For Pike's Peak.

Quite a number of the citizens of this county, we are sorry to say, have become the victims of the Pike's Peak gold delusion and intend to start for the head waters of Cherry Creek, about the 28th of this month. They will make St. Joseph, Missouri, a point of rendezvous, where they will procure their outfit of teams &c., for the long journey across the Plains. Among those, who will leave this place, are Dr. R. McD. Gibson, Dr. F. Franklin, Mayor Keene, P. Speilman, A. Newman, M. Martin and L. A. Bellhars; besides, Ben. Gibson, W. H. Patterson and a number from the country. Success attend you, gentlemen; but do not forget to call and get the Printer's "receipt in full," before you start, as a certificate of good character and a sure protection against all the dangers of the journey.

Sad Accident.

On Sabbath evening last, a young lady from Green Springs, named Francis, was run over by a hand car, on the railroad near this place, and badly injured. In company with several young men, she had come up in the morning for the purpose of attending church. In the evening, they started home and had only proceeded a little way, when the lady's clothing caught on the track and she was thrown off in front of the car, which passed over her body, cutting and bruising it in a frightful manner; but, as we understand, no bones were broken. She was brought back to the house of a friend and medical aid procured. She is still lying in a critical condition, but her injuries are not regarded as likely to prove fatal.

Plant Shade Trees.

The season is now upon us, when it is proper to plant and replant trees and shrubs—not only fruit but ornamental and shade trees. Our citizens should not let the season pass by, without improving it. Nothing tends to make a town appear more beautiful, inviting and pleasant, than to see the retired streets lined with shade trees and pleasant homes peeping out from among them. They relieve a place of its monotony and cheer the heart with their freshness and fragrance, and the songs of birds, which they invite. If you can do nothing else, plant a tree. It will grow up, a monument of your generous act and posterity will bless you for it.

Decidedly Mean.

The Treasury Investigation Committee have been guilty of some mean contemptible flings at Tiffin and the people hereabouts, which deserves proper resentment, and if either of them ever comes this way, we hope they will be treated to an external application of shoe-leather, or something equally tangible. As a citizen of Tiffin and a public journalist, we have no sympathy for a set of men, who will go out of their way and out of the business of their commission, to throw "dirty water" upon Tiffin and some of her worthiest citizens. Because Breslin and Gibson lived here, therefore, the Committee argue, we are all scoundrels.

School Examination.

The Examination of the several departments of the Union Schools of this city below the High School will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The examination of the High School scholars will be commenced on Wednesday afternoon and continued through Friday afternoon. The exercises will consist of a review of classes in Reading, Geography, Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Philosophy, Chemistry, History, Astronomy, German, French, and Latin, together with the reading of original essays, the papers published by the school, and the recitation of extracts from favorite authors and orators. All are most cordially invited to attend.

The Waverly Novels.

We have received from T. B. Peterson & Bro., Philadelphia, "Ivanhoe," the first of the series of the well known "Waverly papers," by Walter Scott. There are 26 in all and they are to appear complete, in pamphlet form, one every Saturday, until all are published. Price 25 cts each—four for $1.00 or $5 for the whole series. This is much the cheapest form in which these admirable works can be obtained and we advise all, who have not read them, to send for them, as they appear. Address T. B. Peterson & Bro., Publishers, Philadelphia.

Wheat in the Ground.

The late warm weather has effected a perceptible change in the appearance of the wheat fields, in this vicinity. That, which has not been entirely drowned out by the wet weather, is beginning to wear a healthy appearance and the indications at present are that we will have an average yield. As we have before remarked, that put in with drills has suffered least from the injurious effects of the winter. There was an unusually large amount sowed last fall in this county and we hope for a bountiful yield.

Fruit Prospect.

From personal observation and the accounts of others, we are inclined to believe that the fruit crop in this county is still safe, and that we may look for an abundant yield, the coming season, unless we have some hard freezing hereafter—Peaches and cherries are said to be uninjured, but there is great danger of the buds swelling too soon.

The Treasury Report.

This interminable document is entirely too long for publication in our columns. It would occupy four entire sheets of the TRIBUNE, to the exclusion of all other matter. We have endeavored to secure a number of copies for the benefit of our readers, but have not been able. We shall have to be content with giving extracts, now and then, of the most important parts.

