To Subscribers out of the County.—We have been sending you The Belmont Chronicle for nearly two years. Several hundred copies go out of the county, and with but very few exceptions for months. Our friends within the county have done much better, although many have never paid us a cent. But when this and the first of January we want all outstanding accounts settled. To subscribers within the county we will send our agent. From those without we want the pay sent to us at our risk through the mails. No subscriber out of this county can expect to get the paper after the first of January unless it be paid for. We are sorry to resort to this alternative, but necessity demands it.

☞ Our "Bellaire Local Items" failed to reach us this week.

☞ Miss Nancy B. Faris says something interesting to the ladies, in our advertising columns to-day.

☞ There are now four persons confined in our county jail on penitentiary charges. This will be a pretty fair start for Judge Evans.

☞ Gov. Corwin did not go to Illinois to assist the Republicans in the canvass. Pressing business engagements prevented him. The announcement was perhaps premature.

☞ Read the account of the kidnapping of a citizen of Indiana, in another column of to-day's paper. This, we presume, some gentlemen would term "curbing the extremes North and South."

Mr. Giddings's Letter to Gov. Corwin.—We direct the attention of our readers to the able letter of Hon. J. R. Giddings to Gov. Corwin, on the admission of Slave States, to be found on the fourth page of to-day's paper.

☞ We are glad to learn from The Barnesville Intelligencer that Rev. James Hinkinson, the popular Methodist divine, is recovering from the severe attack of Typhoid Fever, under which he has been laboring for a few weeks past.

☞ The people of Saint Clairsville and vicinity will do well to remember that our friend John A. Grove, has just opened in the room formerly occupied by Jacob Heyman, a choice lot of Family Groceries. Mr. Grove's well known probity of character is a sufficient guarantee to all. Give him a call.

☞ The building formerly occupied by the "Belmont Branch Bank," which was some time since purchased for the use of the County Treasurer, is being handsomely re-painted and fixed up. It will soon be ready for occupancy, and, having a splendid vault and other conveniences, will make a superior office.

☞ We have on file an excellent speech of Carl Schurz, of Wisconsin, the German patriot, on "The Question Before the People; Shall Slavery or Freedom Prevail?" It was delivered before a recent great mass meeting of the Republicans at Chicago. It is a speech of masterly logic and persuasive eloquence. We will try and lay it before the readers of The Chronicle at an early day.

☞ Illinois has been exceedingly well canvassed, at least, so far as the Republicans are concerned. Besides the numerous great joint debates between Douglas and Lincoln, Gov. Chase, of our State, Hon. Francis P. Blair, of Missouri, Col. Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, and other distinguished gentlemen have made stirring speeches in different parts of the State.

Concert.—Madame Jacom, the accomplished vocalist and pianist, who has been teaching a class in sacred music in our place for a few weeks past, will give a grand concert in vocal and instrumental music, in the Court Room, on next Tuesday Evening, the 9th inst. Mr. George Brown has kindly tendered the use of his superior piano for the occasion. This concert is for the benefit of two orphan children which Madame Jacom has taken under her charge. Aside from this Madame Jacom' superior artistic merits will insure her a good house.

☞ The publishers of The Atlantic Monthly forgot us this month. Through the kindness of a friend, however, we are permitted to peruse its genial pages. The "Autocrat," whom our readers will remember left his landlady and took up with a school mistress, resumes his racy chat with the readers of The Atlantic, in a new series of papers under the title of "A Visit to the Autocrat's Landlady." The contents are: Railway Engineering in the United States; Her Grace, the Drummer's Daughter; Work and Rest; Colin Clout and the Fairy Queen; Miss Wimple's Hoop; Nature and the Philosopher; Thomas Jefferson; A Prisoner of War; The "Washing of the Feet," or Holy Thursday, in St. Peter's; Physical Courage; Not remember; A Visit to the Autocrat's Landlady; The Great Event of the Century; The Last Look; A Sample of Consistency; Literary Notices, etc., etc. The "Autocrat's" contributions are alone worth the subscription price of the magazine. We hope the publishers will not again forget us. We cannot well do without The Atlantic.

