NO SECRET FUND TO AID THE CAUSE OF TAFT

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 10.—Publicity of campaign funds is to be made a feature of the coming national campaign so far as the republican national committee is concerned. Judge W. H. Taft discussed the subject today with Frank Hitchcock and George P. Sheldon, the latter treasurer of the national committee. It was decided to comply strictly with the New York law relating to publicity of all funds expended by the national committee. Now all the party leaders who have been here several days have left.

HISTORICAL GIFT TO GIFTED MRS. SOUTHWORTH.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Charmed by her rendition of the Declaration of Independence from memory at the literary exercises on the plaza July 4, Hill C. Moore presented Mrs. H. T. Southworth with a towel made in 1821 from flax of Mrs. Betsy Ross, the woman who made the first American flag. The presentation speech was made by ex-Delegate to Congress J. F. Wilson at an informal dinner given Sunday at the Yavapai in honor of Mrs. Southworth and District Attorney Henry T. Ashton, who delivered the oration.

The towel was presented to Mr. Moore by William Ross of Trinidad, Colorado, fifteen years ago. The towel was made by Mr. Ross' sister from flax planted, harvested and weaved into wearing apparel and household articles by her. She made twenty towels from flax grown on the same patch, all of which are still in possession of families who trace their lineage back to colonial days.

Mr. Moore stated yesterday that he believed Mrs. Santaworth is the most talented woman he ever heard speak from a platform. Remembering that he was in possession of one of the historic towels and that its donor asked him to see that it fell into the possession of a true American, in case he parted with . , he decided to have it presented to Mrs. Southworth, whose ability as an elocutionist and charming personality has contributed to the success of many literary entertainments here. He asked Colonel Wilson, chairman of the literary committee, to present the towel to Mrs. Southworth, which he did Sunday.

MOTHER AND SON BADLY BITTEN BY VICIOUS DOG.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Mrs. John Dole and her little nine year old son, Charles Dole, who were attacked and severely bitten by a vicious dog at the northeast corner of Marina and Carleton streets Tuesday afternoon, were reported resting easy at their home in this city late last night. The dog, which belongs to Mrs. Cook, is being held by the officers to determine whether hydrophobia will develop in the next ten days.

Mrs. Dole and her son were attacked at the front gate of Mrs. Cook's home as they were about to enter the front yard. The dog, which is a mixture of St. Bernard and bulldog, attacked the boy, almost tearing his left eye from the socket. His left cheek is fearfully lacerated, the teeth of the dog penetrating and tearing through the gums.

Mrs. Dole was severely bitten in both arms while trying to rescue her son from the brute. The flesh of one of the arms was fearfully lacerated and almost torn from the bones. The ferocious canine was finally beaten off by the driver of a wagon belonging to the gas company who happened along.