A Public Nuisance.

The bridge across the ravine, near the graveyard, has become entirely unsafe for foot passengers and, if not removed soon, may cause loss of life and broken limbs. It is a nuisance that ought to be abated. Whose business is it to see to the matter?

☞Six new converts were immersed by Rev. Mr. Fisher, of the Baptist Church, on last Sabbath.

☞Read carefully all the new advertisements in this paper, particularly the "Statement" of the County Treasurer and Auditor.

☞Last Friday night, a storm passed over this place accompanied by a very "loud" wind, in some places demolishing fences and trees.

☞We have received the March number of the "Western Law Monthly," published at Cleveland, Ohio. We have heretofore had occasion to speak of this work, as one of ability and merit.

☞PETERSON for April has made its appearance. Peterson never lags either in point of time or interest. Those, who examine its pages, will be surprised to find the rich treasures there concealed. The ladies will find in it not only a review of the Fashions, but wholesome instruction in all the domestic and social duties of life. Address T. B. Peterson & Bro., Philadelphia. Price $2, or $1.25 taken with the TRIBUNE.

Attend to it.

We hope the Republicans, in the different townships, will act in concert and nominate their candidates for the Spring election, which comes off on the 4th of April. We are prepared to print the tickets for the different townships, very low and in good style.

Run Over.

While a young man, named Banner, was driving a team, loaded with ashes, in the South part of town, on Tuesday, the horses took fright and ran; Banner was pitched out and the wheels passed over one of his legs, crushing it in a frightful manner.

Godey for April.

This is decidedly a brilliant number, replete with good things for the ladies. The fashion plates are new and fully up with the times. We commend GODEY to all, who desire to keep themselves posted in the world of Fashion, Beauty and Art. Taken with the TRIBUNE only $2 a year.

The Ohio Mower and Reaper.

A model of this celebrated farming apparatus was shown us the other day, by Mr. Marsh, the traveling agent; and, from our limited knowledge of agricultural implements, we have no hesitation in pronouncing this one of the most complete pieces of machinery of its character that it has been our wont to witness. This machine has two driving wheels independent of each other, though they act in concert and give double the power of the one wheel driver. The cutter bar, is attached by a hinge which enables it to pass freely over uneven surfaces; adapting itself to all inequalities and doing its work surely and easily. The machine may be thrown out of gear, the cutter bar folded up, and the whole concern rendered portable as a cart in a moment. The machine is manufactured by Hall & Allen, Mansfield Ohio. See advertisement.

Coal Oil and Lamps.

Coal Oil, for the purposes of light, is a recent discovery. The experiment however has been made and has proved eminently satisfactory.—The demand, at present, is so great that the manufacturers are unable to satisfy it. We have been enabled to test the advantages of these lamps, one of which has been furnished us by the Mess. York of this place. We find that the Coal Oil, yields a very pure, steady light, much brighter and stronger than that of the common burning fluid, and, when properly managed, generates little smoke or dirt. It is entirely safe, there being no more danger of explosion than in the use of common lard oil. The oil retails at $1.25 per gallon and a pint of it, in an ordinary sized lamp, will last for five or six nights, yielding as much light as four candles. The lamp is very simple, but ingenious, in construction and can be managed without the least trouble. Both the lamps and the oil can be obtained at Yerks.

For the Tribune.

The Sunny Side.

Mr. and Mrs. McLain hereby acknowledge the kindness of the many friends who visited them on Wednesday, and Wednesday evening of last week, as manifested by them in leaving many tokens of their favorable regards, which are useful in supplying the wants, both of the outward and inward man.

The ability and taste of the ladies in preparing and arranging an elegant supper were clearly manifested, and seemed to be fully appreciated by all. The deportment of the young people was so praiseworthy as to awaken our deepest interest in their present and future happiness. Altogether the occasion has formed a bright link in the chain which we hope will long bind us to Tiffin.

NEWS ABOUT HOME.

