NASHVILLE:

TUESDAY MORNING.. DECEMBER 28, 1858

☞ We have just received additional supplies of Printing Materials and stock of all descriptions, and are better prepared than ever to do Job Printing in the finest style of the art. We solicit orders.

SEVERE AFFRAY.—There was a severe fight occurred on the Murfreesboro' Turnpike, near the corporation limits, on Friday night last. Several were connected with it by sympathy and presence, but the principal actors were MAC. ELLIOTT and JOS. SCOTT. Knives were used freely. ELLIOTT was slightly cut in the shoulder, and SCOTT was wounded in some five places, some of them being very dangerous. He was living yesterday—but his recovery was by no means certain.

ELLIOTT immediately left, but Deputy Marshal WILKINSON, getting wind of his course, went to Murfreesboro', on Sunday, and arrested him just as he was about getting on the cars, and brought him back to the city. He is now in prison, and will undergo a preliminary examination to-morrow.

AN EXCURSION.—We learn that it sufficient inducements are offered, Capt. COBBETT, of the Sallie Wat will make a trip to Memphis and back, embracing the 8th of January. The ceremony of inaugurating the statue of Gen. Jackson in that city will take place on the 8th, on which occasion our fellow-citizen HON. ANDREW EWING, will deliver an address. It will be a most interesting and attractive ceremonial, and will amply repay those who may attend. Capt. COBBETT will leave no stone unturned to make the excursion a highly agreeable one; and we should like to see a sufficient number of our citizens turn out, to just fy the trip.

FIREMEN'S BENEFIT.—Mr. W. H. CRISP—undoubtedly the most liberal, and withal one of the most gentlemanly managers ever in charge of a theatre—gives a benefit to-night to the FIREMEN of our city. No more worthy or higher mark of merit could be conferred upon our city; and none, we are assured, would be responded to more heartily by the Firemen of Nashville. They know Mr. CRISP, and will ever hold in fond remembrance the many favors he has conferred upon them individually. We confidently expect to see a crowded house to-night.

River and Steamboat News.

The river was falling slowly last evening, with water sufficient for all classes of steamers.

The B. M. Runyan, from St. Louis, is due, and will undoubtedly be found at the levee this morning.

The Sallie Wat, the most popular, and without doubt the finest steamer afloat, will leave to day at 12 o'clock for St. Louis and all intermediate ports. Secure rooms early, as she is bound to leave at the appointed hour.

THE THEATRE.—To-night has been set apart as the occasion for the Annual Benefit of the Firemen. Mr. CRISP appears in his great personation of Don Cæsar de Bazan, and Mrs. CRISP, in the comedy of "Woman's Wit," as Zephyrina. To respond to the generosity of Mr. CRISP in a becoming manner, the citizens should turn out en masse on this occasion. We know our Fire Department are as deserving as any body of men can be, and we would feel especial gratification in seeing the Gaiety crowded from pit to dome.

For the Patriot.

I cannot permit the exhibition of last Thursday night, at the First Presbyterian Church, to pass without expressing a sentiment which seemed to pervade the whole auditory then present. Making no pretensions to great musical attainments, nor being one of the paid hackney critics, I give expression only to a candid opinion of what I saw and heard.

The arrangement or programme of the exercises, reflect the highest credit upon Prof. Thurston's tact and skill as a leader and manager. No ostentatious display in word or action was apparent, and his whole demeanor was characterized with that modesty and ease that proved him master of his business.

His concert hall not been heralded to the ends of the earth, announcing an exhibition of Artists and Prima Donnas, of foreign celebrity and queenly and princely patronage; yet, we venture that no audience of greater size, and more select in character, than the one then present, ever graced a hall in Nashville on any similar occasion. It was not a promiscuous dead beat crowd, gotten up for gewgaw display and unrivalled numbers, to give wide spread fame to the vanity of some craven performer—but was composed of quiet worth, to do appreciative justice to modest merit. The audience was more than favorably impressed, and the amateurs received that quiet reward that was, is, and ever will be felt in the hearts of the assembly, as one of the happiest and most elevating hours of their existence.

Nashville should be proud of all such men in her mid-st, and can rest assured that where no vaunting pretensions are forced upon them, that humbug is not there stepping-stone to the public's purse or consideration.