Address, Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, Mass.

☞ We learn from The Woodsfield Herald that the Republicans of Woodsfield had a grand jubilee over the recent glorious and decisive victories of the Republican party, on Wednesday evening, the 27th ult. Speeches from Warren Hollister and others, and fire-works, and bonfires, and a torch light procession were the order of the evening. A superb supper was served up at a later hour in the evening, by mine host of the Mansion House, Mr. Rawlins. The wildest enthusiasm prevailed.

☞ Benj. F. Stanton devotes a mortal column and a half in the last Noble County Democrat in explanation of the severe rebuke at the hands of the people of Noble county. The most plausible reason we can offer for it is the fact that the great body of the people of that county preferred a man who would represent the interests of white men, instead of "niggers," as he classically terms them.

☞ Lewis Powell, of Loydsville, died on Thursday, the 28th ult., of Dropsy. His remains were interred in the Methodist Burying Ground of this place, on Friday, and were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends, including a deputation of the Masonic Fraternity, of which he was a member.

Committed for Murder.—A man by the name of Isaac Vandyne was arrested in Washington township on Monday, charged with an attempt to kill his uncle, Isaiah Vandyne, by stabbing. He was taken before Esq. Hendershott, of Washington township, and after an examination committed to jail, in default of $5,000 bail. The case was rather an aggravated one, as we understand. The prisoner was lodged in our jail on Monday evening by the officers of Washington township. The officers who brought the prisoner up reported the victim of this cruel assault in a dying condition. No hopes were entertained of his recovery. Persons since from the neighborhood report mortification to have taken place. The prisoner has rather a prepossessing appearance. Murders are multiplying over the land, while red murder stalks out streets and highways in the broad, garish light of day.

☞ Charlotte Ramsey, or "Old Charlotte," as she was familiarly termed, who has been the caterer in the culinary department at every wedding in all the country around for years, until finally she was regarded as a necessity at such places, died of Typhoid Fever, in this place, last Thursday. "Old Charlotte" was formerly a slave, we believe, "away down in old Louden" county, Virginia.—She was a universal favorite in town, a fact which was well attested by seeing some of the most worthy and estimable ladies of town attending by her bedside relieving her wants, and smoothing the pillow of death.

☞ The Court House has been undergoing repairs for a few weeks back, which adds greatly to its appearance, and to that part of town.

Family Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Belmont County Bible Society auxiliary to the American Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at 1 o'clock on Friday, Nov. 19, 1858, at which the Rev. T. C. Hartshorn, Bible Agent for Eastern Ohio, Rev. J. B. Graham, Rev. S. Y. Kennedy are expected to address the meeting. Each auxiliary Society in the county is respectfully requested to present a full report of their proceedings for the year.

Those who have not yet paid their subscriptions to the Society, will please do so at once.

Great Female Pedestrian Match at New York.

[From The New York Daily Tribune.]

Up to a late hour last night, Montgomery Hall was visited by a curious and half-incredulous throng, to see the females who still walked vigorously on the platform, raised for their pedestrian feat. The match commenced at 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday, and at 12 o'clock on Thursday Flora Temple manifested signs of fatigue. She complained of a cold and walked wearily, while her antagonist, Priceless, was as erect and sprightly as though she was just setting out on an afternoon walk in Broadway. It was predicted that Priceless would win in the prize. But Flora seemed to gain strength as the contest proceeded, and last evening both appeared in fine order, notwithstanding they had been on their feet fifty-seven consecutive hours at 9 o'clock in the evening.

A majority of the persons present had cigars in their mouths, and puffed away as though no females were in the room. The pedestrians complained of this as ungentlemanly. A crazy violin, in the hands of a disinterested person in one corner of the room, sent out occasional discordant notes to cheer the heroines; but whether or not this irregular accompaniment attended their foot-steps, the lioness marched with unfaltering tread. Flora took off her boots and walked in her striped stockings. Both said they felt "tired," but in the dim light of the hall, made more obscure by the smoke, it was hardly observable.