BODY OF ANGUS FOUND—CORONER'S JURY.—On the 7th of December last, Samuel Angus, a resident of Rollersville, aged about 60 years, came to Fremont; on the 8th he was about town in a state of intoxication, and the last that was seen of him was about dark, on the evening of the 8th. From that time up to Saturday last, it was a mystery as to what had become of him. Many curious stories were put in circulation, and that he had been seen at different points. On Saturday evening last his body was found in the Sandusky river about three miles below the bridge, and brought to town. On his person was found his pocket book and papers, watch, and $11 in money. A coroner's inquest was commenced on Monday to ascertain, if possible the cause of his death. The jury adjourned Tuesday noon until Friday (to day,) 11th, for further testimony, and the examination has not yet been concluded.—FREMONT JOURNAL.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Henry Obermoyer, son of William Obermoyer, of Washington township, living eight miles west of this place, shot himself on Tuesday evening, 8th. He loaded his rifle about 5 o'clock, to fire at a mark, and in stepping off his porch, in presence of his family, slipped, and in his effort to recover and prevent falling the but of the gun struck the ground, the muzzle coming against his stomach. The gun discharged, and the contents, ball, powder and wad went into his bowels. He lingered in intense agony until a few minutes before 11 o'clock, when he died. Mr. Obermoyer was a much respected farmer; leaves a wife and five or six children.—FREMONT JOURNAL.

☞A gang of counterfeiters, who appear to exist in force in and about Galion, this State, have been traced out and three of the number arrested. A correspondent of the Cincinnati COMMERCIAL, writing from Galion, says it is reported that several well-known persons in that section are implicated with the gang.

FRUIT.—Those who have examined the buds of the fruit trees and shrubs say that they are not yet injured by the winter, and that there is a very fair prospect of a bonnitful crop, providing that the spring frosts do not prove too severe and late. A plentiful supply of peaches may be looked for, in this vicinity, as nearly every tree is filled with healthy, vigorous buds. As to pears and apples, we learn that the indications are quite favorable for a good yield in this county.—TOLEDO HERALD.

PIKE'S PEAK.—Mr. John Beckwith, of this place, started yesterday, for Pike's Peak. We hope he may find gold abundant, and return with a pocket full of rocks.—BUCYRUS JOUR.

☞The "local" of the Bucyrus FORUM perpetrates the following. He should be tried for murder.

CONUNDRUM.—Why is a young lady like the Pike's Peak gold diggins? Because she is a dam sal.

Court of Common Pleas—February Term 1859.

REPORTED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE TRIBUNE.

WEDNESDAY 33d day of the term.—The case of the State vs. Adam Gwinner—as mentioned in our last, has occupied the entire time since the closing of our last report. The testimony has been so voluminous, there having been over one hundred witnesses examined, that a review of it all would occupy too much space.

The indictment charges that the Defendant, Adam Gwinner, did, on the night of the 23d of September last, set fire to, and destroy, the barn of Anton Shirock, in Liberty township.

Examination of witnesses closed Tuesday night at 11 o'clock. Case argued to-day—opened on behalf of State by Robt. L. Griffith, prosecuting attorney. Argued for Defense by W. P. Noble & C. K. Watson. Argument closed on part of the State by J. C. Lee.

To Bridge Builders.

In another part of this paper will be found a notice, for proposals to build an Iron or Wooden Truss Bridge across the mouth of Rock Creek—the bridge to be 56 feet in length, 19 feet wide, with foot walks on each side. Also proposals to build the abutments, will be entertained.

Announcements.

Candidates can have their names announced in the TRIBUNE by paying $1 each.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce the name of Hiram Britton, as a candidate for reelection to the office of City Marshal, at the coming municipal election.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce the name of John Walker, as a candidate for Supervisor, in the 1st Ward of Tiffin.

DIED,

In this City, on Monday evening last, Mrs. Juliette Mason, daughter of the late Josiah Hedges, and relict of the late Dr. Joseph Mason, aged about 47 years.

The death of this excellent lady will cause deep regret to all who had an acquaintance with her. She was a dutiful wife, an affectionate daughter and a devoted, loving mother. Her disease was consumption. During her long illness she bore herself with exemplary patience and fortitude. She commenced sinking rapidly on Saturday last, and though aware that she was rapidly approaching the "dark valley," she was neither frightened nor cast down, for she knew she had a Savior to lean upon, who would welcome her to the abode of the blest. On Monday evening, calling her weeping children and her friends to her bedside she bid them a long, kind farewell, stating to them that she was resigned and happy, saying in her last faint whisper—"I am nearing home." Truly—truly—"blessed are they who die in the Lord."
