for it all.

Brimstone.

The Blade learns that a shipment of brimstone destined for the South, was stopped at Sandusky the other day, as contraband of war, and will be detained until full information is procured of the purpose to which it is to be applied. Large quantities of this article have passed through this port about that season for two or three years past.—Whether the existing state of affairs will interrupt the shipments South, this year, remains to be seen.

Troops Going South.

A Flying Artillery Company of the Michigan Volunteers, from Coldwater, passed through this place on Saturday evening, from Detroit, on their way South. There were two or three car loads of soldiers, two cars of baggage, seven cars of horses, and six platform cars containing six brass field pieces, and the necessary cassions, etc. They stopped for the locomotive to wood and then went on. The sight of their rifled cannon really looked like "business." They were fully uniformed, and presented quite a soldierly appearance.

A Dirty Dog.

We owe our readers an apology for the inadvertent publication, last week, of an obscene acrostical charade. Being unusually busy with office duties, and not suspecting that Wood county, particularly that portion about the thrifty village of Bowling Green, harbored a person so vile as to desire the circulation of such obscenity among the families and children of our county, we were perhaps more careless than we otherwise would have been. The person who can lend himself to such a base purpose is an enemy to society and should be closely watched. We are well assured that the guilty party has been in the county but a short time—that he is an impudent flirt—and the citizens of Bowling Green owe it to themselves to get rid of his loathsome carcass speedily, even if more than persuasive measures be necessary to secure that desirable end. We have ample evidence, (as might the readers of the JOURNAL, did we feel disposed to refer them to a former number of the paper,) that the individual alluded to never wrote the "charade" to which we have referred, because it is properly spelled, capitalized, and shows signs of having originated with a person of some ability and culture, both of which qualifications are wanting in the vulgar ass who stealthily obtained the use of our columns for disseminating his borrowed filth. We promise our readers that a more watchful eye shall in future guard against the impositions of such indecent persons.

Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F.

From the Toledo Blade, to which the statements were furnished by Secretary Earl, we take the following as to the condition of the Order, as exhibited at the recent session of the Grand Lodge at Lancaster, O.:

The following is a brief exhibition of the progress and working of the order during the year, viz:

Number initiated	1,678
" Admitted on Card	398
" Reinstated	50
" Withdrawn by Card	72
" Expelled	1,272
" Of deaths	172
" Of Brothers relieved	2,092
" Of Brothers receiving charity	183
" Of Widowed families relieved	299

Amount of relief	40,727 89
Number of Lodges	350
Number of members	21,103

The report shows that out of 359 Lodges that have been chartered, all but 17 are actively engaged in the work for which they were established, and the order seems to be in a prosperous condition throughout the State.

Our Book Table.

"UNITED STATES INFANTRY AND RIFLE TACTICS." J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a new and enlarged volume, compiled under authority of the War Department, and giving a complete and thorough system of training, both in Heavy and Light Infantry. It contains all the latest improvements, based upon French military experience, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of American service. The difference between Heavy and Light Infantry is important. First: In their weapons and equipment, the former being armed with the musket, and the latter with the rifle. Second: In the order of battle, Heavy Infantry march in compact order, while the Light Infantry is dispersed or deployed as skirmishers. Every regiment is entitled to one company of Light Infantry, as a part of its organization, and the system now presented gives a complete course of instruction for both kinds of Infantry. The advantages of this system of tactics over former ones are numerous and decided—greater celerity of movements, forming in line from column without halting, changing the direction from front to rear while marching, doubling the files when marching by a flank, the varied formation of squares against cavalry, and many others. It is extensively illustrated, and in view of the fact that it is the only authorized edition now out, it is the very one every military person needs. It is worthy of remark, also, that this work contains about one-third more matter than any yet published. Send to J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, and get a copy. Price $1.25.

Wood County Teachers' Association.

PERRYSBURG, April 6th, 1861.

Owing to the bad state of the roads there was a general show of tardiness on the part of most of the members. At 11 o'clock, a. m., the house was called to order by the president. As many of the members were absent who had been appointed to conduct exercises, a part of the regular exercises were omitted. Elocutionary exercises were engaged in by Messrs. Johnson, Newton, Corey, and Miss Norton. Reading suspended. On motion of J. B. Newton, the president appointed Messrs. Ross, Newton, and Miss McCulloucs to prepare a programme for the next meeting. On motion, the association adjourned at 12 m., to meet again at 1½ o'clock, p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—At 1½ p. m., the house was called to order by the president. Elocutionary exercises continued. J. J. Evers read "There once was a Toper," Miss F. M. McCullouess. "We'll all meet again in the morning." Rev. J. A. Shannon then read a piece and offered several criticism on the course that had been adopted by those who read before him. Reading was then suspended. The following resolution was discussed;

Resolved, That the examinations of teachers in Wood county should be more thoroughly conducted than they now are.

