M. C. R. R.—Trains pass Bolivar as follows: Passenger train, south, 1 35 P M; passenger train, north, 5 50 P M; Freight train, north, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 5 05 P. M.; Freight train, south, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 8.25 A. M. By this arrangement persons visiting Memphis will no longer be compelled to lay over all night at the Junction, but go through to their destination without any stoppage, save the few moments required to change cars. Connections will be equally perfect from Memphis to this point.

GRETNA GREEN OF MISSISSIPPI.—The laws of Mississippi require of the clerks that the consent of the parents shall be had in all cases where the lady is under age, before they can issue permits or license to marry. Sometimes the consent of the "old folks" is more difficult to get than that of the young lady; in many such cases, a resort to flight is had, and Bolivar being very convenient, and immediately on the line of railroad, we frequently have the pleasure of witnessing the union of Mississippi's chivalry and beauty in our midst; indeed, it is such a common occurrence that Bolivar has been styled by some, the gretna green of Mississippi. We would say to the young "blonds" and anxious lassies of Miss., come on, our clerk, Mr. Crawford, is very accommodating and is always on hand to grant you license, while Dr. Black, who keeps an A No 1 Hotel, his apartments always ready, and a minister close by, and we will publish your marriage free of charge. We like such little affairs; they bring money into our county. We will send copies of the Bulletin this week to all the young folks of our acquaintance in Miss. at the expense of Dr. Black and the county court clerk.

NEW COURT HOUSE.—We think that our citizens, with the experience of the last two weeks, ought to be satisfied of the necessity of a new court house. Our recent circuit court has had to hold its session in a little one story shanty barely large enough to seat Judge, jury and lawyers comfortably. We hope our county court will take speedy steps to have our court house rebuilt. Hardeman county is able to build a court house and a good one too. Let us have it gentlemen of the county court, cost what it may!

THE MAILS.—The most annoying of the many perplexities to which our community is heir, is the irregularity of the mails. Frequently we go for two days without a mail, and when it does come, our letters and papers are almost out of date. It not unfrequently happens that letters and papers are one whole week in reaching here from Memphis, while passengers come through in less than five hours. Whose fault is it? Somebody is to blame, and he does not live in Bolivar. Our carrier, Wm. West, is at the depot as regularly as the train comes, but often returns without a mail. Were it not for the irrepressible news-boys, we should be behind the times entirely.

Circuit Court convened in Bolivar on Monday 22d ult., Judge Bond presiding, and continued until Tuesday, the 30th. A large amount of business was transacted, both civil and criminal. Our jail which has for some time been crowded, was almost emptied; seven of its occupants being awarded more elegant quarters at Nashville.

Our town is again presenting a businesslike appearance. Our streets are daily lined with cotton wagons and our merchants are driving a heavy trade. Cotton is selling as high here as in Memphis, with freight added, and the planters are nearly all selling their cotton here instead of shipping to Memphis as heretofore. We heard of one sale, during the week, of eighty five bales to one of our business firms.

Sheriff McCarley left last Wednesday for Nashville in charge of seven delegates to the penitentiary—four blacks and three whites. Six of these prisoners were sent to the penitentiary for stealing and one for an assault with attempt to kill. Their term of service ranges from one to five years. Should Brownlow be on hand when they reach Nashville, we may expect to see the most of these rogues at home again very soon.

Rev. E. H. Osborne performed the rites of marriage between a couple of Brownlow's "beloved" on the street a few days since in presence of quite a number of highly interested spectators. The bridegroom was in a great hurry to have the ceremony over as there was "anoder nigger" in town who was trying to get license to marry the same "gal."

Our town was visited on last Sunday night by a severe storm of wind and rain which played sad havoc with shade trees, window-blinds, etc. The walls of the Baptist church which were left standing since the Sturgis fire in 1864, were blown down.

One of the largest sales of land ever had in this county is advertised by our County Court Clerk, which is to come off to-day. The land will be sold in tracts to suit purchasers. This land is all to be sold for division or settlement of estates.

"MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL AND ARGUS."—This is the title of one of the neatest and most reliable newspapers in the country. The Commercial and Argus is composed of the Memphis Commercial and the Memphis Argus consolidated—both of them strong and able papers heretofore. Trousdale, Keating, Brower & Co. is the style of the present firm. We wish them unbounded success.

SOMETHING NEW IN BOLIVAR.—At last we can boast of having a respectable and genteel Photographic Gallery, such as Memphis or any city need not be ashamed of. Mr. W. T. Brooks, a young man of fine taste and indomitable energy, and a proficient in the art has gone to considerable expense in building and fitting up a first class gallery and is now prepared to get up as good a photograph as can be had anywhere. Mr. Brooks deserves encouragement. Give him a call.

