LITTLE ROCK.

The Baxter-Brooks Difficulty.

Another Proclamation from Brooks.

Preparations for Retaking the State House.

The People in Sympathy With Baxter.

The President Favors Baxter.

Troops Flocking to Little Rock.

A Collision Must Come Soon.

LITTLE ROCK, April 18.—Governor Baxter this morning applied to N. W. Cox, clerk of the supreme court, whose office is in the state house, to supply him with a transcript of the records of the court in the case of Brooks vs. McClure, wherein the court decides in favor of Baxter. The clerk replied by stating that chief justice McClure was the only dissenting judge on that occasion, and who had sworn Brooks in, and the original transcript could not be furnished the governor.

WONT INTERFERE.

Last night Mayor Krame telegraphed the president to direct the United States troops at this point, to assist him in preserving the peace and clearing the streets of armed men. This dispatch was answered by Attorney General Williams today, stating that the general government would not interfere.

THE FLAG.

The United States flag floats from the balcony of the Anthony House, and a brass band enlivened matters this evening by discoursing music at that point

TROOPS ARRIVING.

Several companies have arrived from the country this evening to reinforce Gov. Baxter.

DEPRIVED OF THEIR LIBERTY.

Mr. Brooks has laid formal complaints before Col. Rose, the post commandant, that parties have been deprived of their liberty by Gov. Baxter's forces, and has asked that United States troops interfere to protect them. Col. Rose has declined to interfere, as he has in cases where Mr. Brooks' troops have arrested citizens.

GOV. BAXTER

refuses to make any complaints, stating that he is able not only to protect himself but all the citizens, and asks no assistance. Gov. Baxter still holds the telegraph office. Mr. Brooks has tapped the wires in front of the State house, and has an operator in that building.

This evening Mr. Brooks issued the following

PROCLAMATION:

To the people of Arkansas.

Elisha Baxter, pretending to be governor of the state of Arkansas, on the 16th inst., issued a proclamation placing the county of Pulaski under martial law and has called, so I am informed, upon the militia of the state to aid him in resisting and setting law at defiance.

I am charged by the constitution and enjoined by oath of office to see that laws are promptly and faithfully executed. An attempt to set aside civil law by one who has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction not to be the Governor of Arkansas, and at a time when the President of the United States has notified him that he cannot recognize him as Governor until he shall have appealed to the Supreme Court and there had his rights adjudicated, cannot be longer tolerated. I desire to avoid bloodshed and a destruction of private property. But while this is so, I cannot sit idly by and see the private property of the citizens and the state taken without compensation by an armed mob, and peaceful citizens halted and maltreated under sight of the capital. In the interest of peace and good order I request and command all persons who may have been deluded into rallying to the standard of a pretender, to lay down their arms and return within twenty-four hours.

If this injunction be disregarded I shall be compelled to take such measures as will, in my opinion, result in the suppression of disorder and restoring the peace and quiet of the State. I do not want to be placed under the necessity of proclaiming martial law, believing as I do that life and property can be better protected under the civil law. But if my request is disregarded, those disregarding must not complain of what is in store for them and punishment may be meted out.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed at the city of Little Rock, this 18th day of April, A. D. 1874.

Signed, JOSEPH BROOKS,
Governor of Arkansas.

EDWARD CAMP, Sec'y of State.

THE STATE SEAL.

The state house party broke open the safe and obtained the seal of the State. Gov. Baxter has not yet extended his lines around the state house.

Baxter has from 1,000 to 1,500 men under arms, and the number is being constantly increased. The state house has about 200.

FAVORS BAXTER.

Advices here indicate that President Grant is favorable to Baxter, believing him to be the legal Governor. This has impressed confidence in Baxter.

No one can pass up or down the streets to-night without the countersign or having the pass of some officer.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, April 18.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, April 18—The banks and bridges of the Thames were crowded this afternoon by thousands of people gathered to witness the promised great rise of the river, and in anticipation of which the people of Lambath and other low districts have raised dykes. The tide did rise to an unusual height and is now ebbing, but no damage was done.