There being none on the affirmative but J. J. Evers, of those who were selected, he opened the discussion, taking exceptions and making objections to the present or past course of conducting the examinations. Samuel Johnson followed on the negative of the question. G. A. Corey followed upon both affirmative and negative. The president then made some remarks well suited to the occasion, and the discussion was postponed until the next regular meeting, when the same persons will be expected to discuss it again. The president then introduced the Rev. J. A. Shannon to the audience who made some appropriate remarks and proceeded to deliver an address—subject: Thoroughness, referring to teachers' energy, patience and perseverance. Pleasing illustrations. Miss H. Norton introduced a class which sang, spelled and ready all of which did credit to themselves, as well as to their teacher.—Voted, on motion of Mr. Ross, that when this association adjourn, it adjourn to meet at Bowling Green the last Saturday in June, at 10 o'clock, a. m. The committee on programme not being prepared to report, it was moved that the report as far as completed be accepted, and the whole received when completed. On motion, the association tendered a rousing big vote of thanks to Mr. Shannon, for his fine address, and one still larger to Miss Norton, for the entertainment given by herself and pupils. On the motion of J. B. Newton, the association adjourned to the time and place above named.

W. A. GORRILL, President.

Camp Correspondence.

The following synopsis of a private letter from Lieut. L. B. Blinn, by the kindness of his "better half," we have been permitted to publish:

GALLIPOLIS, May 27, 1861.

Thursday night of last week we received orders from head-quarters at Camp Taylor, to be ready to march at five minutes notice, and on Friday morning we were ordered to be ready at half past eight o'clock, a. m. We all commenced packing our traps immediately, including our camp kettles, frying pans, &c., &c., as the boys had commenced cooking their own meals. At half past eight, a. m., our regiment was formed, our company taking the head of the regiment, we marched around our camp ground (which the boys called "home") and took a last look and farewell of the 19th regiment and six other companies. They bade us a soldier's adieu, and we started for the depot; the streets of Cleveland were very dusty, as usual, and when we arrived at the station we were a dusty set of fellows. At half past ten o'clock, we started from Cleveland. There was nothing of note that day, save the cheering we received on the way. We arrived at Columbus at 5 o'clock, p. m., and were marched up to the arsenal, and each of the boys received one musket, one knapsack, one haversack, one canteen, one cartridge box and one blouse or fighting coat. Their caps, shoes and pants are here and will be distributed to-morrow. We also received our ammunition, after which we were marched out to Camp Jackson and arrived in camp about 8 o'clock, p. m. We were all very tired and hungry, and had for our supper, bread and raw salt pork; but I tell you the boys relished it; and we went to bed on our good bed of straw, (straw beds are extra beds with us.) At 4 o'clock, Saturday morning, we were ordered to march for the cars. It was a very early hour, but the boys turned out with a will. We had no time to cook, and the boys had for breakfast the same as they had for supper. There was an eating house in the camp, but they charged the enormous price of ten cents for a cup of coffee, and five cents for a common biscuit. Some of the boys received coffee and biscuit and forgot to pay the lamentable sum third; but he considered discretion the better part of valor, and did not say anything about it.—We left Columbus at 6 o'clock, a. m., and proceeded on our journey. At noon the rations of bread and pork were distributed through the cars of the different companies. We arrived at a place on the Cincinnati railroad called Loreland, where we changed cars, and took the Marietta road. At four o'clock we arrived at Lucasburg, where the good people who had heard of our coming, had prepared everything in the shape of eatables for us. A happier set of fellows you never saw than our regiment, for we were all very hungry. We all received as much as we wished, and after giving the people three cheers and a soldier's tiger, we proceeded on our way. Twenty-five miles further on, and we arrived at another place called Greenfield, where the good ladies had over five hundred baskets of pies, cakes, and other eatables, prepared for us. We of course were not at all hungry after receiving our beautiful repast at Lucasburg. The good people filled all our haversacks full, which have lasted two days. After giving them three times three cheers we proceeded on, and arrived at Chillicothe, where there was a large crowd to receive us, and I may add we were all presented with nice bouquets!—Leaving C., we arrived at a small place called Hamden, where we stayed over Saturday night, the boys sleeping on the cars, as there was no other place. The officers stopped at the hotels. The next morning, (Sunday,) the rest of the regiment went forward to Portland. Our company was left to guard the baggage and ammunition, (quite a compliment to our company.) At noon we were invited up town, and partook of a nice warm dinner. We thanked the people kindly, and at one o'clock p. m., we started on our journey, and arrived at Portland at 4 o'clock, where the rest of the regiment were waiting for us. We then were twenty-four miles from Gallipolis, and we intended to march through Sunday evening; but our Adjutant said that the town would be safe, and ordered us to wait until 1 o'clock Monday morning. We were ordered to find the best quarters we could; we found a farmer who had a barn large enough to hold one half of the company, and the rest of us stayed in the orchard, and amongst the rest of them. Where I laid there was no grass, and I slept on the hard ground with one blanket over me, and an apple tree for shelter. I slept soundly until just before daylight, when it commenced raining very hard. I got up, packed my bed, and felt as well as if I had slept on a feather bed. At 7 o'clock this morning, we were formed into line, and ready for departure. Some countrymen came in with their teams to transport us, and we got in motion at nine o'clock. The line of wagons was over two miles long, and it was a grand sight to see 1,000 men, and as many muskets glittering in the sun. At noon we halted and took dinner. We arrived at this place at four o'clock, p. m., having been four days on the march. The citizens had a grand supper for us, and we knew how to appreciate it. We are now at Gallipolis, which you will see by the map, is on the Ohio river, and directly opposite the Virginia shore, within a stone's throw of Virginia. The secessionists have a camp within four miles of us, and we expect to be called on every day to make the attack. Our Regiment, and especially our company are anxious to get at the rebels as soon as possible. It may be some time yet before the fight will commence, but if it comes to-morrow we are ready. We are very careful what we eat and drink, and keep a strict guard, for we are near the enemy's camp.

