A WOMAN'S SHAME.

A POSTMASTER'S WIFE AS A MAIL ROBBER.

A letter to 'The Boston Transcript' gives the particulars of the discovery of a robber who has for some time been pilfering the mails in Vermont:

"Complaints were made," says the correspondent, "as early as last March that letters passing over the mail route between Bethel and Middlebury had been rifled, and about a fortnight ago Special Agent Camp, of Boston, was detailed by the postoffice department to visit this locality and work up the case. He made a minute survey of the field, and finally took lodgings at an old farm-house near Hancock, where he assumed the character of a railroad conductor on a vacation, whiling away his leisure hours in fishing for the speckled beauties which frequent the brooks meandering among the hills; and dressed in a farmer's old and faded suit, with a tall and antiquated-looking white felt hat of the fashion of half a century ago, he would drive from point to point, starting his decoy letters, tracing them from one office to another, intercepting the mails on the highway, frightening the carrier out of his wits by producing his commission, stating his business and proceeding leisurely to open the bags and make investigations.

"Repeated efforts in this direction at length disclosed the fact that the letters would proceed safely as far as Hancock, and there disappear from the mails. The once being located, the next point was to identify the criminal—no easy task, in view of the fact that only Mr. Jewett and his wife ever attended to the mails, and the reputation of both would successfully combat suspicion until evidence of actual guilt could be obtained. Mr. Camp's suspicions reluctantly fastened upon Mrs. Jewett, for twice, in passing the office, he had observed her overhauling the letters while no one else was in the office, and it was not the hour for either distributing or making up the mails."

Last Monday morning the agent called on Mr. Jewett to talk over the robbery, and asked to see his wife, as she "might have some suggestions to make." Mr. Jewett showed all the money he had, without disclosing any of the marked bills, and Mrs. Jewett's pocket-book was quite as free from suspicion. At length an old greasy wallet was reluctantly produced by Mrs. Jewett, which she said contained "only some scrip," and in it were four marked ten-cent bills, which the agent had mailed at Bethel. The proof was adduced, the crime changed upon the wife in the presence of her husband, who was completely overcome and unable to utter a word for a few minutes. Mrs. Jewett, after repeated denials, confessed to having stolen all the other letters, and returned the money, which she had hidden on a shelf in the pantry, under a newspaper, on which was placed a pile of dishes.

Mr. Jewett has been the postmaster at Hancock for several years, and has been superintendent of schools and hold a prominent social position. His health is poor, and it is feared that the effects of the disclosure will prove fatal. Mrs. Jewett was allowed to remain with her husband, surety being given for appearance when called upon.

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT IN AID OF THE
Public Library of Kentucky.
JULY 31, 1874.

In announcing the Fifth and last of the series of Gift Concerts, given for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, the trustees and manager refer with pride and pleasure to the four which have been already given: The first, December 16, 1871; the second, December 2, 1872; the third, July 8, 1873; and the fourth, March 31, 1874.

Under their charter, granted by a special act of the Kentucky Legislature, March 16 1871, the Trustees are authorized to give ONE MOORE, and ONLY ONE MOORE Gift Concert. With the money arising from the Fifth and Last concert, the Library, Museum, and other departments are to be enlarged and endowed with a fixed and certain annual income. Such an endowment fund is desired, as will secure beyond peradventure, not only the maintenance of this magnificent establishment, but its constant growth.

The Fifth Gift Concert,

DR. RANSOM'S
HIVE SYRUP AND TOLU
—OR—
HONEY SYRUP

Dr. Cox's Hive (Croup) Syrup has been known and used by the medical profession over 100 years, and as a remedy for Gold and Coughs has an older and better reputation than any other Cough medicine ever offered to the public. It is known as the Compound Syrup of Squills, and a formula may be found in every medical dispensatory.

Dr. Ransom's Hive Syrup and Tolu, in addition to the ingredients for Cox's Hive Syrup, contains Balsam of Tulu, decoction of Skunk Cabbage Root and Lobelia, a combination that must commend it to every one as a superior remedy for Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, indeed for all affections of the Throat and Lungs when a cough medicine is necessary.