It would be unkind to speak of the individual merits of each performer excepting as a whole. All were necessary and performed their parts in a highly creditable manner, and the modest timidity that brought a halo to the clerks, placed them so strongly in contrast with the vulgarisms of the brazen faces, who generally appear upon the public stage, that in spirit we felt removed beyond ordinary life, and the recipient of favors from that which was more than ordinary mortality. We felt fully recompensed for our money, with the rend ring of any one piece, during the evening, and could we have such exhibitions of merit every week the higher sentiments of our natures would seek for and patronize them, as the harbingers of morality and virtue—the elevators of our race, and make us feel the responsibility of our morality, in securing a peaceful immortality.

Our natures seek for and will have amusements and hours of recreation, and if such places, of the highest moral worth are not within our reach our sons and daughters as well as parents, will seek other scenes where modesty hangs her head, the moral sensibilities are blunt and virtue caused to blush.

To elevate the drama the tastes of the people must reprehend the coarse vulgarisms that are at present so acceptable to a promiscuous theatrical audience, and we know no way by which this can be more effectually done than by the frequent repetition of such concerts as the one of Thursday night last; and we hope those who so kindly contributed their skill to the pleasure of so large an auditory, on that occasion, may be induced to give a repetition of the same at an early day. In doing so their efforts will be "pro bono publico."

We would suggest to those having control of the concert that should they reduce the price of admission, that all would feel it within their means to attend; the general influence would be more beneficial than acquiring large sums of money.

Prof. Weber's accompaniments and voluntary on the organ were all that heart could wish. He proved himself more than an ordinary master of the instrument, and we know no superior as an instrumental musician.

We say, with many others, let us have that programme repeated. F.

THE GAIETY.—Prior to the closing of the above house, for a short recess, we perceive that the attaches of the institution are respectively "up" for Benefits. We have a word to say in behalf of our excellent friend, the Treasurer, Mr. JAC. BRANCH, who, we hope, will have a house, as he, by his gentlemanly deportment, urbanity of disposition, and good business qualities deserve, both at the hand of the manager and the theatre goers of our city.

☞ Mr. DOLBEAR has secured that spacious room over J. H. McGILL's store, on the corner of College street and the Public Square, where he will, on Thursday next, the 30th inst., commence a course of instruction in writing lessons and Phonography. In a community where Mr DOLBEAR's reputation as a teacher is so well known it is useless for us to indulge in a single word of commendation.

SECOND SACRED CONCERT.—We are pleased to learn that the Sacred Concert, which was given at the 1st Presbyterian Church, on Thursday evening last, is to be repeated on Wednesday evening next, the 29th, by request of a large number who heard it.

☞ There was a good deal of conviviality apparent on our streets on Saturday—a general flow of spirits—which degenerated in some cases into harsh language and fisticuffs.

For Congress.

☞ We are authorized to announce Gen. Jas. M. Quarles, of Montgomery county, a candidate for the nomination of the American Party for Congress, in this Congressional District.

Pacific Railroad Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—The Pacific Railroad Convention, after six sessions, adjourned Friday evening to re-convene at Marshall, on the 13th of January. Its sessions were sometimes stormy, and again calm; but its final result was all its friends could wish, or its enemies deplore. Information gathered from the reports of the committees and President, and from responses to resolutions show the Company's indebtedness about $3,7,000 of pressing liabilities included in the deed of trust under which the road was sold to the creditors who compose the new company and now have possession. Part of these claims will be disallowed. The payment of these claims will release the assets of the company sufficient to meet the entire liabilities, which do not exceed half a million, including the deed of trust debts, to meet which $135,000 cash are in the hands of Fowlkes and agents, collected from the fifty cent loans and unpaid stock. Fowlkes has also closed a contract for 44,000 shares of forfeited and donated stock, realizing $110.000 more in cash or its equivalent, making a total of $245.000 wherewith to meet the trust deed debt leaving $82.000 to be provided by the New Orleans and other stockholders throughout the country, in fifty cent loans and unpaid installments. The company look confidently to these to furnish the balance with every assurance that it will be done.