Not Personal (!)

An exchange philosophically says:—"A printing office is no place for men or boys to congregate in, to talk, laugh and sing—it may be fun to them but it is a dead loss to the proprietors. There is not a person on earth who can do his employer justice when idlers stand at his elbow talking and laughing every few minutes during the day. When printers are in a hurry, making up forms, casting off copy, reading and correcting proofs, it is a great annoyance to have to walk around a crowd of idlers, or have them perch themselves on one's back and be leaned with the disagreeable weight of each one's fly-trap. A printing office is no place to loaf, and the idlers and loungers were never intended for the accommodation of the public—they are exclusively private property. Besides, a printing office is a place for business, and not a resort for loafers."

Agricultural Notice.

The officers and managers of the Wood County Agricultural Society are requested to meet in Bowling Green, on Saturday June 29th, 1861, at 9 o'clock, a. m., to review the premium list, and make the necessary arrangements for our 11th annual Fair. By order of the President.

June 4, 1861—3w3 JAS. W. ROSS, Sec'y.

During the conflagration of Canton, caused by the bombardment of the British, the extensive medical warehouse of our countryman, Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, the depot of his Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills, for China, was totally destroyed.—He now makes a demand upon our Government for indemnity from the loss of his property, and hence will grow another nut to crack with our older brother Johnny. Stick to it doctor, and if our Government maintains our rights wherever your pills are sold, we shall only be unprotected on tracts that are very barren.—[Reformer, Trenton, N. J. 5w1

A SURE CURE FOR A FELON.—When the sufferers first commences, or even when far advanced, it can be relieved and entirely cured by holding the finger or part afflicted in Perry Davis' Pain Killer for half an hour. It has been thoroughly tested, and proves a never-failing remedy. A felon is a troublesome thing, and we would advise all those troubled to test the remedy. Sold by PECK & HAMILTON, Perrysburg. 5m1

Dr. Robak's Scandinavian Remedies.

