No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical ailment combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Gen. W. Frampton, of Huntington, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of necrosis—that is, the leg bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three-cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring. I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntington worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. Alf Lusk, Wooster, Ohio, writes: "DR. HARTMAN, Columbus, O.: I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your MANALIN, and it has done me more good ten fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them."

Mr. Edgar Harte, Smeltzer P. O., Elk County, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied at the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Calista Fishel, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MANALIN to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PERUNA entirely cured me."

The Child the Father of the Man.

The gentleman was returning from Richmond to his home in Southampton county, and as we came to Petersburg I asked: "Do you know Mahone?" "Oh, yes; he lives here, I served in his brigade in the war. He is a smart fellow. They say here, 'Mahone is dead.' I tell them, 'wait and see.' They do not know Billy Mahone as well as I do. He is an indefatigable worker, and he never knows what it is to get licked. He can put up more jobs in a day than any other Virginian I ever met. He is perfectly unscrupulous, and all he cares about is Bill Mahone. His father kept a saloon down in Southampton county when Billy was a boy, and the planters for miles around would gather at his place to drink and play poker. The old man could play a good hand until he got drunk. Then he would say 'Billy, take my hand!' Billy, a little sandy haired cuss, would take the old man's hand and clean out the crowd. That was Billy Mahone when he was a boy, and I think he is just as good a poker now. This is his last time in the United States Senate; but the devil only can where he will turn up next."—[Hartford Times.

A Few Suggestions to a Son at School.

My Dear Son—

Your letter of last week reached us yesterday, and I enclose thirteen dollars, which is all I have by me at the present time. I may sell the other shots next week and make up the balance of what you wanted. I will probably have to wear the old buffalo overcoat to meeting again this winter, but that don't matter so long as you are getting an education.

I hope you will get your education as cheap as you can, for it cramps your mother and me like Sam Hill to put up the money. Mind you, I don't complain. I knew education come high, but I didn't know the clothes cost so like sixty.

I want you to be so that you can go anywhere and spell the hardest word. I want you to be able to go among the Romans or the Medes and Persians and talk to any of them in their own native tongue.

I never had any advantages when I was a boy, but your mother and I decided that we would sock you full of knowledge, if your liver held out, regardless of expense. We calculate to do it, only we want you to go as slow on swallow-tail coats as possible till we can sell our lay.

Now regarding that boat-paddling suit and that base-ball suit and that bathing suit and that roller-rinkum suit and that lawn-tennis suit, mind, I don't care about the expense, because you say a young man can't really educate himself thoroughly without them, but I wish you would send home what you get through with this fall, and I'll wear them through the winter under my other clothes. We have a good deal severer winters here than we used to, or else I'm failing in bodily health. Last winter I tried to go through without underclothes, the way I did when I was a boy, but a Manitoba wave came down our way and picked me out of a crowd with its eyes set.

In your last letter you alluded to getting injured in a little "hazing scuffle with a pelican from the rural districts." I don't want any harm to come to you my son, but if I went from the rural districts, and another young gosling from the rural districts undertook to haze me I would meet him when the sun goes down, and I would swat him across the back of the neck with a fence-board, and then I would meander across the pit of his stomach and put a blue forget-me-not under his eye.

Your father ain't much on Grecian mythology and how to get the square root of a barrel of pork, but he wouldn't allow any educational institutions to haze him with impunity. Perhaps you remember once when you tried to haze your father a little, just to kill time, and how long it took you to revover. Anybody that goes at it right can have a good deal of fun with your father, but those who have sought to monkey with him, just to break up the monotony of life, have most always succeeded in finding what they sought.

I ain't much of a pensman, so you will have to excuse this letter. We are all quite well, except old Fan, who has a galded shoulder, and hope this will find you enjoying the same great blessing.

Your Father,
BILL NYE.

Newspaper Facts.

A half-column of scandal will sell more paper than a three-column sermon.

It is the journal that was not started to fill a lang-felt want that usually fills it the quickest.

The paper that becomes a "phenomenal success" before it is a month old is the shortest lived.

The paper that is most frequently alluded to as "our esteemed contemporary" is the most hated by its rivals.

The editor who bemoans the decadence of American humor makes a most dismal failure when he attempts anything in the humorous line himself.

When a journal reduces its size and price "without decreasing its quantity and quality," the chances are that its reduced price is about three times more than it is worth.

The paper that devotes the most space to denouncing "sensational journalism" generally puts the biggest and most startling headlines over the details of a murder.

A daily paper that hasn't "a larger circulation than any other paper in the city" is owned and edited by a man whose respect for veracity should have induced him to enter some other profession.

A man will work fourteen hours a day for six dollars a week in running a country paper of his own without grumbling; but if he was paid a dollar and a half a day for eight hours work at any other employment, he would strike for more wages.—[Puck.

—PRICKLY Ash Bitters is an unfailing specific for all complaints arising from a derangement of the functions of the Liver. It purifies the blood and infuses new life into the invalid. Pains in the side, general uneasiness, loss of appetite, headache, bilious attacks, etc., are sure indications that a corrective is needed. Prickly Ash Bitters is especially adapted for these complaints. It arouses a torpid liver to action and restores it to a healthy condition.

—A DECEIVED woman is the lady who uses cosmetics, face lotions, white lead, bismuth, powders, arsenic, etc., in the belief of enriching and beautifying the complexion. It is but temporary and ultimately destroys the skin beyond the power of nature to restore.—Stop it! Stop it now and use only Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, which imparts the vigor and loveliness of youth.

—A HUSBAND's greatest blessing is a strong, healthful, vigorous wife with a clear, handsome complexion. These can all be acquired by using Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic.