Fowlkes holds besides 40,000 shares forfeited and donated stock, for which offers are now made by responsible parties, that will entirely relieve the company. The payment of the trust deed debts is therefore a fixed fact. Fowlkes, and the delegates from abroad are in high spirits at the success of the enterprise. Nothing now remains but to get Texas to relinquish the suitor the forfeiture of the charter, of which Fowlkes and the Texas gentlemen entertain no doubt. Texas is disposed to dismiss the suit as soon as the debts are paid, and the work is progressing with a disposition to complete the road. Most of the delegates left Saturday. Fowlkes and the collecting agents remain until about the tenth, and will then go to Marshall. A better feeling exists here than has been known for some time. Burkhardt, of Kentucky, is appointed to receive the New Orleans collections. The stockholders are making loans liberally and paying calls on stock not fully paid. Col. Gorin is appointed Assistant Counsel for the company. The Convention resolved not to go into the election of President at present. Cornwell, of Cincinnati, addressed the Convention, urging careful management. King's long address will be published in full. A resolution of thanks to the President was passed. Mr. Morton congratulated the convention upon the successful issue and the bright prospects for the future. The Convention adjourned, to meet at Marshall, as above mentioned.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—Col. Wm. T. Scott, one of the new company, now in possession of the Southern Pacific Railroad, just from Texas, says the only thing the old company have to do is to pay off the debts and take possession. Other members of the new company are here, and say the same thing. The New Orleans stockholders, in accordance with the resolution adopted by the convention, are paying rapidly to-day.

Dr. Fowlkes says: "The road is now out of the woods," and is much elated at its success. It is reported here that those who pay the loan will be protected, and those who do not help will be cut off in case a sale should be forced. No doubt, however, exists among the well-informed of the success of the enterprise.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—It is believed that the Liberals of Mexico will consent to the establishment of military posts in Chihuahua and Sonora, and thus avoid the foreible possession recommended by the President. Forsyth has no intention of surrendering the ministership of Mexico. The overland mail officer at Fort Buchanan reports rich deposits of gold for 160 miles on both sides of the Gila river. 650 men are at work and 500 more are on their way from California. Richer specimens of silver have also been discovered. The prices of Mexican dollars to Sonora dealers have improved. Other parties have anticipated our government and obtained the right to construct a railroad from Guaymas to the American line. Lieut. Mowry asks of the Government the establishment of a military post at the Pelnos villages to protect emigrants.

Santa Fe Mail.

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 27.—The Santa Fe Mail of the sixth has arrived. The snow is three feet deep. The Legislature convened at Fort Defiance on the 21st. Col. Miles pursued the Indians to the mountain fastnesses. Major Bacon returned on the 18th from skirmishes with the Indians. Capt. Valdes' company's spies were badly wounded. Col. Bonneville and Supt. Collins go to Fort Defiance to make peace or war with the Navajoes.

Judge Born takes the District vacated by Benedict.

From Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 27.—The Jefferson City 'Examiner' says, that on the night of the 15th, Fort Scott was attacked by Montgomery at the head of 200 men. The town was taken and 5 or 6 killed. It is presumed that the object of the attack was to release one of Montgomery's men.

It is feared that the town will be entirely destroyed. The Hannibal, Mo., Democrat of the 20th says a band of thieves from the Territory entered Vernon county and kill d David Cruise, and stole a lot of cattle, 20 horses and 11 negros. Simultaneously two parties under Brown and Montgomery entered Missouri on the Little Osage and stole a negro, and took Large prisoner, but released him. An express was sent to the Governor of Missouri for assistance.

and the various affections consequent upon disordered

Stomach or Liver.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Cholic Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has, in numerous instances, proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended nor especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country.—Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way through the coat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, the weak and low spirited it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION.

The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you now immutably superior it is to all these imitations.

Good.—We met one of our friends yesterday on Broadway, and was astonished at the change in his appearance. A few weeks ago we saw him, he was pale, lean and dejected; complaining of weakness and debility, having been so afflicted all summer. Now he appears to be fat, healthy and strong. We learned he owed his restoration entirely to McLEAN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL.

We advise all who are complaining of General Debility to try it; it is certainly a very pleasant remedy. We learn that there are large quantities of it selling daily.—Morning Herald. dec21-2w

The "Elixir."

Prepared by Dr. JAS. WILLIAMS, for the cure of DYSPEPSY, and nothing but DYSPEPSY, (as advertised in another column,) has, by its own merits, obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that Physicians acquainted with its properties, are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced, by observation, of its great efficacy in restoring the disordered digestive organs to a healthy function. Numerous cases of Dyspepsy, of the most aggravated character, which were abandoned as incurable by some of the Medical Faculty, have, by the use of this Elixir, been restored to perfect health, as attested certificates testify apr13-1y