Livingston's grave is in the central part of the west nave of Westminster abbey, near that of Stephenson, a celebrated Englishman.

"Ask and it Shall be Given Unto You."

FLOOD FAMINE AND STARVATION.

An Appeal for Aid.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18—The following was telegraphed to-day:

To the Mayors of the principal cities:

Owing to an unexpected overflow of the Mississippi river and its lower branches, by which more than one thousand miles of our state are submerged, many thousands of families are ruined in their fortune and are threatened with starvation. It is beyond the means of our citizens who have escaped from this great calamity, to give adequate relief to the sufferers. I have therefore thought it proper to give an opportunity to your citizens to aid. The contributions of the philanthropic are earnestly solicited for these victims of the two fold visitation, flood and famine.

[Signed] L. A. WILTZ, Mayor.

NEW YORK.

ONE THOUSAND LABORERS DISCHARGED.

IDENTITY OF A SUICIDIST.

NEW YORK, April 18—The commissioners of parks to-day discharged 1000 laborers, the construction fund being exhausted.

The mayor received a telegram from Mayor Wiltz, of New Orleans, asking for contributions from the citizens of New York for the relief of many thousand families in Louisiana, ruined in fortunes and threatened with starvation by the overflow of the Mississippi river and its lower branches.

Albert Walner, who committed suicide at a hotel in Hoboken 3 months ago, turns out to be Johnson Kreivel, who was in the Royal Hungarian treasury and who absconded with fifty thousand dollars worth of railroad bonds. Owners of the bonds have begun suit to recover 20,000 dollars in money and valuables found in his possession at the time of his death.

Judge Blackford has ordered that the books of Platt & Boyd, seized by the Custom house authorities, be returned to the firm. He refused to allow the district attorney to keep the books longer for trial on the ground that they were only seized for the information of the collector, who had sufficient time to examine them.

LUDICEROUS.

JEFFERSONVILLE, April 18.—A solemn but ludicrous scene of an apparently solicitic nature occurred this p. m. in this city. While the crusaders were in the street besieging Greiners saloon, a man named Alexander, said to be a portrait painter and actor from Louisville, Ky., knelt in prayer with the crusaders and while a fervent prayer was being offered up great tears trickled down his cheeks. The crusaders surrounded him and presented their pledge, but he quietly shook his head, crossed the street, entered Falls City hotel, took two drinks of whisky and with a bland smile left for Louisville.

OBITUARY.

PITTSBURG April 18.—Hon. A. P. Callow, Mayor of Allegheny City, died at his residence this forenoon. He was serving his second term as Mayor of that city. He served in the late war as Adjutant of the 102d Pennsylvania Volunteers, receiving a severe wound, from which he never entirely recovered. This, with a complication of diseases, caused his death. He was also a member of the International Typographical Union.

Swiss, the very finest. Nainsooks and Victoria Lawns, Silks and Silk trimmings in beautiful colors. Domestic and Calico, the cheapest and finest stock in the city; also a large stock of piece goods, such as Cassimeres, Cottonades, Lawsn, T and M Linen, Checks, etc., etc. Our stock of shoes is very large and we defy competition. Our stock of gloves is large and will be sold very cheap. We have also just received 500 dozen of Coats' and Clark's cotton thread which we offer at 5 cents per spool. Our reasons for appearing before the public in this manner is that we have never kept so large and fine a stock of goods as we now have. We ask a liberal patronage of the public, as we have purchased our goods for cash and can afford to sell them cheap. We ask parties to call and look through our goods, as we find it no trouble to show goods. We are determined to sell as cheap as any house in the city if not cheaper.

In fact, we defy competition in many articles, as we buy all goods for cash, and seek the right place to buy, and are always on the lookout for bargains.

Our thanks for patronage heretofore, hoping we will still retain a portion of the same in the future.
