Town and Parish News.
-The Peninah passed up yes terday morning.
-Job Printing neatly executed at this office, at lowest prices.
-Craypish, when the water goes down, will be plentiful.
-Nerther the Dagos, the monkeys nor the bears, were on the streets yesterday.
-Mrs. H. C. Duncan is expect d home on Monday from Washington, in this State.
$-\mathrm{Mr}_{\mathrm{r}}$. B. Pressburg and B. H. Randolph were in Town yesterday. Also Mr. Wim. French.
-Tme present spell of weather is very damaging to the corn and cotton crop of the Parish.
-Mr. Jonas Rosenthal has our thanks for a sample lot of peaches, gathered from his garden and sent to this office on Thursday
-We failed to learn the action of the Parish Advisory Committee of the World's Exposition, at thei meeting held yesterday afternoon.
-Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Rougeau artived here yesterday by train from their country home. They will remain until Sunday evening.

- We will give a year's subscription of the Tri-Weekly Demcras to the party bringing us the largest watermelon by the first of Jule. Hurry up!
-It makes very little difference to Annt Eliza Marray who's nomi mated at Chicagn, she's going to heep her tablas supplien with the best the market affords.
For Sale.-A hunse with hall a square of gromid; very desirable property, on Third Street, near Morgan Depot. Terms reasomable Apply at this office for particulars.
$-\mathrm{Mas}_{\text {as }}$ Watts, Clerk of the Diswict Court, has received the commissions of the different Magis trates and Notaries throughout the Parish, elected at the recent election, held in May
-Just at the presont writing vegetables of all kinds are very plentifnl. Among the many kinds offered to the trade are tomatoes, encumhers, squashes, green peas, corn, cabbages, ete.
- Mr. Henry Heyman returned home on Thursday from Texas. During his sojourn away he visited Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and Galveston. He is "right side up with care." Do you understand? -As will be seen by the river report published elsewhere, "Old Red" has declined about two and one-balf inches since last report. To this may be added a fall during the day yesterday of abont three inches. This is, indeed, glorious news.
Mr. Hood made a good areage s woting bois d'are balls
Thurrsday
Thursday uing, striking eleven out of fith sints; with the first live shots of lroke four. Who,
-AT the suggestion of a number of our towns-people, Mr. A. Al bert, Jr. purposes to-day photographing the old Seminary grounds and bulldings thereon. The same nicely encased in a beantiful frame would make a pretty mantel or parlor ornament.
-At their short session here this weck, the Police Jury transacted very little business, and adjourned until the first Monday in July. By thet time the Governor will have made appointments in this Parish, and the new Police Jurors realy to enter upon the discharge of their duties.
River News.-For the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the Government Observer hore reports a fall in the river of 28 inches; at that hour the Gange reading was 35.05 , making it 28 eet, 9 inches above low water of 1881, and 1 foot, $4 \frac{7}{8}$ inches Lelow high water of 1866.
-W E have receiveda beautifully printed invitation from the Colum bia Athenæum, requesting that we be present at the commencement axercises, which begin on the sth of July and continue till the 11th, and consist in part of a grand concert and soiree dansante. The salutatory is to delivered by Miss Auna W. Looney and the valedictory by Miss Sallie R. Haden. -A.