Are you sick, no matter what organ is affected, depend upon it the blood, which is the food and sustenance of every organ is full of corruption! My Scandinavian Blood Pills and Blood Purifier, break up the source of the disease in the fluids of the body. They purge and purify the elements of the blood. Hence their quick and complete cures in dispepsia, scrofula, eruptions, fits, tumors, nervousness, kidney complaints, piles, low fevers, debility, rheumatism, headache, want of sexual vigor, etc., etc. These remedies are astonishing the whole medical world. See advertisement. 6m1

"We take delight in referring our afflicted friends to the drug store of Peck & Hamilton, where that most estimable medicine, Dr. S. O. Richardson's SHERRY WINE BITTERS, can be procured. We advise our friends to use it, because we know its value in curing Fever and Ague, diseases common to the West, and all new countries—it should be kept at hand in every family. Sold by PECK & HAMILTON. 5m1

POOR BISCUIT.—Ladies, if you would avoid the mortification of having poor biscuit for tea, when you have company, use only D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus. It will produce the same happy result every time, so that you may know what to depend upon. You can get it of any respectable dealer in the country, and of W. J. Hitchcock, Perrysburg, O. w1

"STIMULATING ONGUENT."—Such is the title of a compounded preparation (originating with the famous Dr. Bellingham of London) for improving the growth, and beautifying the condition of the human hair. Messrs. Horace L. Hegeman & Co., of New York, have obtained the entire agency for the American continent, and we therefore invite attention to their "Stimulating" announcement in another column. 5w1

SALT RHEUM.—This is a disease the country is full of. There are but few whole families entirely free from it. The fact is, it takes so many forms, sometimes in cracked hands, chapped lips, roughness on the skin, with an oozing out of a watery fluid, with great heat, itching, burning, &c., &c. For this Dr. S. A. Weaver's Cerate is a never-failing cure; one or two bottles will cure the worst cases. It acts on a different principle from any article ever made. As proof of its curative properties, we will copy from a letter received from a clergyman of the highest respectability. He says: "I was attacked with Salt Rheum in my left leg, which had become very bad and was rapidly spreading. It had become a raw sore, and the itching and burning became intolerable. I procured a bottle of your Cerate, and by its use my leg has been perfectly cured of the disease. I give this statement in hopes it may induce others similarly affected to use it;" and we say if you will use it you will be cured.—Sold by PECK & HAMILTON. 5m1

Mothers, read this.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the pastor of a Baptist church to the "Journal and Messenger," Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that world-renowned medicine—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING:

"We see an advertisement in your columns of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Now we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to our readers, that this is no humbug—WE HAVE TRIED IT AND FOUND IT TO BE ALL IT CLAIMS. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the day, because it is one of the best, and those of your readers who have babies can't do better than to lay in a supply. 4y-1y.

How Does Peruvian Syrup

Cure so many diseases apparently dissimilar?—Whenever the mind is taxed more than the body, the penalty is Dyspepsia, the most convenient name for a legion of complaints, beginning with impaired digestion, and generally ending in Consumption, and all originating in a deterioration of the blood.

[From the Rev. Dr. Greenleaf.]

CINCINNATI, October 12, 1859.

I have derived so much personal benefit from the "Peruvian Syrup," that I do not hesitate to recommend its use to all that large class of cases, where iron is the efficient remedy. To clergymen especially, and persons whose occupations tax heavily the nervous energies, or to sufferers from the debilitating effects of summer heats, I believe this to be an invaluable remedial agent.

P. H. GREENLEAF,
Rector of St. Paul's Church.

"PERUVIAN SYRUP" is a solution of Protoxide of Iron, a new discovery in medicine, and strikes at the root of disease by producing healthy blood, the source of all vitality in human organism. For sale all by druggists. Agents for Perrysburg, Peck & Hamilton. 48w1

Messrs. J. N. Harris & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gentlemen:—I deem it a duty as well as a pleasure, to inform you what Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Cerate has done for me, and hope that this letter may come to the notice of persons similarly afflicted. In the year 1856 I was attacked with tetter, or some kindred disease, on both my legs, which extended until from my knees to my feet was one raw sore. I consulted and obtained medicines and prescriptions from nearly all the physicians in this vicinity, but obtained no relief. Your agent at this place, Mr. Hoffman, recommended me to try the Syrup and Cerate, which I fortunately did, and am now a sound and well man by their use.

With great gratitude, I remain. Yours truly,
JOHN WEIRBAUGHT.

Mr. Weirbaught being a well known gentleman of Ashland, makes this information most reliable.

By taking the Syrup as directed, it will drive the diseases from the system, and when once out on the skin, a few application of

DR. WEAVER'S CERATE, OR OINTMENT, and you have a permanent cure.

The Cerate has proved itself to be the best Ointment ever invented, and where once used, it has never been known to fail of effecting a permanent cure of old sores, tetter and ring worm, scald head, chilblains and frost bites, barber's itch, chapped or cracked hands or lips, blotches or pimples on the face. And for Sore Nipples and Sore Eyes, the Cerate is the only thing required to cure. It should be kept in the house of every family.