This Syrup is carefully prepared under the personal direction of a regular Physician of over twenty years' practice, whose signature is attached to the directions on the bottle.

Its taste is very pleasant and children like it.

Every family should keep it as a ready remedy for Croups and Colds, etc., among the children.

D. RANSOM, SON & Co., Propr's, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. J. R. MILLER'S UNIVERSAL
MAGNETIC BALM.

This medicine may with propriety be called an "Universal Remedy," as it is fast superseding all others as a general family medicine. It cures, as if by MAGNETIC INFLUENCE, Neuralgia and all pain, and is therefore very properly termed "Magnetic Balm." It is purely a vegetable preparation. It has no equal as a remedy for Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Dysentary, Colic and all Bowel Complaints.

Its timely use will cure Colds, Croup, Diphtheria, Quinsy, and all Throat affections.

When properly used, Fever and Ague, and other complaints incident to our western and southern climates, are easily broken up.

Nervous Pain, Sick-Headache, and Rheumatism are cured by this medicine when all others have failed. Toothache, Earache, Burns, Chilblains and Bruises are relieved at once by its use.

The genuine has D. Ransom & Co.'s private Revenue Stamp on the outside, and Dr. J. R. Miller's Magnetic Balm blown in the bottle.

Examine closely and buy none but the genuine.

Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cents per bottle.

MOTT'S
LIVER PILLS!
An old physician once said that nearly all diseases originate from A DISEASED CONDITION OF THE LIVER, and this statement is true, although it may at first seem like an exaggeration. When the Liver is out of order the whole system and every organ and function suffer more or less in consequence. In the incipient stages of the disease a man
DOES NOT KNOW WHAT AILS HIM.
He is moody, restless and despondent; and that is the time to take a SIMPLE REMEDY that will restore him to health.
IN A SINGLE DAY,
and prevent a whole train of diseases that may follow.
MOTT'S LIVER PILLS cure torpidity of the Liver.
MOTT'S LIVER PILLS give tone to the stomach.
MOTT'S LIVER PILLS cleanse the system of bile.
MOTT'S LIVER PILLS drive out febrile affections.
MOTT'S LIVER PILLS strengthen the whole system.
MOTT'S LIVER PILLS regulate the Liver, and are more reliable as a Liver medicine than any of the mineral preparations that DO MORE HARM THAN GOOD.

Prospectus for 1874 . EVENTH YE
THE ALDINE.
An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest periodical in the World. A representative and champion of American taste
NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORE
The Aldine, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimen of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, the Aldine is an unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competitor in price or character.
ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.
The illustrations of the Aldine have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production.
The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.
The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.
PREMIUMS FOR 1874.
Every subscriber to the Aldine for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos The original pictures were painted in oil to the publishers of the Aldine, by Thoma Moran, whose great colorado pictures and purchased by congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives the Cliffs of Green river, Wyoming territory. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size 1(2x16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals.
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20, 1873.
Messrs. James Sutton & Co.:
GENTLEMEN—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings.
Very respecfully, THOS. MORAN.
These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an orinal American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of the Aldine.
If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home" a new and beatiful chromo, 14x20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.
$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.
For $50 CENTS EXTRA, the chromos, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.
The Aldine will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will no be reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facimile signature of James Sutton & Co.

Centaur Liniment.

The great discovery of the age. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling which it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. It is no humbug; the recipe is printed around each bottle. A circular containing certificates of wonderful cures of rheumatism neuralgia, lock-jaw, sprains, swellings, burns, scalds, caked-breasts, poisonous bites, frozen feet, gout, salt rheum, ear-ache &c., and the recipe of the Liniment will be sent gratis to anyone. It is the most wonderful healing and pain relieving agent the world has ever produced. It sells as no article ever before did sell, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. One bottle of the Centaur Liniment for animals (yellow wrapper) is worth a hundred dollars for spavined, strained or galled horses and mules, and for screw-worm in sheep. No family or stock-owner can afford to be without Centaur Liniment. Price, 50 cents; large bottles, $1. J. B. Rose & Co., 53 Broadway, New York.

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only SAFE article in existence which is sure to regulate the bowels, cure windcolic and produce natural sleep. It is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may sleep 10-7 wly
