Greeneville Items.

GREENEVILLE, May 8

MR. EDITOR: The annual picnic of the Sabbath schools of Greene county was held on the grounds of the Greene county fair association to-day. Very early in the morning parties began to arrive, and by 10 o'clock—the time that the exercises were to begin—a crowd estimated at one thousand persons had assembled. From the beginning to the close the assembly was kept in good spirits by short addresses and by singing by the different schools present. About twenty-five schools were represented. Ten of these were out in full force. A beautiful banner, the gift of Col. J. H. Doughty, was awarded to the school outside of Greeneville having the largest number of scholars present. This was won by Dr. J. P. Easterly's school, of Whittenburg's chapel, 12 miles from town, there being 155 present. Col. Doughty, the donor, presented the banner in a short, spicy speech, which was responded to by Dr. Easterly, superintendent of the victorious school.

Upon the whole this was pronounced the most successful picnic that has yet been held; more interest and enthusiasm was manifested than heretofore. The Sunday school cause in Greene county is not on the wane.

In the absence of Rev. J. J Menker, every pulpit in our town is unsupplied. Nine churches with closed doors and empty stands! A season of prosperity for the proprietor of our "diseased drug store!"

Until the last ten days our prospects for an abundant harvest were more flattering. But since that time rust has made its appearance, and fields which then looked healthy and promising now have a reddish yellow, sickly cast. With the peach crop a total failure and the wheat crop blighting, is it any wonder that the farmer's heart sinks?

Some of our monied men are turning their attention to manufacturing. Two woolen factories have been erected, six miles from here this spring. One by the Stephens Bros., with four looms, the other by G. T. Brown, with four looms also. This is likely to encourage wool growing in this section.

Mr. Van Gunden, of Philadelphia, is here erecting a monument over the grave of A. Johnson, Jr. It is quite a neat design, somewhat resembling the Ex-President's monument, but of course less elaborate and much smaller. On a base of Vermont granite rest four pilasters. These support an arched canopy of Italian marble 4x7 feet. This is surmounted by a beautiful vine-wreathed urn, standing 3½ feet high. The extreme height is 8½ feet. Mr. Van Gunden is one of the firm of Van Gunden & Young, builders of ex President Johnson's monument.

A company of forty men, representing probably $500,000 capital, have purchased the fair grounds and purpose holding a fair next fall, which will do credit not to our county alone, but to East Tennessee. H. R.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.

So great has been the demand for recent numbers of this magazine that the monthly circulation has increased more than 20,000 copies within the year, and the edition for November, 100,000, was exhausted within two weeks after issue. The English edition has recently doubled, and the magazine has everywhere taken its place as the most handsomely illustrated popular periodical published in the English language. Every number contains 160 pages of contributions from the best American authors, and from 50 to 100 wood engravings. The publishers call attention to the following.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1880.

THE REIGN OF PETER THE GREAT, by EUGENE SCHUYLER, will begin in an early number, and continue through two years. It will be a work of great historical significance and of rare graphic and dramatic interest. Bureaus of illustration have been established in Paris and St. Petersburg, specially for the execution of the pictorial part of this enterprise—an enterprise involving a greater outlay than any previously undertaken by a popular magazine.

THREE SERIALS IN SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY BY AMERICAN WRITERS—THE GRANDISIMES, a story of New Orleans Creole life, by G. W. Cable, author of "Old Creole Days." "LOUISIANA, a new novelette, of American Life, by Frances H. Burnett, author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's." CONFIDENCE, by Henry James, Jr., begun in the Midsummer Holiday (August) number.

CANADA PICTURESQUE.—A number of papers by Principal Grant, of McGill University, Kingston, and W. G. Beers and Chas. Fairbairn, are in course of preparation for SCRIBNER'S, which will give thorough accounts of the historical, political, picturesque, and other phases of the country.

PAPER ON ART.—The growth of art has made it necessary for the modern magazine to devote considerable attention to this subject, and in this respect SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY will continue to occupy the leading place, both in the judicious selection and in the artistic execution of the subjects chosen.

POETS AND POETRY.—Edmund Clarence Stedman will contribute to SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY during the coming year critical essays on this subject, including the beginning of the poetic art in this country, and its subsequent history. Richard Henry Stoddard will furnish studies of subjects connected with English poetry, the first paper being on "The English Sonnet."

SAUNTERINGS WITH DICKENS.—A number of unique papers to be contributed to SCRIBNER by Alfred Rimmer, Esq., of Chester, England. For the illustration of these, Mr. Charles A. Vanderhoof has been sent on a special trip to England.

PRACTICAL PAPERS ON HOME SUBJECTS—This class will include a number of finely illustrated papers on "Small Fruits and their Culture," by Rev. E. P. Roe, of Cornwall, N. Y., one of the most successful of horticulturist. Papers on "Church and Home Architecture" will be contributed by Russell Sturgis, Esq.

SPORTS AND RECREATIONS.—In addition to an illustrated account of the recent excursion of the Tile Club in a canal-boat, there will be a number of special papers during the year, upon odd personal experiences, such as Porpoise-Shooting, Walrus Hunting, Lobster-Fishing, Canoeing in the Rapids of the Hudson, and several papers of a novel character.

OTHER FEATURES OF SCRIBNER.—"Extracts from the Journals of Henry J. Raymond," edited by his Son, H. W. Raymond; Accounts of the South Pass Jetties, American Arms and Ammunition in Europe, The U. S. Coast Life-Saving Service, The New Albany Capitol, Child-Saving Work, etc., etc. Sketches of Louisiana Life and Scenery, New-York City and Vicinity, American Life in Florence, Kansas Farming, California Mountain Sheep and Forests (by John Muir), Hog-hunting in Paris, Sheep Ranching in the West, and many other interesting subjects. And there will be the usual variety of essays, poems and short stories.

Price, 35 cents a number, $4.00 a year. For sale and subscriptions received by all Booksellers, Newsdealers, and Postmasters, or sent post-paid by the publishers on receipt of price.