They walked until 3 o'clock this morning, at which time they had been on their feet sixty-three hours. Neither would leave in, though both equally complained of exhaustion and extreme fatigue. Under the circumstances it was agreed that it should be called a "draw game" and that the receipts at the door should be equally divided between them.

A Fortune for Aaron Burr's Daughter.—A correspondent of The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says that a natural daughter of Aaron Burr, and residuary legatee, comes curiously into possession of quite a fortune, in the way: Burr held a lease from Trinity Church of the Richland Hill property, three or four hundred lots in the centre of New York, for sixty-six years. He relet-ed the land for sixty-three years to Astor and others, and their lease expires in 1860. The lease for three years belongs to Burr's daughter, and the claim is indisputable and the value of the lease very great. Already several of the lessees have compromised the claim for from $1500 to $2000.

☞ The La Porte (Ind.) Union says that Schuyler Colfax has received a letter from Senator Douglas, which contains the following remarkable sentence:

"I see that the Republican papers of Illinois and Missouri, and indeed of the entire Northwest, still continue to abuse me. Why is that. Did we not expressly agree that this persecution should cease? This is not fair. I have passed the Rubicon and burned my boats."

Finding his Level.—John Mitchell, editor of The Southern Citizen, announces that after the 15th of November, the place of its publication will be changed from Knoxville, Tenn., to Washington city, the centre of political vagabondism.

Dr Sauty.—There is a wise and self-respecting Englishman of the name of De Sauty, who has shut himself up in a small box at the Trinity Bay end of the Atlantic cable, and will not let any body come inside. A gentleman who has traveled a long distance to examine the telegraph prodigy, was only permitted flatten his nose against the windows, where could see nothing but De Sauty holding on with composure and dignity at the American end of the Atlantic cable. Week after week, and month after month, there De Sauty sits, a more patient angler than Izaak Walton ever dreamed of, with his long line in his hand, fishing for electrical indications.—Every once in a while he gets a bite, and then hoists his window and tells "Peter Cooper," of New York, that he has just had a glorious nibble, and catches a small current," as he calls it, and sends it off to the aforesaid Peter by the next express.—The cable is a heavy and tedious article, but it does not compare in ponderousness with the dignity of De Sauty, nor even in silence with his majestic reserve. He is believed to be the wisest looking and biggest man at this time on the American continent. It would not be at all surprising if the smart fellow had been receiving intelligence from England, and monopolizing it for the aggrandizement of his intellect. We insist that the telegraph shall be opened, and De Sauty dissected, to see whether he has not surreptitiously stuffed himself with ocean telegraph, cable currents, and electrical indications.—Richmond Dispatch.

☞ The Springfield Republican says that as a little boy of that city was walking with his mother the other evening, while the comet was blazing forth in its splendor, the mother said: 'Willie, why don't you look at the comet?' 'Where is your comet?' he asked. 'Is that it—that big star squirting water?'

The Old Story.—The Statesman of Wednesday, in alluding to the rather unfavorable result of the late election, says:

"Pick your flints, Democrats, and rub up your arms. Victory and Democracy are now synonymous—and whatever betide now, Ohio must be a Democratic State at the next election, and for a long time to come."

This has been the song for several years past, and promises to be for several years to come. Like Mackay's 'good time coming,' Ohio being a Democratic State is a long way in the future. We haven't heard that our public schools are deteriorating, and we judge therefore, that the chances for the Locofocos carrying Ohio are rather slim. Still, gas is cheap and plenty at The Statesman office, and it costs them nothing to whistle to keep their courage up.—Zanesville Courier.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

New York, Nov. 2.