Fleming & Ussery, and Pitser Mill's old stand have received another lot of new and splendid shot guns and rifles, and are constantly making additions to their very extensive stock of dry goods. We understand they are soon to open a large grocery house in connection with their dry goods establishment. They are gentlemen of rare business qualities and deserve a liberal share of public patronage. Don't take our word for it but call and see them.

BLOOD & CO.—"And He said, let there be light"—if you want to dispel darkness, call on Blood & Co., 361 Main street, Memphis, for they are the heaviest dealers in lamps, oils, lanters, etc., in the Valley. They also have an establishment at No. 40 and 40½ Monroe street, where they keep on hand and for sale stoves, tin-ware, zinc, lead, putty and a host of other useful articles.

GO AND SEE.—John Bynum who has finished his new house and is now prepared to do all kinds of watch work at old prices. He warrants his work; his office is convenient and he can always be found at his bench. Don't forget those excellent pebble spectacles and magnificent gold pens he is offering to all who are in need.

The old firm of Bills & Hill has been revived and they are now offering a splendid stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, hats, caps, etc., at the corner store house formerly occupied by John B. Bills & son. Mr. Bills has displayed his usual good taste in the selection of this stock. If you don't believe it go and see!

CHOATE & CO.—At 232 Front street, you will find the mammoth store house of Choate & Co., dealers in hardware, cutlery, plows, stoves, tin-ware, sheet tin, etc. They are heavy dealers and do a legitimate business, always giving satisfaction to their customers.

Adams, Neilson & Co. are still making headway in selling cheap goods. They continue to keep a full stock of everything in their line. Old John Graham is always ready for his "piney" friends.

Dick Wilkerson, ever brave and true, is still running the establishment of Gray & Wilkersons, and is as good a hand with a yardstick as he used to be with an old "Enfield." Gray & Wilkersons don't allow their neighbors to undersell them.

Y. DAY.—Among the many useful places in Memphis is the Art Gallery of Professor Y. Day, corner of Union and Main streets. He is prepared to furnish pictures of every kind in a style inferior to none. His charges are moderate.

"Ever of thee I'm fondly dreaming," is what the young lady said upon beholding Elson's elegant dress goods and new style ladies' hats.

If you want a cheap pair of boots or a nice dress pattern call on Hardy & Wilson. Mr. Hardy has laid aside his robes of office (postmaster) and can now devote all of his time to his customers, and always takes great pleasure in showing his goods.

Dr. John Bull's Cedron Bitters are "all the go" at present. We would advise persons who suffer from indigestion or loss of appetite, to call on Drs. Black & Moore and get a bottle.

LORY.—Joseph Lory can always be found at the Worsham House, where he presides over the best tonsorial establishment ever seen in the city of Memphis.

REMOVAL.—Drs. Mortimore & Payne have removed their office from the Commercial to the Worsham House—room 23 (the same occupied by Dr. Mortimore the past four years) where all who desire to can consult and procure treatment. Special attention given to all the various forms of chronic diseases, especially disease of the lungs and throat, disease of the heart, liver, spleen, kidneys and spine, dyspepsia, chronic cases of the stomach and bowels, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous affections, all the old-style forms of female diseases, as well as diseases having origin in impurities of the blood and vital fluids. Office hours, from 8 o'clock a. m. until 3 o'clock p. m., daily.

We hope our readers will excuse any lack of interest in our paper this week as the Editor has gone to Memphis to collect some money and solicit patronage thereby enabling him to get shoes, flannels, etc. for the little ones. His being absent throws a heavy responsibility upon us—the Devil—as there is no one to fix up locals but us; besides this we have all the work to do.

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," as the young fellow said when his girl was was sitting in his lap with her arms around his neck.

A lady wished a seat. A portly handsome gentleman brought one and seated her. 'Oh' you are a jewel,' said she. 'Oh, no,' replied he, 'I am a jeweller—I have just set the jewel.'

"If you ever marry," said a Roman consul to his son, "let it be a woman who has sense enough to superintend the setting of a meal of victuals, taste enough to dress herself, pride enough to wash before breakfast, and sense enough to hold her tongue when she has nothing to say."

A gentleman rode up to a public-house in the country, and asked, "Who is the master of this house?" "I am Sir," replied the landlord; "my wife has been dead about three weeks."

Out of 2,000 voters in Choctaw county, not one can be found to take the oath, consequently there is not a post-office in the county.

DON'T FORGET IT.—Go to John R. Bynum's and procure for yourself a first class pair of Periscopic spectacles—the best known.
