POETRY.

LOVE'S BEGINNING.

How delicious is the winning
Of a kiss at love's beginning,
When two mutual hearts are sighing
For the knot there's no untying.

Yet, remember, midst your wooing,
Love has bliss, but love has ruing;
Other smiles may make you fickle,
Tears for other charms may trickle.

Love he comes and love he tarries,
Just as Fate or Fancy carries;
Longest stays where sorest chidden.
Laughs and flies when pressed and bidden.

Bind the sea to slumber stilly,
Bind the odor to the lily;
Bind the aspen ne'er to quiver,
Then bind love to last forever.

The Midnight Dispatches.

NEW ORLEANS, April 7.—Cotton irregular, but better qualities are firm. Sales to-day 2300 bales. Receipts 760 bales. Low middling 34@36; flour, superfine, $7 50; corn, mixed and yellow, 82½@85; oats 52½; bacon, shoulders, 13@13¼; mess pork 28; hay $25; sugar, fair to fully fair, 14@14½; molasses nominal; gold 27; sterling 33¼; New York checks ⅜ discount.

The French transport Aleck arrived at Havana on the 27th ult., with 800 troops, en route for Toulon.

The United States gunboat Florida would leave for Aspinwall on the 2d.

Thirteen thousand regulars now constitute the entire force of the Department of Florida.

Crevasses are occurring all along the river, and a devastating flood it is feared has broken out below on the left bank, and it is feared that the Mexican Gulf Railroad and Bayou Bœoff country will be inundated.

A memorial asking for the deepening of the Mississippi passes is circulating, and numerously signed. The co-operation of the Valley Chamber of Commerce is asked for.

The press calls for the return of the libraries taken off during the war.

Good Ones.

The weathercock is said to be the most variable of creatures; and yet it is the only bird that always faces the storm.

There is a man in London in possession of such a powerful memory that he is employed by the Humane Society to remember the poor!

A musical critic speaking of the vocal performance of a singer, said: "We hang upon every note!"—a remarkable proof of the singer's power of execution.

A lot of boys were recently trying to ascertain to what class of trees the Tree of Knowledge belonged, when one little fellow gave it as his opinion that it must be a birch tree.

"Married couples resemble a pair of shears," says Sydney Smith, "so joined that they cannot be separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet always pushing any one who comes between them."

"Heroine" is, perhaps, as peculiar a word as any in our language. The two first letters of it are male, the three first a female, the four first a brave man, and the whole word a brave woman.

One of our cotemporaries, in an obituary of a young lady who lately died closed by saying, "She had an amiable temper, and was uncommonly fond of ice-cream and other delicacies."

A Scotch woman, having invited a gentleman to dinner on a particular day, he accepted it with the reservation, "If I am spared." "Weel, weel," said Mrs. Robinson, "if ye are dead, I'll not expect ye."

Mrs. Partington says the only way to prevent steamboat explosions is to make the engineers bile the water on shore. In her opinion, all the bustin' is done by cooking the steam on board.

A would-be agreeable, taking his seat between Madame de Stael and the reigning beauty of the day, said, "How happy am I to be thus seated between a wit and a beauty!" "Yes," replied Madame de Stael, "and without possessing either."

An old sportsman, who, at the age of eighty-three, was met by a friend riding very fast, and was asked what he was in pursuit of? "Why, sir," replied the other, "I am riding after my eighty-fourth year."

The Fenian Expedition.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Herald gives a rumor that two expeditions—one consisting of three iron-clad steamers, carrying three thousand men, and the other of two steamers with twenty-five hundred soldiers on board—were reported to have sailed for Bermuda, which it was stated was to be taken possession of, and used as a base for the final expedition against Ireland. Other vessels were reported to have sailed from various ports in the United States, all bound for Bermuda. Altogether there was quite a ferment in Fenian circles over the new warlike movements supposed to be under way.

The World says the Fenian expedition is bound for the Island of Campo Belio, at the entrance of Passamaquaddy Bay. Five or six hundred men had gone in small squads to Machias, Maine; there to embark for their destination in schooners.

Two printing presses accompany the expedition, and as soon as a landing is effected, proclamations will be issued to the Fenians of the United States to join them. There are some British troops on the island, who are to be attacked by superior numbers. A provisional government is to be organized, a President elected, New Brunswick to be conquered, Congress established, etc. Killian leads the expedition, supported by Downing and others.

That Speech.

A young man of literary turn of mind, and fond of "schoolmarms," lately visited a school in upper New York, and made a speech on education. He said: "Young ladies and gentlemen, you are gathered here for the purpose of obtaining an education. Education consists in being educated to respect education, learning and education. Education teaches us that education comprises all things learned from education. Educate yourselves, and when you have a good education, you will bless the day that you learned a good education."