Election is proceeding quietly in the city. The fighting wards are all serene, and the turnout of voters is comparatively meagre. Weather cloudy, with raw East wind.—Several strong Democratic wards are calling Hon. Jno. Kelly, the specific nominee.

New York, Nov. 2.

A row occurred in the 1st ward this afternoon. Several policemen were knocked down by the Walbridge anti-Tammany candidate for Congressman, while the former were protecting United States soldiers in voting for Hon. Dan'l E. Sickles.

New York City, Nov. 2.

Fourth Ward, Parker 1,871, Morgan 376, Burrows 81. First Ward, Parker 1,356, Morgan 243, Burrows 60. Tenth Ward, Parker 1,403, Morgan 900, Burrows 288.—Ninth Ward, Parker 1,977, Morgan 2,069, Burrows 1,183. Twenty-second Ward, Parker 1,877, Morgan 1,314, Burrows 128. Eighteenth Ward, Parker 2,182, Morgan 1,580, Burrows 386. Sixth Ward, Parker 2,265, Morgan 280, Burrows 27. Sixteenth Ward, Parker 2,155, Morgan 1,770, Burrows 604.

The following returns for Governor from the city wards have been received: Second Ward, Amasa J. Parker, Dem., 258; Edwin D. Morgan, Rep., 181; L. Burrows, Am., 97. Third Ward, Parker, 422; Morgan, 318; Burrows, 58.

Utica, Nov. 2.

Roscoe Conkling, Repr, has been elected to Congress from the 20th District.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION.

Boston, Nov. 2.

The election is progressing quietly. In the 5th Congressional District at noon, the vote in the city wards stood: Anson Burlingame, Rep., 1,320; John J. Heard, Dem., 121. In Cambridge, Burlingame is 100 ahead. In the 4th Cong. Dist., the vote stood: Alex. H. Rice, Rep., 728; S. W. Waldron, jr., Dem., 579; N. A. Thompson, Am., 267. For Governor, mostering returns from 12 wards, sum up: Nathaniel P. Banks, Op., 1,832; Erasmus D. Beach, Dem., 1,665; A. Lawrence, Am., 308.

The result of the election in this State to-day, judging from the returns thus far, are favorable to the Republicans. In this city, the vote for Governor foots up: Banks 6,348, Beach 6,357; Lawrence 9,162. The returns from 70 cities and towns give a plurality of 9,000 for Banks.

The Democrats have elected B. F. Butler to the State Senate; Caleb Cushing to the House. In the 4th Congressional District A. H. Rice, Rep., elected by 1,000 plurality. In the 5th Dist., Burlingame's election is conceded. In 6th Dist. John B. Alley, Rep., elected.

DELAWARE ELECTION.

Wilmington, Nov. 2.

The Full Ward of this city gives 16 maj. for People's ticket. First Ward, Wm. Burton, Dem., for Governor has 59 majority and W. G. Whitly, Dem. for Congress, 70 majority.

ILLINOIS ELECTION.

Trenton, Ill., Nov. 2.

St. Clair county—In this precinct, for Congress, Baker, Rep., 68, Fowkes, Dem., 53. For Representatives, Henry, Rep., 56, Hoit, Dem., 60; Hackett, Ind., 1. For State Treasurer, Miller, Rep., 58; Funday, Dem., 59. For Sup't Public Instruction, Bateman, Rep., 40; French, Dem., 76.

MICHIGAN ELECTION.

Detroit, Nov. 2.

The city gives Democratic State ticket from 300 to 400 maj. The Republicans claim the election of 8 of 11 Aldermen, and a portion of the county ticket.

Returns from the State are meagre and indicate a light vote polled in consequence of a severe storm which prevailed throughout the State. The Republicans have undoubtedly elected all their Congressmen.

Bird Business Writing of 1858.—During the past two weeks, at the Ohio State Fair, at Sandusky, at Wheeling, Va., at Greensburg, Washington, Mercer and Beaver, Pa., all the fire writers of the West exhibited their best specimens of Business and Ornamental Penmanship.

The Iron City College, which has drawn all the Premiums in Pittsburgh, and in Eastern and Western Cities, over all competitors, for best Pen and Ink Writing, again adds new laurels to her fame by excelling all in best specimens of Penmanship.—Pittsburg Evening Chronicle, Sept. 27th.

Phila., March 30, 1858.

Dear Sir: A few weeks since I was suffering under a severe cold, which like the old 'Tyler Grip,' took complete possession of my system, racking me with pains in the joints, headache, sore throat, and a feeling of general languor and debility, almost unbearable. Consoling myself with the reflection that it was only a common cold, and would soon pass off, I took no remedy for it; but it rapidly became worse, and I was compelled to make some effort to check its progress. I therefore bought a bottle of your Balsamic Cordial, and I am happy to say that its effects were almost magical; in three days' time the 'grip' was loosened, and at the end of the week I was completely cured. I should now unhesitatingly recommend your Cordial to all similarly afflicted. Yours, truly, G. W. JONES.

Prepared only by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418, Arch Street, Philadelphia, and for sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States and Canada. Price 75 cts. per bottle. nov4 1m.

Medical Science.

The history of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, the most remarkable Medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, places it among the most astonishing discoveries that has taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the mids of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS! Physicians prescribe it. Why should you discard it! Judges usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it! Clergymen and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you! Let not your prejudice usurp your reason; to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick and require a medicine try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418, Arch Street, Philadelphia and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the U. States, West Indies, Canadas and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See the the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle. nov4 1w

Wheeling, Va.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

SUPERIOR INDUCEMENTS TO CASH TRADE!

STONE & THOMAS

HAVE NOW OPEN FOR EXAMINATION as large, and, in many respects, the most desirable Stock of

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY GOODS, AND CARPETING,

They have yet offered to the public.

Their stock embraces the Largest Variety, both in Price and Styles, that can be found in the city.—Many years experience in buying goods for a trade which, from a small one, has become very much the largest in the city, has proved to us that the true way to buy is with the Cash, (in this manner we buy four fifths of all our goods.) It gives us an advantage that no old style merchant can ever have. We will sell many styles of goods as cheap as they can buy—and in no case will we be undersold by any house in the West, either Wholesale or Retail. Our stock is by far the largest, and our sales 50 per cent larger than any similar house in Western Virginia.

Among our Goods may be found the

RICHEST AND MOST DESIRABLE SILKS,

Of every variety and style, (we give a choice in a stock worth $10,000.) ROBES, PLAIDS, and BALMORELS, (as rich as Silk.) Our stock of CLOAKS AND SHAWLS has never been so large and desirable, nor so cheap. We have the finest stock of

Merinos, Cashmeres,

AND DE LAINES, of every shade, some of the finest we ever bought, 2 yds. wide, for Shawls.

Our stock of DOMESTICS, BROWN AND BLEACHED GOODS, CANTONS, PRINTS, GINGHAMS AND DE LAINES, and of WOOLENS, such as CLOTHS, SATINETS, CASSIMERES, BLANKETS, &c., has never been so desirable, nor bought so low. Only think, Hamilton De Laine, best quality, at 18 cts.

CARPETING.

INGRAIN, BRUSSELS, FLOWERED AND STRIPED FINE RUGS, OIL CLOTHS AND WINDOW SHADES. We think we cannot be excelled. Our stock is very large, and we will sell from 10 to 15 cts. per yard less than ever before.

OUR STOCK OF MILLINERY GOODS,

BONNETS, RIBBONS, VELVETS, etc., is very full and desirable.

In our whole stock may be found many of the best bargains we ever sold. We solicit an examination and pledge the public that no effort shall be wanting on our part to make the "Golden Bee Hive" the store to buy goods at. Goods sent to any part of the City, Steamboats, Cars, or Hotels, Free of Charge. Remember the sign, "The Golden Bee-Hive," near the Suspension Bridge.
